The Canadian Post.

LINDSAY, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1898.

LOCAL NEWS-LETTERS

SOUTH VERULAM. (Correspondence of The Post.) Beware our Emily Lake fishery guardian, Mr. Luke Milaney. One day recently, (or night, rather) a couple of nets were captured by that worthy. The owners of those articles, who are known, belong to a class of annual game law-breakers. He intends dealing with poachers with an iron hand. YOLANDE.

IRONDALE. (Correspondence of The Post.) The concert held at Cherry Valley church was a great success. Every one went home well pleased with the evening's amusements.

Some of our citizens left for the east on Tuesday, where they intend to camp for a few months. Mrs. A. Barr and daughter, of Galway, are the guests of Mrs. P. Barr here.

Miss McCrea, our school teacher, left on Tuesday for Baptiste, where she plans to remain for a week. Rev. Mr. Hopkins has finished painting the outside of the Cherry Valley church, which makes it look very much better.

Mrs. A. Graham spent a few days with friends at Fortescue.

OAKWOOD.

(Correspondence of The Post.) Our genial and jovial mail carrier is on a jaunt to Montreal, visiting his friends and having a good time generally. He usually takes in all the good things that are going.

The Creamery is now an established fact. At a meeting of directors held Monday evening it was decided to put in the plant for the Creamery, to start when the cheese making season closes, and a strong committee was appointed to purchase and put the plant in operation as soon as possible. The first prize on cheese at Peterboro was encouraging; next thing will be first prize on Oakwood creamery butter. This will be a great benefit to farmers, as the milk only requires to be delivered three times a week and over three-quarters of the quantity is returned in sweet skimmed milk. Creamery butter is selling at high prices, both in Canadian and old country markets.

BLAIRHAMPTON.

(Correspondence of The Post.) There has been commencement made towards the building of a new church opposite the school in Mr. Hawkins' field. A goodly number turned out on Monday, 10th, to measure the ground and prepare for the building of the stone foundation, which is being constructed by Mr. John Prentice, Sr. The building will not be erected this season, but everything will be got ready for the spring.

Mr. J. H. Blair, with Miss Paddy, and Mr. Blair, with Miss Paddy, were in the city last week. Mr. Blair is at present staying with his daughter, Mrs. Wm. Blair, in Allsaw, who is the happy mother of a fine big baby. No doubt they are very proud of their heir.

Mr. Wm. Blair and family, of Egypt, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Blair, on Saturday and Sunday last. We are glad to see Mrs. John Cowen has recovered from her recent illness, which was caused by a serious cold. Mrs. Joe Tinney, of Oakwood, formerly Miss Lizzy Hawkins, arrived last Thursday to spend a while visiting her friends in this part.

Mr. Shrigley, of Dorset, spent a few days in this vicinity last week, visiting his friend Mr. Holden Cook. Miss Essie McElwain spent Saturday and Sunday last with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McElwain, of Gellert. Mr. Wm. Blair is having a stone foundation built under his barn. Mr. Chambers is doing the mason work.

The last rains have robbed our woods of their beautiful colored verdure, and we can say with Byron, "The melancholy days are come, the saddest of the year."

Of wailing winds and naked woods, the meadows brown and bare; Heaped in the hollows of the grove the autumn leaves lie dead; They rustle to the eddying gust, And to the rabbit's tread; The robin and the wren are flown, and from the shrub the jay, And from the wood top, calls the crow through all the gloomy day.

LITTLE BRITAIN.

(Correspondence of The Post.) Mr. J. R. Rich, our merchant tailor, is working up a nice business, and deserves it, as he is really a superior workman. He carries a nice range of English goods, and also hundreds of samples to order from. In fit, finish and appearance his suits and overcoats compare with the output of the city tailors. What more can an intending purchaser desire?

FENELON FALLS.

