That is the Talk in Regard to Election Protests.

VACANT ONTARIO SENATORSHIPS.

Rumor Says the Late Sir David Macpherson's Seat Will be Given to Either Mr. Robert Jaffray or Mr. H. H. Cook-General News From the Capital. . Ottawa. Oct. 7 .- It is not unlikely that a compromise may be reached in the matter f the election protests which have been filed in the different provinces. Although the Liberals get the whiphand of their opponents in Ontario, yet in the other provinces the tables have been turned. The recent protests entered against Mr. Blair and Mr. Paterson have put the Conservatives in a somewhat better position, and it would not be a matter of surprise if all the protests were dropped. So lar as Ontario is concerned, the only difficulty lies in the belligerent attitude of the Liberals in two of the western constituencies, but in view of the desire of the Government to engage in more serious matters than election protests, the protesters may be induced to fall into line. It is said aurier and Sir Charles Tupper talked the matter over last night with a view to a saw-off all round: It is reported that Mr. F. Rouleau, for many years assistant clerk in the House of Commons, has been superannuated. The position is worth $2800 a year. Mr. Brodeur, the present Deputy Speaker, it is said, has the inside track for the position, but Dr. Guay, M.P. for Levis, is also in the

It is stated that in filling Senatorial vacancies Mr. Laurier will, as far as possible, adhere closely to district lines. He concedes that the vacancy created by the death of Sir David Macpherson belongs to the Toronto district, hence it will go to a man from that district, either Mr. Robert Janray, President of The Globe Publishing Company, or to Mr. H. H. Cook, ex-M. P. The seat vacant by the death of Senator John Ferguson belongs to the Niagara district, and for this Mr. J. A. Lowell seems to be the favored aspirant.

> On Thursday last a letter was received at the Geological Survey Department from Mr. A. P. Low of the survey staff, who left Ottawa in May for an exploration trip through Northeastern Labrador. This letter was dated June 2, at Great Whale River, on the shores of Hudson Bay. Almost simultaneously with the arrival of the letter Mr. Low himself has reached Ottawa. With him are two Indians whom he engaged at Mattawa, and who had shared with him the perils of a journey of three thousand miles. Leaving Mattawa, Mr. Low struck north from the head of Lake Temiscamingue over the height of land to Hudson Bay; thence striking the coast of the Bay east and north for four hundred miles, the party struck eastward through Clear Water Lake to the height of land, where they found the north branch of the Ungava River. Thence they journeyed down the river to Ungava, on Hudson Straits, which they reached on the 1st of September. Here on the 15th they were enabled to take the Hudson Bay Co.'s steamer, which conveyed them to Rigolet, on Newfoundland Labrador. There they found a sailing schooner, which was coming to Bic, Lower St. Lawrence, and with favorable winds they made the journey of a thousand miles in five days. From Bic the home run was made with far less hardship and discomfort than the earlier part of the Black Rod does not like the report that he is to be wiped out officially. His friends say there is no foundation whatever for the reports that are current. An inspired communication in a local paper says there would probably be some trouble in abolishing the office, which has always been recognized as an essential one in the constitution. It dates in England from the time of Henry VII. In Canada the usher of the Black Rod is recognized as an officer of the Governor-General's household, as well as of Parliament. This story is a little too thin. If the Government makes up its mind to wipe out the office, wiped out it will be. Chief Inspector Sweetnam of the Postoffice Department has closed an investigation into the alleged irregularities at the Quebec Postoffice. One of the charges was that copies of a certain Conservative campaign sheet lowed to pass through the postoffice for political purposes without the prepayment of the postal fees. A BLOODY RAZOR

Gave Evidence of the Terrible Crime of Farmer Albert Bray, Who Killed His Family and Himself.

