LOCAL NEWS-LETTERS

CANNINGTON. NEW LIVERY.—Hank Jeffery has opened a livery on Laidlaw's, and has equipped it with some first-class driving horses and elegant conveyances. All orders, night or day, promptly attended to.

DALRYMPLE. HYMN.—At the home of the bride's father, Mr. Adam McPeak, sr., of Dalrymple, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony Miss Lizzie, eldest daughter of Mr. Escoffier, of Silvio Glen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Ross, of Dalrymple.

WILBERFORCE. CONCERT.—Though a little late in writing, Mr. Editor, we thought you should hear about the concert given at the Wesleyan church on Sept. 23rd. The said party was an appointment on the Wilberforce mission, which Rev. A. R. Delve is the esteemed pastor. When Mr. Delve proposed having a picnic here the project was enthusiastically endorsed, and preparations were at once begun for the first church picnic ever held here. It was held on the 16th Sept., but the death of Mrs. Hald on the Sunday of this week caused its postponement to Thursday, the 23rd.

WOODVILLE. PERSONAL.—Mrs. Doyle, of Lake City, Michigan, is visiting her cousin, Miss Evelyn McEwen. Her honor Judge Deane visited this town on Friday last, and was accompanied by a large party of his family.

Indis. Those who came to hear Miss McKellar felt she was well repaid for their attendance, and would gladly have sat for another hour listening to the story of her missionary labors. Those who were not present on this occasion were very much interested in the meeting, and the very best held in this church. The offering amounted to $38.

LIFORD. PERSONAL.—Mr. John Dobson, of Stratford, is at present the guest of Jas. Maguire. Miss Nettie Foster has returned home after a lengthy visit at Midland. Miss Emily, of Midland, spent last week at Mr. Tim's. Mr. Wilson, of Mount Pleasant, spent Sunday visiting Liford friends. Mr. and Mrs. Howe, of Janesville, were the guests of Mr. Staples last week. Mr. R. Beggs, of Fortypool, was visiting here last week.

NEW MACHINE.—Mr. R. Colvin has purchased a new threshing machine on the place of the one he had burnt at Mr. Hart's. He started it to work last week, and appears to be satisfied with his purchase.

GLETT. PERSONAL.—Mrs. L. McGregor, of Midland, is visiting friends here. Mr. Ed. Sedgwick and daughter, Ethel, are visiting relatives here. Mr. A. H. Brandon is in town last week visiting his sister. Mr. R. B. Ritchie spent a few days with his family here. Our school inspector, Mr. B. Frost, visited our school last week and found everything in good order.

NOTES.—Mr. T. Puffer shipped two carloads of cattle from his village last week. Our new teacher has decided to form a "Literary Society," which will be much pleasure for the school teachers.

IRONDALE. PERSONAL.—Mrs. Meagher's youngest child is slowly recovering after a long illness. Mr. W. W. Eklens, conductor on the E. & O. R. R., spent a few days of last week with his family at Irondale. Mr. W. Garry and two sisters visited friends at Haliburton last week. Mr. Bar's youngest daughter wheeled from here to Gooderham on Monday. Well done, Elizabeth!

ROAD WORK.—Quite a lot of repairing has been done on the road from Irondale to Galesburg, which was very much needed.

WIVES.—Another birth in this neighborhood. Mrs. S. Brown, presented her husband with a fine boy on a couple of weeks ago. Sabbath school is already progressing at Cherry Valley, Irondale, there being a better attendance now, as the hour has changed to 2:30 p.m. instead of 10:30 a.m. Peter Barr has put a wire fence in place of the rail fence on the north side of the road above his dwelling house, which looks well and will give more satisfaction in the winter, as it will prevent many snow drifts.

DALRYMPLE. COURT OF REVISION.—A court of revision for the municipality of Linton, Digby and Longford, was held before his honor Judge Deane at Cobocook on Wednesday the 18th inst. The two candidates for the local legislature were in attendance, as was also quite a number of the electors. There were quite a number of names added to the list. Everything passed off very quietly, each of the candidates seemed determined that he would place no obstacle in the way of the other adding all duly qualified electors.

NEW GAMING WARREN.—We are informed that Mr. James McEwen has been appointed game inspector in this locality. It is so very congenial to him on his appointment. Poachers had better beware, for "Archie" will look after them.

HUNTING.—As the hunting season is now about in, there are quite a lot of inquiries about the rules and regulations in regard to it. Mr. William Maxwell, our township clerk, informs us that he has received a number of settlers that he has received a number of settlers that he has received a number of settlers.