(Correspondence of The Post.) Our local fair had fair weather and a fine patronage. The merry-go-round has been here for a week, and has left nothing for money spent but children on the street at a late hour wishing for some new excitement. The harvest home at Ebonese, near and part of Fenelon Falls circuit, was a fine success last Friday evening. Mr. Weeks, of Woodville, took part with local talent. The annual harvest home at Fenelon will be held on 23rd and 25th prox., and promises to be one of the best held here.

VICTORIA ROAD.

(Correspondence of The Post.) Mrs. Hueston, an elderly lady residing in this village, died suddenly on Sunday, heart disease being the cause. Sympathy is given to her relatives in their sudden sad bereavement. The public are pleased, upon entering Mr. Anderson's establishment, to see Mr. James Rehill's smiling face again behind the counter.

What might have proved a fatal accident occurred the other morning. Rev. Mr. Connell's child, while playing, fell into a cistern, but was rescued by its mother. Medical aid was summoned, and soon the family circle assumed its usual happy appearance. Probably the father will remember to be more careful in the future.

Dr. Fitzgerald and Mr. Harry Shields of Cobouk, spent Sunday with friends in town. Mr. Duncan Morrison, of Cambridge, spent a few days visiting friends in during the last week. Mr. John Barrett and wife are at present away prospecting. Our friend John seems discontented out of business.

A very pleasant event took place in the Roman Catholic church on the morning of the 17th, which ended in an unusual occurrence. It was the marriage of Mr. M. Dougal to Miss Sara Finn, both of Carden. The parties interested apparently being excited over the occurrence and did not hear the conductor order all aboard so the train started unawares, and the onlookers had the pleasure of witnessing a very pretty race, the distance being limited to the canal crossing.

The matrimonial fever is raging and more fatal cases are expected in the near future.

WOODVILLE.

(Correspondence of The Post.) Messrs. Murchison and Gilchrist, of Glenora, have rented Mrs. Annis block and are going to make it with a good stock of goods at once as soon as the place is put in shape. There is also talk of a man from Blackstock, another from Sunderland, and still another from out north, Victoria Road or Orillia, so we will have no scarcity of stores now.

Mr. Dumond is doing good work on the east end of the village, laying down gravel sidewalks and taking up old ones. They will likely be finished in time for snow, so they will come in good in the spring when the snow leaves. His honor Judge Deane will hold a court's list court here next Saturday.

On Friday night, the 7th inst., while Mr. A. D. Carmichael was driving in a hurry to the station in the dark, he collided with Mr. L. S. Vickery, of Lorneville, who was driving fast in the opposite direction. Vickery was thrown out of the rig and got a bad shaking up, but no bones were broken; he got his nose peeled, however, and looked more like an applicant for a pension from Santiago than like a store-keeper. He will soon be O.K.

Mr. Wm. Thomas is getting a long stretch of barbed-wire fence in front of his farm. We are glad to welcome Mr. Donald Jamieson, merchant tailor. We hope he will be a worthy successor to his uncle, John Jamieson, who was here several years ago.

Mr. Lachlan Gilchrist had another addition to his family last Monday—a supporter of men—Laurier and Hardy.

We regret to report the death from consumption of Mrs. John P. Ego. She leaves two little children, with her husband, to mourn her loss. Mr. Ego has the sympathy of all who know him in his bereavement.

The Epworth League and Y.P.S.C.E. will have a union meeting in the Presbyterian church next Friday evening. They are both good workers for the Master.

The directors of the Agricultural Society held a meeting on the 18th inst. to deal with two proposals, one of which was against the decision of the judge in awarding the prize to a team 15 1-2 hands and under. The other was against a horse that was said to have won public money previously in the speeding ring. The owner was given six days to prove his case of loss the prize.

THORAH.

(Correspondence of The Post.) Mr. Editor—You will be beginning to think my communications are very few and far between. The truth is, this part of Thorah, called Riverview, is rather small, hence much news is impossible, so I think I will have to take the whole of Thorah (with the exception of Eden, which has a corresponding editor for The Post already), if that will suit you.

