The Weekly Post

LINDSAY, FRIDAY, OCT. 13, 1899.

LOCAL NEWS-LETTERS

CAMBRAY.

(Correspondence to The Post.) The Rev. J. A. McKenzie will preach his farewell sermon on Oct. 15th in the Presbyterian church in Cambray.

BAISOVER.

(Correspondence to The Post.) Colds and coughing is all the rage. Those suffering from bad colds will find an immediate remedy by calling around at N. N. McLean's store, as he has in stock a full line of patent medicines.

Mr. Munro, of Port Perry, who has been buying orchards in the north and west, drove through here this week towards Lindsay. The Rev. Sam. McLean, B.A., is at present visiting his mother, Mrs. McLean, of this place. We are always delighted to see the pleasure of Mr. McLean's society, and we hope he may lengthen his visit as much as possible.

A number of our young ladies look part, viz. Miss Susan McIlwray, Miss Sarah McLean, Miss May Dunn and Miss Maud Hurren. Thanksgiving day is approaching. Look out for a good fowl dinner at Baisover.

KIRKFIELD.

(Correspondence to The Post.) A nice quiet wedding took place at the residence of Mrs. McArthur, Kirkfield, on Wednesday, Oct. 12th, when her eldest daughter, Miss Mary Ann, was united in marriage to Mr. Halsey L. Aveline, of Toronto. Her cousin, Miss Kate McArthur, was bridesmaid while Mr. Neil McMillan assisted the groom. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a large company of relatives and friends by the Rev. B. Smith. The bride was given away by her uncle, Mr. Duncan McArthur. Many beautiful presents were received from their many friends in Toronto and other places, all testifying to the high esteem in which the bride and groom are held. We extend our congratulations and good wishes for their future happiness.

Mr. John Turner and family, have removed from their lofty quarters into the dwelling formerly occupied by Mrs. Latta, but recently purchased by Miss Sarah Westlick. We wonder some of the young ladies in this vicinity do not sympathize with Mr. Isaac Hammond, who is an excellent fisherman, who is keeping bachelor's hall in his fine residence on his farm. We are inclined to believe he would be easily persuaded to join the benighted single men, ladies, who will win the prize! Mrs. Alfred Griffin, who has been under the doctor's care for some time with an ailment around the knees, are sorry to say is not improving. What we would like to know—When the wedding in the east comes off? When we are going to have a new M. D. and hardware merchant in town? Mr. Alexander Kelly, of Cavan, is about going into the old business of raising birds of paradise, as fancy fowls command good prices for their trimming hats and bonnets. We predict for him a bright future. Quite a number from Bethany and vicinity attended Onan fall show, held in Millbrook last Friday, and all speak very highly of the fine display in all departments.

BLAIRHAMPTON.

(Correspondence to The Post.) The farmers have nearly finished taking in their potatoes and other vegetables, and the yield thus far has been very satisfactory. The hum of threshing mills is to be heard in all parts of this locality. The new school here is completed, and reflects credit on the workmen, Mr. John Prentice and son. Blairhampton was the scene of two very pretty weddings on Oct. 4th. Mr. Samuel Hawkins to Miss Avey Davidson, and Mr. David Davidson to Miss Casey Morrison. The brides were charmingly attired in blue. Mr. Laurence Holl and Miss Lizzie Barber acted respectively as groomsmen and bridesmaid. A very enjoyable time was spent in the evening at the home of the bride, Miss Avey Davidson, on the 5th a number of friends welcomed them to their home. Mr. Hawkins to their home, where a sumptuous repast was prepared and partaken of. The evening passed away very pleasantly in conversation and singing. Mr. and Mrs. Blair rendering some very appropriate selections. The company dispersed about nine o'clock, having spent a very enjoyable evening.

WOODVILLE.

