When the sanitary officers attempted to put extraordinary regulations in force in one of the poorer districts trouble at once resulted The mob made a descent in force upon the police, stoning them and using clubs. While some of the mob thus engaged the police others devoted themselves to a furious onslaught upon the sanitary citicers One of the latter was captured by the mob His comrades could make no attempt to rescue him, as they had all they could do to defend themselves. The officer in the hands of the mob was struck on the head with a large stone and knocked to the ground. Then the mob jumped on him and kicked him about the head and body until life was extinct. In the meantime the crowd had succeeded in knocking down a policeman and he too toon met his death the rioters, with dendish delight, kicking his face until it was pulp. Even after be was dead some of the mob danced upon his body. Finally a detachment of troope, who had been hastly despached to the scene, arrived. The officer in command of the troops ordered the mob to disperse, and an order was given for the troops to fix bayonets, and when the gleaming steel blades were fastened to the muzzies of the rifles, the soldiers chaiged the mob. With bayonets lowered they moved forward on the double quick, and the rioters seeing the bristling wall of steel advancing upon them attempted to disperse in short order. They ran in every direction, many of them, however, were not quick enough to escape the police, who began to chase the moment they saw the crowd beginning to break up. At least a dozen of the mob were arrested.
