Prof. Thompson was not privileged to inform your correspondent of the result of his enquiries, his report being a confidential one to the Home Government, but an admission of Dr. Jordan's at Seattle that he did not expect to find so many seals at the rookeries as were actually there during his visit, seems to indicate that there is little value in the American conten-

The institutions named are about the richest in the city and will make a strong fight against the appeal.

A SCOUNDRELLY ATTACK.

The Brutal Treatment Administered to a Lady at the Falls.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Oct. 15 .- Mrs. Thomas Powell of Rochester met with brutal treatment in this city last night. She arrived at the north end connection with the gazetting on Sat- on a late train, and went to a nearurday of Hon. Mr. Peters as a Queen's | by hotel, where she said her business was to find her husband, who came here to obtain employment some time ago. A man told her he would assist her in her search, and he conducted her about the streets for some time. Then he took her to an out-of-the-way place and assaulted her. She fought desperately and in the battle received serious wounds. She repeatedly called for help. Her cries were not heard, but they frightened away her assailant, and she dragged herself to a policeman and made a complaint. Shortly before 2 o'clock this morning Daniel McCarthy was arrested and taken to police headquarters and locked up.

PICKED UP AT SEA.

A Halifax Schooner's Crew Had to Abandon Their Vessel and Cargo.

New York, Oct. 18 .- The Clyde line steamer Delaware, which arrived this afternoon from Haytian ports, picked up Capt. Watts and several men, the crew of the Halifax, N.S., schooner Southern Cross, which was abandoned in a sinking condition on Oct. 16 in lat. 32.15, long. 75.52. The Southern Cross was bound from San adders in the same way as they have | Blas for New York with a cargo of cocoanuts, and she left the former port Sept. 13. The weather was fine until Sept. 24, off the west end of Cuba, when a violent northeast gale was encountered, lasting five days, and driving the schooner 125 miles back into the Gulf of Mexico. The weather then continued fine until Oct. 10, when a hurricane from the northeast struck the vessel and hove her down on her beam ends, and it was found necessary to cut away the foremast in order to right her. The rigging was also carried away. The schooner then righted, but it ws found that the rudder was broken and some of the seams had started, so that she was leaking. Oct. 12 she was spoken by the German steamer Austral, from New Orleans for Newport News and Bremen, but it seemed possible then to save the ship, and assistance was declined. Afterwards the hopelessness of the situation was impressed upon all hands, and when the Delaware hove in sight on the morning of the 16th, she was signalled, and Capt. Watts and his crew rowed to her in their own and Dual Alliance Against Her.

The Three Great Questions in England Now are Who Will be Archbishop of Canterbury, Who Liberal Leader and Who President of the Royal Academy.

New York, Oct. 18.-Mr. Isaac N.

