BLACK WATER.

LIVE STOCK.—Our live stock market continues to be brisk. Baill & Stone took a car of choice hogs to Montreal Saturday.

CHERRY HAY WANTED.

CHERRY HAY WANTED.—Hay is scarce and very dear here—think it would be a good investment for some capitalists to ship in a few carloads.

UNUSUAL.

UNUSUAL.—Our quiet hamlet was disturbed Sunday night by the appearance of a passenger train about eleven o'clock.

WELCOME TO LAURIER.

WELCOME TO LAURIER.—On Monday forenoon we were favored by a lengthy call from Hon. Wilfrid Laurier, who was on his way to Lindsay.

have returned from Allandale, where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ruddy, formerly of this place.

COLD WATER.

THE WEATHER.—Of late we have had very changeable weather, part of last week being fine and sunny, though frosty during the night.

FIRE.—Three of our nearest merchant stores were destroyed during the early morning of Saturday; the fire broke out at the back and before the engine could be got out to work had obtained such hold that the greatest efforts could show no effect towards saving them.

BUILDING.—The handsome new residence now being erected for W. D. Lovering, esq., to be finished in about a fortnight, will be an ornament to the south end of the town.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.—The cold weather has driven the "bums" from the street corners into the stores.

PERSONALS.—We are pleased to learn that Miss Kate Moshier, whose life for some days has been despaired of, is now recovering.