Noblesville, Ind., Oct. 9.—Evidences of a horrible tragedy were discovered this morning at the home of Albert Bray, a farmer living three miles from this city. A neighbor, on going to the house and failing to get a response to his rap, forced his way in, and found the bodies of Bray and his wife and their two little children, aged 3 and 6 years, upon the floor of the bedroom in which they slept. Bray was still alive, but the others were dead. The father exbut the others were dead. The father ex-pired shortly after the discovery, without gaining consciousness. A bloody razor was lying at his side, and it is supposed he committed the butchery with it.

Bray was 36 years of age, a member of the Friends Church, and had always borne a good reputation. Operator Charged With Thieving. Arrival of the Commissioners From Winnipeg

The Date of Thanksgiving Day Made to Tally With That of the United States in the Interests of Business-General News Notes From Ottawa,

Ottawa, Oct. 12.-Hon. Robert Watson, Commissioner of Public Works for Manitoba; J. A. Cameron, Provincial Secretary, and D. H. McMillan, Provincial Treasurer, arrived here from Winnipeg this afternoon to discuss the school question with Mr. Laurier and his colleagues. In official circles it is said that, while a basis of settlement has been as good as arrived at between the Dominion and the province, there are still some troublesome details to be disposed of. The three delegates saw Mr. Laurier to-night and made an appointment for to-morrow to meet the sub-committee of the council, which consists of Mr. Laurier, Mr. Scott and Sir Oliver Mowat. Mr. Watson, in the course of conversation, said the Winnipeg despatch crediting him with saying a settlement had already been reached is decidedly premature. It is to finally dispose of this troublesome matter that the present conference is being

At to-day's meeting of the Cabinet it was decided to proclaim Thanksgiving Day in Canada for Thursday, Nov. 26, the same date as observed in the neighboring republic. The ground on which the change is made is that, as there is a total suspension of busiress in the United States, which correspondingly affects Canada, there may as well be uniformity. Another matter decided upon by the Ministers was to appoint Mr. E. A. Meredith, formerly Under Secretary of State, and J. B. Noxon, both of Toronto, to investigate and report on the affairs of the Kingston Penitentiary. Other commissions will be appointed to enquire into the administration of the other penitentiaries. Mr. W. McInnes of the Geological Survey Department returned to the city to-day after his season's work in the Lake of the Woods district. Mr. McInnes made an extended exploratory of the Eagle, English, Seine and Rainy River districts. The prospects for this region as a gold-producing country in paying quantities are very encouraging. Mr. McInnes states that mining development is rapidly taking place.

The following paragraph appears in The Ottawa Free Press to-night: "Office seekers are still swarming about the Ministers of State, and the lives of members of Parliament are made a misery by the horde of applicants, who seem to think places can be found or made for them. It would be well for it to be understood that the 'spoils system' is not in vogue in Canada, and that it will not be put into operation by the Liberal leaders, who have very emphatically repudiated it. Consequently the public service stands as it did, with the exception of reductions in the interests of economy. Place hunters should remember this and govern themseles accordingly. 'No vacancies' might be hung up on the departmental blocks." It is reported that Mr. E. J. Langevin, Clerk of the Senate, is to be superannuated and that Dr. Guay. M. P. for Levis, will succeed him. Mr. W. A. Fraser, the oil expert, who has been boring on behalf of the Government at Athabasca Landing, has been there all summer, but owing to the late period at which the appropriations were voted this year, little has been done. The boring has been carduring the late elections had been al- | ried to a depth of 1730 feet, and a steel casing put down to that depth. The intention is, if possible, to go about 200 feet lower, in the hope of striking a since the casing was put down, but no oil as yet. The captain is expected here in a few days to resume work as International Fishery Commissioner in conjunction with Prof. Rathbone of the Smithsonian Institute at Washington. Only a few months remain to the two commissioners in which to hand in their report, but as all the outside work is completed, and the duty remaining is a matter merely of compilation, there will among the congregation of St. George's | be no difficulty in preparing the report within the time required by treaty. A Decrease as Compared With Last Year of 185,485,549 Bushels-Rye Also Shows a Heavy Decrease. Washington, D.C., Oct. 11.-United States Consul-General Karel at St. Petersburg has supplied the State Department with exhaustive statistics of the world's wheat harvest of 1896. His figures show that in general the harvest of this year decreased 185,485,542 bushels as compared with the harvest of 1895. The harvest in the United States, Canada, Argentine, Uruguay, Chile, Australia and the East Indies shows a decrease of 165,392,959 bushels. Of the European producing countries, Russia only shows a large decrease, viz., 56,575,467 bushels. The countries of Consumption harvested 37,205,123 bushels more than last year. The rye harvest shows a still greater decrease proportionately, it being estimated at 154,765,714 bushels. A decrease in oats crease compared with the preceding year, being 192,440,651 bushels, as against 241,254,578 bushels. Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Primate of All England Stricken Down.

