

A Store and a School.

A store that gathers the greatest stocks of merchandise.
 A school for styles and beauty study, to which you are always welcome, and which asks no fee. Roam through it—stay as long as convenient—come again and again. There is no obligation on your part. On our part we promise that no one will ask you to buy. If you have any needs to fill and can resist the beauties of the Autumn merchandise which has been gathered for you, it will be because you are not ready to buy.

The crisp Autumn air has redoubled the demand for outer garments everywhere. The snappy styles, the unusual gathering of all that's new and good, coupled with the little prices, has trebled the interest here.

Women's Wraps

The draperies, those proofs of up-holstery goodness, are here in abundant variety. Small chance to be unsuited in this upholstery stock. The newest, the prettiest helps to cozy housefurnishing we've ever gathered await you. The costs are surprisingly little.

Upholstery Stuffs

Snow-like mountains of handkerchiefs—goodness await you to-day, men's and women's handkerchiefs at prices that will melt the quantity quickly.

Handkerchiefs

A splendid assortment surely. How many varied sorts are here, only the women who know this dress goods store know. Not an old pattern—not a plug-ugly in the stock.

Dress Goods

Roam through the millinery section of ours. It's a school as well as a store. Educates you as to styles. Surprises you as to assortments. There is no obligation to buy. Come to see, to learn, and if to buy, to save.

Millinery

Here are Batwing ties, Imperial Tecks, large fl-wing Eton Scarfs—in fact, all that's proper in neck dressings. You may be suited in this Men's Furnishing Store, Mr. Fastidious, and the fun of it is you will save in being suited.

Men's Neckwear

A bargain—a real selling under value. That's the story concerning Gloves to-day. The maker is the man who loses, but his loss helps him to quick adjustment of his business. Here are the Gloves.

The Glove Sale

Ladies' Kid Gloves, with plain and embroidered backs, laced, buttoned and with dome fasteners, Black, Tans, Browns, 75c.

A handsome collection. Rare and beautiful patterns have been gathered for your choosing. Never so large a ribbon-showing here before. And not only are the assortments handsome, they're priced on a saving basis.

DAN GODFREY'S BAND.
 Two Delightful Entertainments Given on Saturday.
 Lindsay citizens owe a deep debt of gratitude to the Academy of Music management for their enterprise in securing a visit from Lieut. Dan Godfrey and his famous British Guards band. They rendered a delightful program in the afternoon, which was heard by a large and appreciative audience, and the evening concert was also well attended. Criticism has no place in a reference to the charming quality of the music rendered; every number was listened to with the keenest pleasure, and any one of them was alone worth the price of admission. The instruments blended beautifully, and the thirty or more musicians played as one man—every note perfect, no straggling even in the most difficult passages.
 The erect, martial figure of Lieut. Dan Godfrey was a mark for every eye. When his musicians struck into his selection of English melodies—the British Grenadiers, Soldiers of the Queen, and others—every heart beat faster, and when God Save the Queen followed the applause became tumultuous and the number had to be repeated. Lieut. Godfrey bowed his prettiest, and was evidently pleased with the favor shown his charming composition. The gem of the evening, in the opinion of many, was the flute solo by Mr. Redfern—it was a magnificent effort, and he had to contribute a second number, "Home, Sweet Home," being number. "Home, Sweet Home," being number. "Home, Sweet Home," being number. "Home, Sweet Home," being number.

WEDDING BELLS.
 —Murphy-Fitzpatrick.
 St. Mary's church was the scene of a pretty wedding on Tuesday morning last, when Mr. Hilary Fitzpatrick, one of the most popular young men of the Opa township, was united in matrimony to Miss Julia Murphy, of this town, and daughter of the late Patrick Murphy, of South Opa.
 Long before the hour appointed for the marriage a large number of the relatives and friends had gathered at the church. The bride wore a wedding gown of white, with a corsage of pearls, and was attended by her sister, Miss Bridget Murphy, while Mr. William Fitzpatrick accompanied the groom. At 8 a.m. the happy couple were indisputably united by Right Rev. Mgr. Laurent, after which followed the nuptial mass. The costume of the bride was "au fait," being a stylish gown of brown lady's cloth with novel champagne trimmings. She wore a charming hat of brown velvet, caught up with effective steel buckles and finished with a lady's cloth with novel champagne trimmings. The Annual Charity Concert
 The entertainment committee of the Home for the Aged has decided upon Nov. 9th as the date of the annual charity concert. "Red Letter Days" is the name by which the play selected is known. A great many characters will take part in it. The officers of the committee are: Mr. John Kelly, chairman; Mrs. A. McIntyre, secretary; Mrs. R. Spratt, treasurer. Other members of the committee are: Mrs. G. A. McAlpine, Talent committee; Mrs. Geo. A. Milne, Decoration committee; Mrs. E. E. Sharpe, Printing committee; Mr. Wm. McWaters, Ticket committee. The concert is expected to surpass even the "Temple of Fame," which was presented last year.