Ford cables from London to The Tribune: Sir Edward Clarke has referred to the Venezuelan question as a matter of more immediate and serious importance than the Armenian massacres. Apparently, he was justified in taking this view, since the Chancellor of the Exchequer, a few nights before, had declared that Russia, Ausprevent English interference in Turkey's affairs. If it be true that both the Triple and Dual Alliances are against English intervention, then Europe is united against England, and the Armenian question might as well be dropped and the Venezuela dispute taken up and settled. Sir Edward Clarke discussed the latter question more seriously than anyone else has done for a long time. There are many rumors respecting the final conferences between Lord Salisbury, Mr. Chamberlain and Sir Julian Pauncefote on the eve of the departure of the ambassador for Washington, but it is idle to consider them in detail. Lord Salisbury is an old-time-diplomatist who does not conduct negotiations in glass houses. His recent lack of success in European diplomacy increases the probability that he will make strenuous efforts to clear off all old scores with America while Cleveland remains in office, especially as he knows with certainty that any equitable method of settlement and scheme of general arbitration will be welcomed in England as a triumph of statesmanship and a sign of the progress of civilization. London is dull and torpid under the depressing effects of the most inclement weather known for many years, but whenever two or three are gathered under the same umbrella within close touch of sensitive rheumatic elbows there are three questions which are asked: Who will be the next Archbishop of Canterbury? Who will be the next Liberal Prime Minister? and who will be the next President of the Royal Academy? Dr. Davidson, who is the Court favorite, may be named to succeed Dr. Benson, the veteran Archbishop of York may be transferred to Canterbury, thus keeping a place warm for the Bishop of Winchester, or the Queen and Lord Salisbury may make an independent choice by appointing the Bishop of Peterborough or the Bishop of Ripon, either of whom possesses qualities of mind similar to those of Archbishop Benson. Dr. Davidson has been barely a year at Winchester, and is the youngest bishop on the bench. The question of the Liberal leadership has been dropped almost as quickly as it was raised. Sir William Harcourt is in the Commons, where alone the duties of the leadership in Opposition can be exercised. He will not shirk them. The leadership of the Liberal peers is a trivial matter, and the mortality among public men is likely to be considerable before a Liberal Prime Minister is again in power. Sir William Harcourt has said nothing except to deny the rumor of his withdrawal from public life; but his silence has been more helpful to the Liberal party than Lord Rosebery's elaborate speech, explaining nothing and unsettling everything. The Presidency of the Academy remains an open question after having served to advertise the claims of nearly every Academician. Marcus Stone is still believed to have the best chance of succeeding Millais. Nothing that occurs in Europe excites so much displeasure in England as the undertone of bitterness and suspicion with which the German press discusses every question in which she is directly interested. French dislike and Russian resentment have peen accepted with indifference for many years as a matter of course, but German criticism of English policy causes intense irritation and a feeling of distrust. Mr. Woodall, who has recently investigating schools of South Germany, has made an address in Leicester and sounds a loud warning against destructive competition based upon superior training. He shows how large are the expeditures of the German states on technical education and explains now completely German merchants are qualifled for competing with English merchants in the markets of the world by the attention given to modern languages and commercial subjects in pean crop the world is largely dependent upon America for its food supply of wheat, and the price of wheat continues to advance and to refute the Populist argument. The London County Council has resumed operations after a prolonged vacation, and metropolitan questions are again receiving public attention. The Licensing Committee has heard with impatience the protests of the Puritanical fanatics who advertise the music halls, and convict themselves or indecency by a strained interpretation of dull songs and living pictures. These critics, always more nice than wise, have been so indelicate and meddlesome this year that they have been disavowed by former supporters. The committee has renewed all music hall icenses, and has merely cautioned the managers to exercise greater care in the selection of songs.

THE FEAR OF WAR

Looked Upon by Some People as an Invi tation to War-German Bitterness.

New York. Oct 18 -The Sun's Lonion special says: Except for paper war of almost unprecedented bitterness between Great Britain and Germany, peace reigns in Europe, and the beatng of war drums for the moment has ceased. The national tempo. ... this country was beginning to give way under repeated warnings from the followers of both Lord Salisbury and Lord Rosebery that England must not do this and must not do that because of the danger of war. The idea is bethat this timid fear of war is itself an invitation to war. It would be unfair to say that the | Kinley in sure with 292 electoral col-Armenian agitation is subsiding on account of popular terror inspired by the war bugaboo, but it is undoubtedly dying out and giving place to wide-spread and hopeless disgust over the spread and hopeless disgust over the whole situation, and over the manner in which it is being dealt with by British statesmanship. Mr. B. known west, and his reports this year quarter are close at hand. Meantime there is evidence that a portion of the Treasury.

the anti-Turkish indignation is turning into hatred of Germany. It is true that the chorus of abuse of England by the German press during the past few weeks has been peculiarly virulent and persistent. The reason is not readily apparent, but there is no ques-tion that it has significance. The German official policy is becoming daily more antagonistic to Great Britain. The Zanzibar incident is only a triffing indication of this fact. England is now openly accused in the German press of trying to seduce Italy from the Triple Alliance and of endeavoring to turn the new Dual Alliance in anti-German directions. In fact, England has become Germany's body. Rend bete noir.