(Correspondence to The Post.) Our village council have done lots of good work this year. They built a good sidewalk at the east end up to Mr. Wm. Thomas' gate. Mr. Thomas appreciates it very much. Mr. Cameron is proud of having such a good one past his door. Our lamp-lighter is now doing good service. But he says he won't light them on moonlight nights. Some owners of cows seem to think that the cow by-law was rescinded, as they seem to let their cows out on the streets as of old, but our constable will put them in mind some of those days that it is in force yet. The collector has the roll now and will take the taxes as fast as the people are willing to pay. The council want to have them all collected before the 14th of December. Mr. J. C. Gilchrist has been appointed to sell deer licenses from now to the end of the season, 15th Nov. The Rev. J. McD. Duncan got permission from the congregation to go on a lecturing tour on behalf of the Century Fund of the Presbyterian Church. The Assembly made a good choice in selecting him for the position. Some think that the General Assembly is asking too much of this congregation in taking Mr. Duncan's services, but we should be proud that our pastor is worthy to be called away. Mrs. Donald Gilchrist, Islay, and Mrs. J. C. Gilchrist, Woodville, were visiting friends in Orlia and Oro last week, and expect to return home this week. Mr. Malcolm Myles had the misfortune of having his house burned down last Saturday. It was insured in the London Mutual. He saved part of the contents, but will be a heavy loser. It was a good job for him that he saved the barn. $15 will buy a good second-hand bicycle at J. A. Williamson's harness shop, Kent-st., Lindsay.—w.

McKay, the tailor is prepared to get you up a nice nobby suit of clothes or an overcoat. His stock of fall goods has arrived and his prices are very reasonable. Marchison & Gilchrist are showing a very large range of Shaker Flannels. They have a special job at 7 cents in dark stripes that cannot be replaced at the price. They have just received 50 pieces of new Shaker of different qualities and prices. In dark Loch Lomond Shirts they have a splendid starting at 18c. They start with fine color prints at 25c, and have a full range at 7c, 8c, and 10c per yard, and finer qualities at higher prices. Highest prices paid for farm produce.—w.

BETHANY.

(Correspondence to The Post.) Our council is at present making great improvements in the village by having the streets repaved. We hope they will go over all the streets while they are in the right humor. Mr. John Lee is doing the work, and we feel certain he will leave nothing undone. Great changes are taking place in this village; several old residents are leaving and new blood is coming in. Mr. Orchard, shoemaker, formerly of Kendall, has removed here, and by all appearances is doing a rushing business, as he is both neat and fast, which we are certain will tell in due time. We regret to announce to the many readers of these columns the removal from amongst us of Mr. William Sisson and family. Mr. Sisson has been in the employ of Dr. C. H. Breton for a number of years attending his horses, and has given good satisfaction. He has leased a farm in Monaghan township, where he has been ploughing for some time. The Misses Sisson have been members of the English church choir, and the youngest, Miss Annie, who is a great musician, has been organist for some time. The whole family are very highly respected and have made a host of friends for themselves. We wish them success in their new home. A very quiet wedding was celebrated in Millbrook on Wednesday, when John Cathers, of Clarke township and Miss Ida Pallia, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Pallia, living about two concessions south of our village, were united in marriage. The young couple drove to Millbrook in the afternoon, accompanied by other members of the family, and were there united. After driving back to the bride's parents' home for tea, where everything good in the eating line was in store, all enjoyed themselves immensely. After receiving congratulatory wishes and wishing the heavy shower of rice, the young couple departed for their future home in Clarke, followed by the best wishes of the whole community. Mr. Wm. Westlick, our prominent blacksmith, is erecting a new shop this week, which will be quite an improvement over the one formerly occupied. Mr. John Turner and family, have removed from their lofty quarters into the dwelling formerly occupied by Mrs. Latta, but recently purchased by Miss Sarah Westlick. We wonder some of the young ladies in this vicinity do not sympathize with Mr. Isaac Hammond, who is an excellent fisherman, who is keeping bachelor's hall in his fine residence on his farm. We are inclined to believe he would be easily persuaded to join the benighted single men, ladies, who will win the prize! Mrs. Alfred Griffin, who has been under the doctor's care for some time with an ailment around the knees, are sorry to say is not improving. What we would like to know—When the wedding in the east comes off? When we are going to have a new M. D. and hardware merchant in town?