Mr. James Hutton, of Adamsville, Pa., who has been visiting friends in Thorah, returned home last week. We were all pleased to see him once more, and hope to have the pleasure of another visit in the near future; at least some of us do. I know.

Mr. James Hutton, one of our popular Thorah boys, left for Toronto last week. Good luck, Jim.

Who was the young man who lost his coat and whip on the ice, and was frequently on the road between the schoolhouse and the Centre Road. The McRae Bros. are the possessors of a fine new traction engine and are doing good work in this locality.

Miss M. Daly, of Beaverton, spent a few days last week on the ice. Miss N. McRae, of Riverview, spent a few days of days visiting friends in Beaverton lately.

A very pretty wedding took place on the 5th inst. at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. B. McRae, 5th con. when her daughter, Barbara, was united in marriage to Mr. Hugh Chalmers, of Beaverton. The bride looked charming in a gown of cream cashmere, and her bridesmaid looked very sweet in a gown of the same hue, she being one of the bride's fair sisters. The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. J.

Chalmers, of Sutton. The happy couple left on the evening train for Toronto and other points east, after receiving the best wishes of their many friends. They will reside on Simco-st. on their return.

LINDEN VALLEY.

(Special Correspondence to The Post.) The clouds which rested on the earth's surface on Wednesday Oct. 5th, threatened to doom a most popular young lady to become a bride on a gloomy day at the eleventh hour the weather relented, the clouds disappeared, and a clear sky and a bright sun brought smiles and bright eyes in their train. At eight o'clock 150 guests were assembled on the lawn of the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Sadler, to witness the marriage of Miss Edna, daughter of Mr. J. E. Sadler, of Linden Valley. The strains of the wedding march, played by Miss McDonald, announced the coming of the bridal party, who took their places on the piazza, which was transformed into a perfect fairyland of lights, flowers, and evergreens. The bride, who never looked fairer than when she was entered in on her father's arm, wore a rich costume of white silk brocade, bolice trimmed with sea pearls, white satin, and best quality chiffon lace, and carried a bouquet of cream bridal roses. Her sister Susie, as bridesmaid, was charming in a dress of cream brillantines, and pink roses in corsage and hair. The little son, Edna Taylor, of London, was a sweet maid of honor and in her pale blue silk gave the one touch of color. The groom was supported by his twin brother, Wesley, and looked well, proud and happy. The bride's and groom's cakes, and partaking thereof, the Rev. Mr. Hart arose and in an eloquent speech which could make Mr. Terrill proud of the prize he had won, proposed the health of the bride. It was pledged heartily. Then the health of the groom was greeted with "He's a jolly good fellow" which expressed the feeling of all present better than any words could convey. Among those present were noticed Mr. T. Gamble, Aylmer; Mr. Odell, Bad Axe, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson, Camanche; Mr. and Mrs. Gowenlock, Minto; Mrs. Clark, Minto; Mr. T. White, Whitby; Mr. Parkins, Manchester; Mr. and Mrs. S. Barnes, Toronto; Miss Elihu Rogers, Linden Valley; Mrs. T. May, Arty; Mr. J. Spencer, Mr. Williams, C. R. R. superintendent, London, and Mrs. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Parkhill, Bossanquet, and the surrounding vicinity. The wedding presents were all that the heart could wish, being costly, beautiful, and useful; among those deserving more than passing mention were the groom's gift to the bride of a gold bracelet set with opals, a gold belt to the bridesmaid, and a ring to the little maid of honor; a beautiful marriage table set, by Mrs. W. W. W. Williams; a beautiful tea set, by Mr. and Mrs. S. Barnes, Toronto; an extension table, by Mr. and Mrs. Elihu Rogers; and many other costly gifts. About 30 friends accompanied the happy twain to the early train at Parkhill, where, amid a shower of old boots and rice and good wishes, they started on their eastern trip to Toronto and Whitby, where they will settle in their beautiful home near Lindsay. —Parkhill paper.

VALENTIA.