This country is at length giving evidence that Germany's feelings are cordially reciprocated. Even The Times has declared it this week in language as strong as its somewhat heavy dignity permits. The German press today replies with a fresh storm of protest. The North German Gazette easily pierces The Times' armor with the sneer that "If the organ of Cecil Rhodes and his accomplices can recollect its own attitude at the beginning of the troubles in South Africa it will not have far to seek for the reason why the German press has adopted a less friendly tone towarls England." This war of words is no new thing, but it has reached a point where such outbursts of international bad feelings are beginning to have serious political significance and effect. The news comes to-day that the orders to put the Russian land forces at Odessa and other points within striking distance of Constantinople upon a war footing are being obeyed with the greatest energy. It is also announced from Constantinople that diplomatic relations between the Porte and the Ambassadors of the Powers are practically suspended. It is understood that the policy of making futile paper protests has been definitely abandoned. It is therefore hoped, if not believed, that the moment is at hand for executing whatever policy or modus vivendi the powers have decided upon. Those who protest loudest against intervention now admit that the present regime at Constantinople is in its last days.

$60,000 IN THE TRUNK.

Left in a Chicago Hotel by a Man Who Did Not Pay His Board

Chicago, Oct. 18 .- When George Craft, a follower of the race track, left the Saratoga Hotel two or three years ago he left his trunk in lieu of a $36.40 board bill. He never came back and yesterday the trunk was opened to see if there was anything of value in it. Apparently, at first, there was nothing much, and Manager Sebree left what there was for the waiters to divide amongst them. Charles G. Brown of 178 Halstedstreet was one of these men, and while rummaging through some old papers at the bottom of the trunk he found $60,000 in railroad securities, which seem to belong to one J. L. Schoolcraft. The papers were turned over to the police, who think that is the name of the man who left the trunk and that he has been made away with.

A BRUTAL ASSAULT.

The Two Jones Brothers Charged With Maltreating Albert Hacker After a Lodge Meeting.

Thomas Jones, 163 York-street, and his brother Robert, 107 Elm-street, were arrested yesterday on a charge of assault.

Bail was accepted for $1000 each.

It is claimed that the two brothers assaulted and brutally beat Albert E. Hacker, printer in the employ of Hunter, Rose Co., who resides at 93 Walton-street. He had been attending a lodge meeting and smoking concert of the P.P.A. at Yonge and Alice-streets. Hacker's jaw is fractured, his nose broken and his eyes so badly injured that he may be blind for life, and there is a probability that he may not recover. Hacker is married, and is secretary of the new Liberal Club, recently organized at Teraulay and Elm-streets.

KILLED BY THE TROLLEY Mrs. Charlotte Truckle Meets an Awful Fate While Trying to Save Her Little

Grandson From Death. Guelph, Oct. 19 .- (Special.)-The first fatal accident on the electric street rallway occurred this afternoon at the foot of the Dundas-road hill, in which a widow, Mrs. Charlotte Truckle, about 50 years of age, was instantly killed in trying to catch her little grandson, who was attempting to cross the track in front of the car. She was struck and knocked under the wheels, taking the child with her. Mrs. Truckle's back and one leg were broken and her head badly crushel. The child received a severe scalp wound, besides other injuries. He now lies in a precarious condition. Both were dragged between 50 and 60 feet before the car was stopped. The car was in charge of Motorman Sleeman and Conductor Collyer. An inquest is to be held. The inquest was adjourned till tomorrow evening.

Drunken Farmer in Kentucky Used a Corn Knife With Awful Effect and Then Lied About It

Bluefield, W. Va., Oct. 19.-Marion Kennard who lived on Badger Creek, Wise County, killed his wife and 14year-old son last night. He failed to injure his young daughter. The weapon which he used was a large corn knife. Kennard had been drinking heavily for weeks. He went home after dark last night. The family had retired, but he awakened his wife and quarrel followed. Kennard then went to the porch, where he took down the corn knife. Returning, he struck his wife, almost severing her head; then, with a blow, he instantly killed the son.

