What Is Your Opinion?

GLADSTONE SAYS THAT

all men are natural Free Traders—that given their choice they will buy in the cheapest market and sell in the dearest, and that while laws may be passed by governments restricting trade between nations under the guise of expediency, the nature of the people remains unchanged and they still go on demonstrating the truth of the great principle in their every day bargaining and bartering.

It's a deep question in its wider sense, and we don't pretend to be able to answer it just now—some other time, perhaps. Take the question in its local application, and it's easy for all of us—we all buy in the cheapest market, and we wouldn't get much credit for sound common-sense if we didn't.

Coming down to our own business—that of a Family Grocer—is it not true that people will deal where they can get the quality of goods they want at the lowest figure? Friendship is all-powerful, but it will rarely survive a difference of a cent a pound in the family supply of sugar, and properly so—business is business, and it may reasonably be assumed that one grocer should be able to sell as cheaply as another.

Various conditions make this impossible, however. In these days of vigorous competition the wholesaler holds out his arms to the large buyer who turns his stock over quickly and comes back often. Such a buyer gets the closest margins on everything and his stock is always fresh—the small dealer does not fare as well, and his goods grow old on the shelf.

We turn our stocks over rapidly—"Small profits and quick returns" has always been our business motto, and we're more in love with it than ever. We watch the market and buy in large quantities at such close margins that other merchants purchase lines of goods from us cheaper than they could from the wholesale houses.

Isn't there a profitable lesson in this for all housekeepers? We think so. What is your honest opinion?

ANTIOCH—BROCK. (Correspondence of this Post.) OBITUARY.—This week it is our sad duty to chronicle the death of one of our most estimable young ladies—Miss Kate Mosher. Miss Mosher enjoyed splendid health until about three weeks ago, when she was taken with typhoid fever, accompanied by pleurisy and inflammation, of which she died on Oct. 31st. Miss Mosher endeared herself to the people of this community by her kind, loving disposition and noble, christian character; with always a word of cheer for the disheartened, and encouragement for the ambitious, she won the affection of all who knew her. She taught school in Danforth for two years, where she won a large circle of friends. She died at her mother's home, Manilla, after all that love could suggest or science could produce to restore her to health. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved family—more especially as this is the third death inside of seven weeks. William Allan, a boy of 15, was the first; the father was buried about three weeks ago; and now Katie, a young lady of 22 years.

[NOTE.—Such items should be sent in earlier for publication. News three weeks late is not appreciated.—Ed. Post.]

BETHANY. (Special correspondence of this Post.) ENTERPRISE.—Mr. J. S. Richardson is at present busily engaged with a staff of men in moving his saw mill into the village, and expects to have steam up in a couple of weeks, when he will be prepared to do all kinds of custom work on short notice. He is also putting in a stone and will do kinds of chipping.

PERSONAL.—The many friends of Mr. C. D. Allen, son of the Rev. R. Allen, will be pleased to learn that his health is improving since going to California eight months ago. He expects to return home in the spring.

CHURCH NOTES.—The special meeting held at Fleetwood for the past week will be continued another week, as they have been productive of much good. The junior league in our village is flourishing under the care of the Rev. W. H. Ford. The Epworth Society will be changed to the Epworth League of C. E. in harmony with church discipline. Arrangements are on foot for our church and S. S. anniversary. The Methodist church is likely to be thoroughly renovated in the near future.

PREPARING FOR WINTER.—Mr. Wm. Westlake, our industrious blacksmith and dealer in fancy fowl, is putting tar paper and sheeting on the kitchen part of his residence.

much sought game, and then towed it to the village, where it was found that the two old men had secured a buck weighing over 200 lbs. There is no use in going near the north pole to hunt when such fine deer can be shot with a shot gun, with number two shot, a couple of miles from the village.