WAS THE GUEST OF MR. GLADSTONE

Attacked by Apoplexy While Worshipping in Hawarden Vesterday Morning-The Service Was Abruptly Closed and the Dead March Was Played by the Organist. London, Oct. 11.-Right Hon, and Most Rev. Edward White Benson, D.D., Archbishop of Canterbury, Primate of all England, and Metropolitan and Privy Councillor, died suddenly to-day, while attending divine service in the church at Hawarden. The Archbishop was the guest of Mr. Gladstone, through whom he was appointed to the Archbishopric of Canterbury, and in company with the Gladstone family went to the Hawarden Church this morning. After the service had commenced a commotion was noticed in the Gladstone pew, and immediately thereafter church attendants were seen removing the Archbishop, who, it was supposed, was suffering from a fit. He was taken to the rectory and medical assistance was hastily summoned. The doctors worked over him in vain, and at 11.45 he died. The physicians state that death was caused by apoplexy.

Archbishop Benson was 67 years of age. He was born near Birmingham in 1829 and was educated at King Edward's School, Birmingham, and at Trinity College, Cambridge, He was for some years one of the masters in Rugby school, and held the headmastership of Wellington College from its opening in 1858 down to 1872. In December, 1876, he was nominated by the Crown, on the recommendation of the Earl of Beaconsfield, to the Bishopric of Truro, and was consecrated in Paul's Cathedral, April 25, 1877. In December, 1882, Dr. Benson was appointed by the Crown, on Mr. Gladstone's recommendation, to the Archbishopric of Canterbury in succession to Dr. Tate.

The Archbishop and his wife arrived at Hawarden Castle, Mr. Gladstone's residence, Saturday evening. They had just come from the north of Ireland, where they had been visiting, and intended to make a short stay at Hawarden. The Archbishop appeared to be enjoying the best of health. He attended communion at the Hawarden Church at 8 o'clock this morning and then returned to the Castle, where he partook of breakfast with Mr. Gladstone and his family. Later he walked through the park to attend the morning service. The "confession" was proceeding when he fell forward. It was at first thought that he had a and that he would soon recover. The church attendants removed the Archbishop as quickly as possible, one of their number in the meantime summoning physicians. Rev. Stephen Gladstone, the rector of the church continued the service until he received a message from the rectory that the Archbishop was dead. He then closed the service with the prayer for the As the congregation were leaving the church the organist played a dead march, and a muffled peal was rung on

The death was announced in many of the Episcopal and other churches in London and the provinces at the evening services, and much regret was expressed everywhere. Archbishop Benson was esteemed by all sects for his moderation and broad

The death of the Archbishop was announced at St. Paul's, London, at the afternoon service. The sad news be reduced by instalment. The preachers highly oulogized the dead Archbishop for his services of the Episcopal Church, for his personal uprightness of character and lovable disposition. After the service the organist played the "Dead March," the congregation standing as the solemn strains filled the edifice. The great bell of the cathedral was tolled in memory of the dead.

Dean Farrar paid an impressive tri-