After sleeping off the effects of the iquor. Kennard told his neighbors a tramp had murdered his wife and child, but the daughter, who escaped, related the facts.

Great Deal of Grain and Flour Have Cone Out There This Year-Bicycles and Typewriters Golng Now .-Hawkesbury's Ambitions-A Bride's Presents Stolen.

Montreal, Oct. 15 .- Your correspondent had an interesting conversation to-day with Capt. J. W. Lawrence of the Australian Line from Vancouver, who is proceeding to Newcastle-on-Tyne, where the company's new steamer, the Aorangi, is being refitted with new triple expansion engines and will be ready to take her place on the route between Sydney and Vancouver by the first of March. Mr. Lawrence states that the new steamer, which is 500 tons larger than the two now on the route, will give a four weeks' service between Canada and the Island Continent. He says that a great deal of grain and flour have gone out of Canada to Australia this year, and now hundreds of bicycles and typewriters are being exported. The Captain was born in Australla, and, this being his first visit to Canada, he is delighted with the New Dominion, and says that with a fast service on the Pacific, and, above all, a fast Atlantic line between Canada and Great Britain, this will become the great highway for passenger travel between Europe and the Antipodes. There is a great deal of interest being developed just now in Hawkesbury over the question of the union of the Parry Sound and the Great Northern Railway systems. Yesterday Messrs. Scott and Chateauvert of the Great Northern directorate were at Hawkesbury and asked for a bonus from the municipality. It is proposed to build a bridge across the Ottawa from Grenville, on the Quebec side, to Hawkesbury, in Ontario, that is estimated to cost $360,000, and which will be one mile and over in length, including approaches. The council decided to submit a bylaw to the ratepayers, granting a bonus of $10,000 to assist the undertaking, and it is probable that the vote will be carried. Hawkesbury hopes, in fact, that when the railway is completed the town will become the seat of extensive flour mills and other enterprises, wherein the splendid water power of the Long Sault will be utilized. It is likewise said that when the Archdlocese of Ottawa is subdivided, as now proposed, the Counties of Prescott, Argenteuil, and Labelle will constitute a new diocese, and the Episcopal seat will be located at Hawkesbury, where a new church, to cost $30,000, is being erected. In face of the above Sir Oliver Mowat's fellow-adviser declares that he did Louis Beaubien, Commissioner of Agriculture, sues Placide Houle, merchant of St. Perpetue, Nicolet County, for $10,000 damages for having said than in the general provincial elections of 1892 he (Mr. Beaubien) had induced, for a monetary or other consideration, Mr. Monfette, ex-M.L.A., to retire in his (Mr. Beaubien's) favor, after having been nominated, which enabled Mr. Beaubien to secure an election by acclamation. Some sixty witnesses have been subpoenaed, and the hearing is coming off before Judge Bourgeois at Three Rivers to-morrow. Yesterday while Mr. George Cains and Miss Cowan were being united in matrimony in the Erskine Church, robbers broke into the Cowan residence and carried off a great many valuables, including a good many articles that had been given to the bride.

Positively Cures COUGHS and COLDS in a surprisingly short time. It's a sci-entific certainty, tried and true, soothing and healing in its effects. W. C. McComber & Son, Bouchette, Que., report in a letter that Pyny-Pecteral cured Mrs tubes, and also cured W. G. McComber of a long-standing cold. Mr. J. H. Hurry, Chemist, 528 Yonge St., Toronto, writes:

"As a general cough and lung syrup PynyPectoral is a most invaluable preparation. It has given the utmost satisfaction to all who have tried it, many having spoken to me of the benefits derived from its use in their families.
It is suitable for old or young, being pleasant to the taste. Its sale with me has been wonderful, and I can always recommend it as a safe and reliable cough medicine."