LITTLE BRITAIN. (Special correspondence of this Post.) BRAULE'S SCHOOL REPORT.—Standing of pupils of s. s. No. 1, Mariposa, for month of October. Names arranged in order of merit:—Sr. IV.—Beale Robinson, Maggie Gilson, Eva Rodmar, Jr. IV.—John Lannoy, Ida Downer, Frederick Westery, Annie Hall, Herker Cornish, Ida Wickert, Sr. III.—Oswald Gilson, Edger Wool, Sr. III.—Chas Wickert, Wallace Davidson, Llewellyn Hall, Sr. II.—Lorna Davidson, Zella Gilson, Sarah Shacey, John McDonald, Conny Ferguson, Jr. II.—Eletta Western, Ernest Woodriddle, Kitty Ferguson. Part II.—Casey McDonald, Stanley Gilson, Milton Gilson, Annie Wilkinson. Class I—Vinnie Lunney, Bernie Hall, Addie Gilson. R. S. BROAD, teacher.

GELEET. (Correspondence of this Post.) THEY WORK FOR HOWRY.—Large gangs of Frenchmen are daily seen wandering their way back to Montreal. Some of them even carry fiddles, auto-harps and banjos, showing that they are more of a musical class than a working class. They are a nuisance to the whole country, as they go from door wanting meals and committing depredations, while looking for places to sleep at night, and holding up the school houses to scare the little children. Four weary travellers who had walked all the way from Haliburton on Sunday last to the Dutch line, a short way below Geleet, put up at a small tourist house, which they thought would be a good place to rest their weary heads. It being nightfall, so they put on a real good fire. Unknown to them the stove had no bottom, and after they had fallen asleep the fire came in contact with the floor and lo! they woke to find their passage blocked by flames. They did not wait to look for their "turkeys,"—we guess they thought it was a real "shookawiling" to get out at all. They spent a while rolling on the ground to stave themselves of the flames, and then started onward to Montreal. The only serious loss to them was the loss of their "turkeys" and some wearing apparel. The building was not heavily insured.

HARD TIMES. (Correspondence of this Post.) BOLSOVER. (Correspondence of this Post.) OBITUARY.—A gloom was cast over this community on Saturday last by hearing of the sudden death of Mrs. Arch. McGillivray, of "Batternut Creek Farm." Deceased had been ailing but for a short time, and every effort was made to prolong the life of one who was loved by all with whom she came in contact. She leaves a husband, six girls and four boys to mourn their loss. All the absent members of the family—Mr. J. A. McGillivray, teacher at St. Sabright; Miss Lilly May, Toronto; Miss Ada, teacher at Lancelot; and Mrs. Mary Burgess, of Wilfrid, were summoned to join the family and stand by their beloved mother's bedside to hear her last words of advice and counsel. She exhorted each one to be faithful servants in His service. Then was repeated a verse of that beautiful hymn which to her had become a reality: "Safe in His gentle breast, Thereby His love or shadow'd, Sweetly my soul shall rest."

So on Saturday evening, despite all earthly aid, she gently fell asleep in Jesus. On Monday the remains were conveyed to Bolsover the remains were followed by a large number of sorrowing friends and relations. The casket was placed in the church while a very impressive and solemn service was conducted by the Rev. Mr. McDonald, of St. Andrew's church, Eldon. The husband and bereaved family have the heartfelt sympathy of the community, who would say to them, in this their hour of sad bereavement: "Not from the ground arise, But often times celestial benedictions Assume this dark disguise."—LORSEWELL.

SAINTE-FIELD. (Special to this Post.) PLOWING MATCH.—The annual plowing match under the auspices of the Beach Port Perry, St. George and North Ontario Farming Association, took place on the farm of Messrs. D. McKay and John Horn, half a mile east of Saintfield, and was a grand success in every particular. The day was a beautiful one, fine and balmy, and the soil was just the kind to delight the heart of every enthusiastic ploughman. The prizes were awarded as follows: First class men in sod—1, W. J. Graham, Saintfield; 2, R. E. Pardon, Whiteby; 3, Milton Martin, Raglan; 4, John Mackay, Sanderland; 5, W. P. Dynde, Whiteby. Second class men in sod—1, Albert Stone, Wick; 2, Wm. Rich, Oakwood; 3, John O'Leary, Saintfield; 4, Geo. Deane, Prince Albert; 5, Wm. E. Campbell, Blakely, Saintfield. In stubble—1, W. J. Graham, Saintfield; 2, W. J. Graham, Saintfield; 3, James Pearson, Manchester; 4, John Birkett, Ashburn; 5, Sinclair Robertson, Shirley; 6, Joseph Holdershaw, Saintfield; 7, Geo. Staples, Cadmus; 8, Farquhar McEwen, Argyle. Boys in stubble, under 17 years of age—1, Jas. Coates, Shirley; 2, Jeremiah O'Leary, Saintfield; 3, Fred Dawes, Oakwood; 4, Timothy O'Leary, Saintfield; 5, Bert. Coates, Shirley; 6, Jeremiah Hollowell, Raglan; 7, Charles Poque, Glandine. Best outfit—1, Sinclair Robertson, Shirley; 2, W. J. Graham, Saintfield. Judges, Sod—Messrs. R. R. Mowbray, Kinsale, John Campbell Woodville, and Jas. Stonehouse, Port Perry. Stubble—Sampson Roberts, Columbus, Orr Graham, Port Perry, and D. McDonald, Saintfield. Outfit—E. W. Smith, Columbus.

