The Canadian Post. Lindsay, Friday, Nov. 10, 1893. THE OBJECTIVE POINT FOR FARMERS.

A farmer who has on several occasions contributed to our agricultural columns, writes to THE POST to the effect that he cordially agrees with the general tenor of our article last week on the coming elections in the Victoria ridings. The farmers have an excellent representation in the Ontario legislature, and their interests on the reform side are carefully looked after and promoted by the Hon. Mr. Dryden, who has done so much in his brief ministerial career to develop and encourage our agricultural interests.

general election. No local administration has done so much for the development and promotion of the best interests of farmers. The farmers who have supported, and who intend again to support the Mowat government, will be careful about pledging support to any one without duly considering all the circumstances.

THE FRENCH TREATY AND THE TUPPERS.

The tory organs have again revived that rather delicate question, the relations of the Tupperts and the Dominion government about the French treaty awaiting ratification. There have been rumors that the anti-Tupper section in the cabinet succeeded in again preventing the ratification of the treaty, the Tupperts--father and son--would resign! The Halifax Herald, the leading tory organ in Nova Scotia, in the course of an article that has created a profound sensation in the lower provinces, has declared that "Those who know Sir John Thompson's mind and character understand clearly that he is not the man to be 'bulldozed,' and that in the maritime provinces the liberal-conservative party are as heartily loyal to his leadership as they were to the leadership of Sir Charles before he retired from active politics to the congenial position of official representative of Canada at Downing-st."

THE COAL OIL RACKET.

Quite a racket in the coal oil trade has been caused by the indirect efforts of the Dominion government to head off the growing indignation against the coal oil monopoly fostered by the N. P. Of the coal oil tree Sir John Thompson and Mr. Foster snipped--not a mauling branch, but a twig or two--and they have been laughed at when they tried to make some capital out of the great tariff reform. At the same time the intelligent farmers in Ontario and the North-west who came across Mr. Foster and N. Clarke Wallace in their tariff enquiry peregrinations gave the two ministers such a bad time of it, and showed so clearly that the consumers had to pay enormously enhanced prices under the N. P., that it was clear something would have to be done. They are trying to get out of it by charging the retailers with being extortionate in their prices, and it is understood that pressure has been brought to bear on local sellers to compel them to reduce prices under threat of the establishment of rival retailers. That is a species of tyrannical and uncalculated interference on the part of the Canadian refiner--who has long enjoyed a fat monopoly--and it was promptly resented by our local dealers. The latter will not be understood, but they will not be dictated to, and they will govern themselves accordingly in making their purchases. The farmers of the North-west have demanded the abolition of the duty on coal oil, and the farmers of this county should join in the demand, and they would not only get their coal oil at the cheapest rates, but they would get the best quality. Take off the monopoly duty and down will go prices in accordance with a natural law. Here's a practical question in which the farmers of Victoria can interest themselves.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

It is said to be a certainty that the committee now considering the U. S. tariff bill will recommend a reduction of the tariff to a revenue basis. The tax on sugar will likely be lowered, but that on whiskey, beer and tobacco will be raised. The proposition to increase the tax on beer, made by the committee on ways and means of the U. S. congress, may have an important effect upon the Canadian barley trade. Leading brewers have suggested that a reduction of the tax on Canadian barley to the old rate, 10c per bushel, would add more than a million to the revenue.

The Canadian Gazette of London, Eng. (High Commissioner Tupper's organ) mournfully announces that "the shipment of eggs from Canada to Great Britain this season shows a large falling off compared with the corresponding period of last year, the trade being checked, it is stated, by the unsatisfactory prices obtained here. In reality the shipments have dwindled to one-fourth of those of last year, and the trade is practically dead. Prices have been maintained in Canada owing to the fact that a number of large dealers believe that the American market will soon be opened to them and consequently have packed immense quantities."

CONFIRMED. The favorable impression produced on the first appearance of the agreeable liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, a few years ago, has been more than confirmed by the pleasant experience of all who have used it, and the success of the proprietors and manufacturers the California Fig Syrup Company.

Nothing succeeds like success, and no thing will more quickly insure success than true merit. For fifty years, Ayer's Sarsaparilla has maintained its popularity as the superior blood-purifier. It stands upon its own merits and never fails to give satisfaction.

Those who cannot call, write--Medical Inhalation Co.--Toronto, Ont. Stock Notes. Mr. Dennis Hawkins, of Woodville, has just received from Mr. D. A. Graham, of London, one of the best Berkshire boars he has ever owned, to replace Champion Le d. 1891, sold to Mr. Samuel Chambers, Cambridge. This boar has been shown at the following fairs this fall, namely: Lindsay, Victoria Road, Sunderland, Woodville and Oakwood, and placed first at all, and has never been beaten. We hope to see Mr. Chambers well patronized. Mr. Hawkins has also sold to Mr. S. Coxworth, of Claremont, two extra fine six months old boars, which were shipped to him on Monday, 6th inst. He also informs us that he had to refuse an order for ten six months old sows, as the trade has been so good that he has disposed of all that could be spared. Heard on Lindsay. Lindsay was evangelized and revived and protracted and partly civilized last spring by Messrs. Croesley and Hunter, but the kernel of the rounding-up has apparently worn off. We read that young toughs are coming to nightly rendezvous around the street corners, and that the other day a couple of these toughs set upon a man and took from him some letters which he had brought from the post office. The police appear to be of no use, and the plan adopted by the man who was robbed is to threaten the letters and the newspapers never give their names away when they are convicted of depredations. They feel that the newspapers will conceal their names, so they go ahead. Whitty Chronicle. The Chronicle is too hard upon us. We are willing and anxious to do what we can to suppress rowdism, but we haven't the leisure nor the wish to become private detectives. The editors are heard about $1,500 a year for the police force, and the officers apparently perform their duties to the satisfaction of the council which employs them.