(Correspondence of The Post.) Mr. Cyrus R. Crozier, our genial blacksmith, has been very busy lately in the horse shoeing line, and general repairs. This is a good proof that the work done by Mr. Crozier is first-class and hard to be beaten. We heartily recommend Mr. C. to the farmers of this vicinity. The thank offering service held in the Methodist church here last Sunday was a grand success. Immense congregations greeted the preachers, Rev. Dr. Briggs, of Toronto, and Rev. F. B. Stratton, Little Britain, whose sermons were very instructive as well as interesting. Mr. William Suggitt, our energetic and business merchant, is always found at the old stand. He carries a full line of dry goods, groceries, boots and shoes, and guarantees satisfaction in every line. The noise of the steam thresher is once more heard, and the farmers in this locality are all busy threshing and marketing their grain.

NORLAND.

(Correspondence of The Post.) Since last writing the grim reaper has been very busy amongst us. Friday, the 15th, the remains of Mr. Tullin were laid in their last resting place, in the Norland cemetery, and on the Tuesday following the remains of Mrs. Hilton, of this place, and Mrs. Houston, of Victoria Road, were interred in the same cemetery. The friends and relatives have the sympathy of this community. Mr. Alex. McLean, of this place, is a clerk, has been on the sick list for the past few days; however, we are glad to state that he is able to attend to his duties once more, and hope in the near future to see him as hale and hearty as ever. Our enterprising merchant and postmaster, Mr. G. W. Alley, has also been sick for the day or two. Mr. Terrill, pastor of the Methodist church, is holding revival services this week. They will be continued for some time. Mr. Wilson is preparing to have his house plastered on the outside. Mr. Burgess, who has rented the blacksmith shop from Mr. Kendall, has moved to our village and occupies Mr. Alley's house.

OMEMEE.

(Correspondence of The Post.) We have unusually good health and the doctors are reassured. Whisky after shipment of pigs was made to-day by Richardson. Thos. Ivory & Sons are out buying poultry for Dundas & Flavell Bros., of Lindsay, to ship from here to England. Every farmer is well pleased because there is a good market for all his products. Killen, of Spratt & Killen, were here looking after interests in the grain business. All are getting a very fair share. Mr. T. J. Healy is their buyer at Morrison's ward house. Our church organist is very much in need of a proper musical director to train the voices. David Minns, our mail carrier, has proved himself amongst the most faithful and prompt officials; he is civil and obliging. Wm. Adams, reeve of Emily, who had the misfortune of having his leg kicked by a horse some time ago, is progressing favorably. Bennett brothers are still continuing to do a fine business in their marble works, turning out some of the finest monuments. Widow James Thornton's sale will be held on 29th of October. The Donaldsons, recently of Ops, are making good progress ploughing and bid fair to do the best possible tonnage. Mr. Weldon, of the law firm of Kenny and Weldon, Lindsay, makes regular monthly visits here and is working up a business. He was accompanied by Mr. Phillips, organizer of the Canadian Loan and Savings Co., and a board will be formed here.

GOODERHAM.

(Correspondence of The Post.) The twelfth annual show of the Glamorgan Agricultural Society was held in the town hall at Gooderham on the 6th, and though not so good as last year, as was to be expected owing to the heavy frost, the show was a neighborly one on July 11th and 12th, was a success, being on a still, pleasant, beautiful day. Horses were a full class, but cattle and sheep were in smaller numbers, heavy draughts of these having been sold this summer. Most of the classes of roots and vegetables were filled. The frost was very partial, some having lost all potatoes, corn, beans, peas, and turnips, but the good samples of these that were shown evidenced that some escaped. The following were the prize-winners: Stallion, Jos. L. Hadley; general purpose horses, Jno. Graham, carriage horses, Jno. Parker; heavy draught horses, J. McConnell, A. Graham; saddle horse, A. Graham, H. Raby; single driver, Frank Raby, J. O. Tindall, man with load, J. O. Tindall; colt, 2 years, S. Kettle, Jno. Maxwell; colt, 1 year, S. Kettle; sucking colt, Jos. McConnell, Jos.
