PETERBORO.

DISASTROUS BLAZE AT ASHBURNHAM.
 Wednesday morning a disastrous fire raged at Ashburnham, Ont. The persons and animals involved were: Mrs. McGee, horse and two stony teams, loss $100; insurance $300; G. Hunter, cooper, staves and tools, loss $100; insurance $100; G. Lipsitt, three stony teams, loss $4,000; insurance $1,100; Stewart, Wright, boys and contents, loss $3,000, insured for $2,000.

SOUTH VERULAM.

FAREWELL PARTY.—We had a very nice party on Monday evening at the residence of our old friend, Mrs. G. T. Fuller. It is all very well for those living in town to talk about us farmers as being busy, but I tell you that if you had seen the kind of a party that was given at your place you would have been a little more sympathetic. All the young boys and girls were there, and some of the most of the girls of Lindsay. The violin, for I want you to understand he was no common fiddler, came from Lindsay, and Mr. Harris, of Ashburnham, was on the organ. The boys were all dressed in their best, and the girls in their prettiest. The party was a success in every respect. The supper was a success, and the dancing was a success. The whole affair was a success, and we all enjoyed it very much. The party was a success in every respect. The supper was a success, and the dancing was a success. The whole affair was a success, and we all enjoyed it very much.

FLEETWOOD.

RUNAWAY.—As Mr. Adams was coming to the church for a load of lumber his team took fright and ran away. Mr. T. Evans of N. Victoria happened to be coming along and Mr. J. Perry followed after them. They soon overtook them, but much the worse, and a broken tongue and a set of harness and up.

RETURNED.—Mr. James White has returned after an absence of six years, and is working on his father's and father's farm sawing. His wife, Mrs. White, has a large contract sawing wood for Mr. Werry and Mr. Cairnes.

COMPLETED.—Mr. George Staples has completed the job of putting a new fence around the school yard, which adds much to its appearance.

TAKEN.—Mr. Charles of Ballydoon has the job of collecting the taxes for this year. He made his first appearance on Monday in his part with his bill.

DINNER.—The dinner was a success in every respect. The weather, about thirty dollars being realized. Quite a number from a distance were present, among them being Mr. W. W. Werry and his wife. They gave a few speeches which brought the house down every time. Jim spoke as home when he is on the platform. Mr. James of Lindsay, who is an associate on preachers down east, which caused quite a bit of merriment. Mr. Mitchell went through with his club swinging with Hutchinson and Lyne were scored several times.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Willie Stacey and Dr. E. F. Morrow, dentist, of Peterboro, paid this part a flying visit. They returned the same day.

KIRKFIELD.

DISPHTERIAL.—We are pleased to state that our dear friend, Dr. Ross, has quite recovered from the effects of his illness, which was a slight attack of pneumonia contracted in waiting upon cases in which he was called. Fears were expressed that the dread disease would spread, but the almost care given to him, and the result, and no danger need be apprehended. No new cases have occurred in Carden, and we hope for a speedy recovery of the afflicted ones. The sympathy of the community is with those who have suffered bereavement.

CHURCH NOTES.—Revival services are now being conducted in the Methodist church here this week. Mr. Totten of Canington, Mr. Garbutt of Victoria Road, and Mr. McLean of Kirkfield, are conducting services.

CHANGES.—Considerable changes have taken place in our village during the past summer. Mr. Campbell's agency, which Toronto a few weeks ago. Mr. R. McKenzie has gone to Winnipeg. Now we understand that Mr. A. McKenzie intends removing to Toronto. Mr. W. W. Werry has sold his business to Messrs. Campbell & Truman, who will carry it on in the old star. We believe they have secured the Millinery agency, which Mr. Staples has resigned. They intend carrying on a general business in all kinds of agricultural requisites.

IN THE WOODS.—Hunting is all the rage now, a number of Nimrods having already departed for the hunting grounds. Improvements in the woods have been made, and a number of Nimrods are making their homes, making them much more comfortable and convenient.

CHURCH DEMONSTRATION.—The opening services in connection with the new Presbyterian church at Sonja began on Sunday last, the 22nd inst. The didactic services on Sabbath were conducted by Rev. J. J. Wetters. There were three services during the day, and at each the attendance was greater than could be accommodated. The rev. principal's address was plain, practical and vigorous, and eminently attractive. In the morning the Rev. Mr. McMechan, of Port Perry, conducted an overflowing meeting at the old church. A noticeable feature of the day's proceedings was the spirit of cordial fellowship shown by neighboring congregations of all denominations. Most of the churches for their churches for the day and attended en masse. On Monday afternoon there was a repetition of the crowded assembly, conducted by the same speakers. Those who spoke in the afternoon were: Mr. Wm. Smith, M. P., Mr. Sam. Hinchey, M. P., Mr. J. J. Wetters, M. P., the Rev. Mr. Power, and Mr. Cummings. The speeches were without exception short, instructive and entertaining, and the time was fully taken up by the Rev. Mr. Bethune of Beaverton, Wilmham of Port Perry, Deputy of Sunderland and Mr. Kenny of Beaverton. Mr. Bethune delivered an able and eloquent lecture entitled "The Bible not of Man." The excellent choir of the Presbyterian church at Kirkfield were in attendance, and their music added to the interest and pleasure of the meetings. The financial returns of the two days' proceedings were very satisfactory, amounting to nearly four hundred dollars.

