POTATOES. - Fadden and Staples are again into the potato trade and prepared to pay the highest prices. FINE WEATHER .- The present unusual period of fine open weather is permitting

RETURNING. - The boys are coming home again from the "wild and woolly west." Mr. John McCullogh, brakeman on the C. P. R. from Calgary to the "Rockies," arrived last week; also Mr. Robt. Lytle, who has been farming in Central Manitobs; and the week before Mr. Thos. Pritchard, carriage maker, who has been working at his trade in the Pacific states and British Columbia the past three years, arrived, and like the others, think that Ontario can't be

GLENARM.

Special to THE POST. CHURCH OPENING .- I'me new Presbyterian church, which is receiving its finishing of it will be conducted on Sunday and Monday. Nov. 26th and 27th. There is no doubt this will be the event of the season, and preparations are being made to accommodate all who may come. The services on Sabbath will be conducted by Prof. McLaren of Knox college. Toronto, in the new building, and Rev. A. Ross in the old church (in the Gæll:). On Monday evening there will be the customary tea-meeting in the old church, after which an excellent programme old church, after which an excellent programme will be carried out in the new building, consisting of addresses by the following: Revs. Mr. R. Johnston, Lindsay; Mr. Bethune, Beaverton; Mr. Ross, Cannington; Mesers. McAuley and Wilkinson, Woodville; Mr. D. D. McDonald, Elden; Mr. McKinnen, Feneloa Falis; and Mr. A. Ross. Our political friends, Dr. McKay and Major Sam Hughes, are expected to be present. Good recitations will be given and music rendered by the choir. Those driving from a distance will find ample room for their horses in the old and new sheds. in the old and new sheds. RECOVERED - We are pleased to see Mr. N.

OLD WINTER. - At last the remarkably fine weather has broken and we may expect cold weather and bad roads.

BOBCA YGEON.

[Correspondence of THE POST.]
DEER HUNTERS HOME.—The Read-Bottum party returned from their hunt a week ago, and brought nine fine deer with them, which evidences their skill as hunters.

They all unite in saying that they never had such beautiful weather and fine sport.

SOLD OUT.—Mr. B. Lane, one of our bakers, sold out to our other baker, Mr.

Walker. The two have been running a bakery here for over a year, but it was generally thought that there was not enough business for two bakers here. However, Mr. Walker has bought out Mr. Lane, and has moved over the street, and has things in full blast in Mr. Lane's old stand.

CREAMERY.-Mr. J. L. Read has made arrangements to start a creamery, and is going to try butter making this winter on what he calls "a small scale," and if it proves to be more profitable than cheese making, he will enlarge the business and go into butter making.
RETURNED.—Mr. Jackson Reid, who has been managing a hotel at Courtright, on Lake St. Clair, during the summer, returned to the village last week with his family.

Mr. Reid looks hale and hearty, and likes the west exceedingly.

FALL WORK.—As the weather has been very fine, the farmers in this vicinity are well through with their fall work.

PORTAGE ROAD. Correspondence of THE POST.]

BACK AGAIN.-Last week Mr. Robert Bray returned from the north with his hunting party. Eight of them were out eleven days and they got fifteen deer-not so many as they expected when they left VENISON SHIPMENT.-Two wagon loads of venison passed here last week towards Beaverton.

THE WEATHER. - The weather is fine and wery dry. Very little rain for two months. Tuesday. Nov. 21st. - By Elias Bowes REAL ESTATE. -Mrs. McLean and family, from Carden, have bought Mr. Angus Mc-Pherson's house here and moved into it last week. They have carpenters working at the house making it larger. They will use their farm in Carden for a ranch. P. of L.—The Patrons of Industry meet every Saturday night in the hall near the school. There are about 60 names on the roll. They are a lot of fine fellows and SKREI Cod Liver Oil, will do more building up doing a lot of business for their order. PURCHASE. - Mr. James Steele has bought the shingle machinery from Mc-Kenzie's factory, Kirkfield. He is to start a shingle factory on the Portage Road near Munro's corner. We may expect good shingles when James has the job of making

DON'T LIKE IT. - The farmers here protest against paying tax for a school in Lindsay. They have their schools at home where the young people can learn as well as More Honors for Sunlight Scap. A Diploma and Medal (highest award) have been received by "Sunlight" Soap at the World's Fair, Chicago. The manufacturers, Messrs. Lever Bros., Ltd., are to be congratulated upon the long list of successes which 'Sunlight' Soap has won for them. Their achievement at Chicago Exhibition once more proves their claim to the unequalled quality of "Sunlight" Soap. They have now two World's Medals to their credit—Paris Exposition, 1889. and Chicago, 1893; besides 13 other Gold Medals obtained in different parts of the world. This is a record-breaker in the soap Kingdom.