Had a Narrow Escape.
 While the Citizens' band were giving their open air concert on Kent-st. on Friday evening a crowd of young lads amused themselves by playing tag among the spectators, and in the course of the game Jack Simpson, the lively young son of Mr. George Simpson, was knocked down and run over by a passing vehicle. Luckily he escaped serious injury, but has a cut over one eye, several bad scratches and a bruised ankle to remind him of the incident.
 The men's meeting held in the Y. M. C. A. parlors on Sunday afternoon was well attended. Mr. J. Peal gave a practical address on "Success." The orchestra was on hand and greatly assisted in the music.

Putting in a New Switch.
 For some years past Mr. John Carrow has been greatly hampered by having to cart his lumber, ties and shingles to the railway track at Parkin's mill, and as he ships from 300 to 600 carloads in a season the cost has been a large item. Some time ago he met Supt. Tiffin and Roadmaster Cheer and entered into an arrangement to secure a switch from the Parkin mill through his yard, running as far south as the foot of Francis-st. The mill refuse has been used for the foundation, which is now almost ready for the ties. The switch will save Mr. Carrow 2,000 feet long and money.
 Home for the Aged Officers.
 At the annual meeting of the Home for the Aged Society, held in the council chamber on Friday, 13th inst. the following members were elected as the board of management for the ensuing year: President, Mr. Thos. Stewart; 1st vice-president, Mr. Thos. Connolly; 2nd vice-president, Mr. Wm. McWaters; secretary, Mrs. E. E. Sharpe; treasurer, Miss Twinnley. Council, 10 ladies: Mrs. D. A. Brown, Mrs. A. Dolger, Mrs. G. H. Whiteside, Mrs. E. Mosely, Mrs. M. A. Arnold, Mrs. E. B. Crandell, Mrs. J. A. Murphy, Mrs. Dr. Weldon, Mrs. Julia Murphy, Mrs. Dr. White, ten gentlemen—Mr. John Kelly, Mr. J. Morgan, Mr. W. J. Morton, Mr. A. J. Primeau, Rev. C. H. Marsh, Rev. Jas. Macfarlane, Mayor Walters, Mr. A. Moore, Auditor, Mr. W. H. Stevens, B. A. Trustees, Judge McIntyre, Thos. Connolly, Wm. McWaters, Mrs. E. G. Whiteside, Mrs. E. E. Sharpe.

Resignation of an old Conductor.
 Townspeople, railway men, and the travelling public generally, will learn with regret of the retirement of Conductor Wm. Rundle, of the Toronto way-freight, in consequence of ill-health. Conductor Rundle has been in charge of that train for over 20 years, and as his run is acknowledged to be one of the hardest in the Midland district, he is well entitled to a rest and an easier task. Up to a few years ago his run was from Peterboro to Toronto and return, and when Lindsay was made the starting point his duties were not little lighter, his train leaving here between 12 and 1 o'clock and returning any time between 2 and 4 o'clock next morning. As freight had to be picked up or left off at almost every station his duties were very fatiguing apart from the long run. The hardships of the winter service particularly have told upon his health, and he has been troubled with rheumatism. Conductor M. McCarthy, of the Belleville-Lindsay way-freight, succeeds to the Toronto run by virtue of length of service, and Conductor Fred Russell, who has been in charge of "specials" for many years, has been assigned to the run vacated by Conductor McCarthy.

Police Court Calendar
 —R. Brown was arraigned Tuesday morning on a charge laid by Wm. York for non-payment of wages. M. J. Kenny appeared for the plaintiff, and Hugh O'Leary, Q.C., for the defendant. His Honor ordered that the money be paid to Mrs. Copeland, as he considered she had received a sufficient offer.
 —James McFayden, Albro Silver and Robert Dorman, were in court Tuesday on the serious charge of drunkenness. The information was laid by Thos. Duke. It appears that all four were enjoying a somewhat hilarious time last Friday night, and now things have assumed a serious aspect. Mr. A. P. Devlin appeared for the prosecution, and Mr. M. J. Kenny in engaged for the defence. The case was adjourned till Friday next. Bill was obtained for McFayden, Dorman and Silver are still in custody.
Former Lindsay Pastor Speaks Out.
 The Rev. L. M. Pearson, of Collingwood, some years ago pastor of Cambridge-st. Methodist church, in this town, in a recent sermon spoke thusly of the Collingwood fair: "I never saw so many drunken men, and among them so many young men and even boys. I know where the rum is, and I know that the fact that liquor was sold openly. I was told that the very man whose duty it was to look after such matters was on the ground, and winked at the violation of the law. It is terrible to see liquor sold openly, and the gambling men set up their tables. It was a disgrace to see the young men hand in their money, and get in return, sometimes money, in the case of confederates, and in many cases cheap cigars. One person told me that one man boasted that he had taken $700 off the grounds, another $200. It is an insult to the town, and to the Christian world to allow such a state of affairs for the sake of a paltry dollar." The Collingwood managers should copy the methods of our Central Fair men and permit no fakirs on the ground.
Be Ready.
 Physic should be thrown to the dogs, but there are serious "household remedies," and "first aids to the injured," that should always be ready for use. Marion Harland explains just what they are in the first of the four volumes, "Health Topics," presented to each subscriber who takes advantage of the clubbing offer for 1900 of The Weekly Globe, which has been for over 55 years, and is now Canada's leading family newspaper, from now to January 1, 1901, for one dollar, and Marion Harland's latest book, "Bits of Common Sense," four volumes. Sent free, postage prepaid.
