Is Hon. Mr. Fisher of the Agricultural Department. EVEN HIS CRITICS ADMIT THE FACT.

His Explanation of the Cold Storage Scheme. Ottawa, Oct. 2.—Mr. Fisher, Minister of Agriculture, is coming in for much commendation for the manner in which he handles the affairs of his department.

The Minister of Militia has decided upon extending to all chartered universities in Canada the privilege that was granted to a few by Mr. Dickey's tenure of office in that department.

Mr. Dube, chief messenger of the House of Commons, and Mr. Turgeon, secretary of the House, were waiting upon last evening by the Hon. Mr. Wallace.

IN THE COMMONS. Old Storage Discussed and Mr. Fisher's Deliverance Commended—All the Estimates Passed.

ground of the confusion that would result. Mr. Laurier also objected and the resolution was rejected.

There was some discussion on the item of $5000 for Senators' stationery. The Government proposed that the Senate should be allowed to increase the amount to $10,000 for stationery.

Mr. Foster said it appeared from the estimates that there was to be a not of the Commons next year, but provision had been made for it.

Mr. Fisher answered that he would not care to make the contracts as it was to be only for a few years.

Mr. Laurier replied that it was certainly the intention of the Government to put not until next session, as it was desirable to ascertain first what sum for the reasonable compensation.
