St. Patrick is commonly stated to have died at Saul on the 17th of March, 493, in the one hundred and twenty-first year of his age. The shamrock, or small white clover, is almost universally worn in the hat all over Ireland on St. Patrick's day. The popular notion is that when St. Patrick was preaching the doctrine of the Trinity to the pagan Irish he used this plant, bearing three leaves upon one stem, as a symbol or illustration of the great mystery.-Chambers' Book of Days.
