"NOT AS BAD AS SIR JOHN."

The Montreal Star, a well-known independent conservative paper, does not have any confidence in Mr. Abbott's professions of political purity and integrity and in his declarations that hoodlumism must be punished. The Star frankly expressed its opinion to that effect, and declared that it was founded on experience. The Star's position is based on hard, cold facts when it says that "the lawyer who manipulated the Pacific railway bribe in 1873 and the mayor who protected the civic hoodlums in 1887 is the premier who has undertaken to purify the government and the civil service in 1891," and it is justified in refusing to take any stock in Mr. Abbott as a political purist.

Mr. Abbott should be welcomed to the premierhip of the corrupt element of a conservative party is most natural. If he did not suit them they would be hard indeed to please.
STILL "ON STRIKE."
There is an uneasy feeling in Tory political circles at Montreal and Ottawa that Hon. Mr. Chapleau is again "on strike."

EDITORIAL NOTES.
Mr. Laurier was entertained at a great banquet in Boston Tuesday night by Canadians. There was a distinguished company. Mr. Laurier made a very eloquent speech in advocacy of reciprocity.
The election protest against Mr. Thos. Bain of North Wentworth has been abandoned, the proceedings in court lasting only three minutes. Mr. Bain effectively addressed public meetings in the last South Victoria bye-election, and his many friends in this city are anxious to learn of his signal success in the courts.

READING THE WRINKLE!
These sensible girls, hearing so much about the wonderful advantages of using "Sunlight" Soap, have resolved to use it next wash-day, and are reading the directions on the wrapper, in order that they may know how to do a "wash" without hard rubbing, and without boiling the clothes or using washing powders. They will succeed. It's a capital "wrinkle" for all women who have washing to do.

Victoria Road, Oct. 10, 1891.
Messrs Anderson, Nugent & Co.,
Dear Sirs,—The Bedroom Suite, Hall Rack and Pattan Rocker I purchased from you last week arrived safely yesterday, without a scratch. I may say that my husband is so pleased with my bargain that he thinks of letting me get that pretty Parlor Suite as soon as he sells some grain.
I expect that you will have several orders from this vicinity shortly as all my neighbors are praising my purchases.
I remain, yours truly,
Mrs. _____