THE ANNUAL MEETING.—The annual meeting of the association was held at Newton's hotel, Saintfield. Reeve Munro, of Reach, occupied the chair, and after a few very appropriate remarks the following officers were elected for another year.—President, Geo. Brown; second vice-president, A. A. Bryant; secretary, Wm. Zaham; treasurer, Robt. Brabazon; directors, Messrs. M. S. Coates, Jas. Stone, Jas. S. Baird, Geo. O'Leary, Jeremiah O'Leary, Thos. Lamb, Robt. Stratton, D. McDonald, John Currie, D. Whitney, Jas. Munro, W. Birkett, Miron Martin, J. Bradley, Jas. Pearson, Geo. Marquis, E. Newton, Alex. Leask, S. Robertson, Wm. Ward, J. C. Brown and N. C. Brown. On motion of Mr. Geo. Brown, seconded by Mr. Joseph Stone, the following deputation was appointed to wait on the minister of agriculture in regard to the obtaining of the provincial grant for 1896: Messrs. Wm. M. Weil, A. A. Bryant and M. S. Coates. On motion of Mr. Coates, seconded by Mr. Joe Stone, the following deputation was appointed to wait on the county council in regard to obtaining a county grant for the association.—Messrs. Robt. Brabazon, Geo. Brown and A. A. Bryant.

RAMSEY'S-MARIPOSA. (Special to this Post.) SCHOOL REPORT.—Following is the standing of pupils of s. s. No. 11, Mariposa, for the month of October. Names arranged in order of merit:—Sr. IV.—Florence Reasin, Chas. Mainhood, Petala Noble, Int. IV.—Frank Purvis, Phoebe Stevens, Hezekiah Reasin, Jr. IV.—Maud Stannon, Annie McKinnon, John Hall—Sarah Reasin, Sr. III.—Roy Broad, Cassie Brown—Ratta Purvis, Julia Noble, Jr. III.—Garfield Woodward, Roy Mainhood, Stella Chase, Class II.—Howard Keslick, Katie McKinnon, Russell Wallace, Daniel II.—Elsie Chase, Victor Chase, Part II.—Woodward, Class I.—Yada Mainhood, Russell Evans, John McIntyre. A. G. STACEY, teacher.

WOODVILLE. (Correspondence of this Post.) A NEW RESIDENT.—One of your Lindsay Celestials was in town this week to try and rent a suitable place for a laundry and barber shop. OFF HUNTING.—Mr. Wm. Cameron left on Tuesday, 5th, to join a party of hunters from Beaverton at the Cameron ranch. PERSONAL.—Mrs. Addie Jack is in town visiting friends. Master Will Cameron left home on Monday for the Lindsay Collegiate. He will be sadly missed among his many friends here. CHURCH NOTES.—Messrs. Johnston and Bennet commenced evangelistic services in the Methodist church here last Sabbath. Rev. J. B. Duncan occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church last Sabbath, 10th inst. PUBLIC LIBRARY.—The members of the Mechanics' Institute are busy collecting a list of books which they intend adding to the public library.