DUNSFORD.

CHURCH NOTES.—On Thursday evening, Oct. 19th, a branch of the C. P. S. was organized in connection with St. John's church, Dunford, and the following officers elected: President, Rev. Mr. Kennedy; Secretary, Mr. John A. Ball, treasurer, Mrs. W. B. Kennedy; committee—Mrs. L. McLean, Messrs. Wm. Merrill and H. McCallum, Misses Ed. Taylor and Graham; collector, Mr. W. B. Kennedy. Public meetings will be held every alternate Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. Next meeting—Thursday, Nov. 2nd.

ADDRESS.

THE FUNERAL OF OLIVE BIANCHI, daughter of Mr. R. M. Taunton, whose sad death was recorded in THE POST of Oct. 1st, was attended by her schoolmates under direction of Miss H. H. Patterson, and out of respect for her father, who is a prominent member of I. O. G. T., that lady was interred in the cemetery of St. John's church, Dunford, on Thursday, Oct. 20th, at 10 o'clock. The following address of sympathy with the bereaved parents was read unanimously: "We are deeply grieved to hear of the death of your daughter, Olive. We are sure that she has passed on to a better home above, where she will be happy and free from all earthly cares. We are sure that she will be happy and free from all earthly cares. We are sure that she will be happy and free from all earthly cares." Signed on behalf of the lodge, R. J. & M. H. McLaughlin, Sec. St. John's G. O. P. Soc.

A Sample of Many Letters.

We have this week received from Mr. J. M. Campbell, of Northern Michigan, his first year's subscription to THE POST. Mr. Campbell was an Editor of the "Michigan State" newspaper in St. Ignace, on the straits of Mackinac, Michigan.

Lindsay Presbytery.

On Tuesday last week a meeting of the Presbytery of Lindsay took place in Canington. The main feature of the meeting was the conference held in the evening on subjects connected with vital religion, as given in the program published last week. Two of the speakers on the program called to take their seats assigned to them, but the discussion of the "Obstacles which hinder the progress of religion," introduced by Rev. M. N. Bethune, Beaverton, was especially good. Members of the presbytery supplemented the address by observations and criticisms emphasizing the address.

AN ELEPHANT LOAD OF OVERCOATS

Gough Bros.
AN ELEPHANT LOAD OF OVERCOATS
 The Sledge Hammer is Getting in its Work in Good Style at Gough Bros.,
THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN.
 We place before the buying public to-day our entire stock of OVERCOATS, which is double the size it should be, owing to the mild season—at prices such as will pay buyers to come 100 miles to take advantage of. There's no reason why we can't fit every Man, Youth and Boy with his Fall or Winter Overcoat. This is the season when the unseason pneumonia germ is quietly working. In the heat of the noonday, prepare for the evening chill.

OUR SWELL OVERCOAT STOCK

Is bigger and brighter than ever before, and GOUGH BROS. have stripped the prices of their wilom terrors. They have inaugurated a system by which the man of limited means may be as well and tastefully clothed as his brother of wealth.

| MEN'S OVERCOATS. | BOYS' OVERCOATS. |
|---|---|
| 200 Overcoats, marked $8.00 - $ 6 50 | 96 Boys' Overcoats, marked $3 50 - $ 2 50 |
| 225 Overcoats, marked $10 - 8 00 | 125 Boys' Overcoats, marked $4.00 - 2 75 |
| 170 Overcoats, marked $12 - 9 50 | 175 Youths' Overcoats, marked $5 00 - 3 75 |
| 190 Overcoats, marked $14 - 10 00 | 150 Youths' Overcoats, marked $6 50 - 4 75 |
| 100 Cape Overcoats, marked $16 - 11 50 | 125 Ulsters, marked 5 50 - 4 00 |
| 100 Ulsters, marked $13 - 10 25 | 100 Storm Coats, marked $7.00 - 5 50 |

We make these reductions, not out of love to our customers, nor for fun; but because our Overcoats must get a move on now, and we're going to move them, or know the reason why. Our Overcoats possess style and fit, buttons that are on to stay, seams that won't rip if you sigh, button holes that won't wear shabby, linings that are guaranteed. No other house ever did, ever does, ever can, or ever will, give such good value for the money as