BOBCAYGEON. (Correspondence of this Post.) HERRINGS.—The annual visit of the delicious little fresh water herring is being taken advantage of by a number of our villagers. They furnish a pleasant as well as somewhat profitable occupation, but are not quite so plentiful as in former years. WINTER SUPPLIES.—Our merchants are hustling in their supplies for the winter, as navigation is liable to be stopped at any time. Mr. J. T. Robinson has lately received a carload of salt in addition to an immense quantity of general groceries. Mr. A. E. Bottum and Cain Bros. have also received large shipments of coal, and the Esturion's crew have their hands full. HUNTING.—The number of hunters this season has exceeded that of former years, and as usual some are having good luck and others find it rather monotonous work. A story is told of an exciting scene at Bass lake, some twelve miles from here, when a deer took the water and was immediately pursued by no less than 17 canoes, the occupant of each being afraid to shoot for fear of hitting one another, and as a result too many fingers in the dough spoiled the cake and the deer escaped unharmed. The feelings of the hunters can be more readily imagined than described. NEW RESIDENCE.—Mr. Irwin Junkin's new residence is his fair to be one of the finest and most convenient to be found anywhere. The house is of red brick and contains in all some 13 rooms. The ceilings are high, giving the building a very comfortable appearance. The site is the best in the village, being the ground on which the old Forest house stood. Mr. P. Grant, architect and builder, deserves great credit for the very efficient manner in which he has discharged his duties. THE "ELEPHANT."—The usual quietude of our village has been somewhat disturbed lately by the purchase by the council of a safe, to be utilized by the town clerk and treasurer in placing money, papers, and other articles of value belonging to the corporation in proper keeping. However, notwithstanding the strong protests made by some of our ratepayers against the so-called "elephant," the council have taken a firm stand and secured what they consider to be an absolute necessity. RETURNED.—Mr. Ed. Arnberg and family, who removed to Huntsville some time ago, returned on Wednesday to take up residence here again. We understand Mr. Arnberg has been offered a lucrative position with M. M. Boyd & Co. WARNING.—On account of so many small boys being allowed to carry guns and hunt in dangerous proximity to the village, Mr. M. M. Boyd has caused notices to be posted up threatening the prosecution of any person found shooting on his premises. As they include all the bush land on the island our local sports will have to go a little farther away to have a day's shooting. (From another correspondent.) PANTHER.—When the Esturion landed here on Wednesday evening, and a box containing a Rocky Mountain panther was put off, a crowd soon gathered around to admire this lively looking inhabitant of the west. FALL PLOWING.—The farmers of this neighborhood have been busily engaged at their fall ploughing during this fine weather, and many of them have finished this part of their fall work. SERVICES IN KNOX CHURCH.—[The Rev. Mr. Mullen conducted a communion service in the Presbyterian church here on Sabbath, the 3rd inst. The rev. gentleman preached a most suitable and profitable sermon from the text, "God is Love." The whole remarks and service throughout were enjoyed by every one present. CATAPULTS.—There has been a great rage among the boys of the village lately for catapults, and of course every boy in secured one, and was amusing himself in a boyish way till some of the more daring ones began to try them on the windows of some of the buildings in the village, and this caused the constable to interfere, and now all the boys have to use their elastic in the backyard. HUNTERS.—A number of our villagers have been away for the past eight days on a deer hunt, but as yet some of them have not succeeded very well. The last word heard from the Bottum party was they had not killed one; but not so with the veteran hunter, Mr. Robt. Hayes, who is over seventy years old; oh, no! he stays near home and kills a large buck. On Friday afternoon last he took his gun and boat and paddled down about three miles to Pigeon lake, and was not long there before he saw a large buck in the lake, and of course he paddled out to it, levelled his double barrel at it, but it would not go off, and his next best move was to get some person who had a gun that would go off every time, and he called Mr. Stevenson, who happened to be in hearing of him, and he soon despatched

The Canadian Post. LINDSAY, FRIDAY, NOV. 15, 1895. LOCAL NEWS-LETTERS

ROSEDALE. (Correspondence of this Post.) NOTES.—The weather is all that can be desired for ploughing, it being the chief work now. Herring fishing here is taking up a good deal of the attention of folks from far and near. They are larger than usual, and some good hauls are being made. NAVIGATION.—Dominion government employees are still lowering the bad of the river here. Over 30 men are employed and they will need more when they get done and get the locks finished. They purpose building them so any boat on these waters can come up and allow their passengers to get a view of our picturesque village and lake scenery.

MEMEK. (Correspondence of this Post.) GOOD WEATHER.—Indian summer weather. Farmers are rejoiced to get up the remainder of their crop. RECENT.—The "Kleiser" entertainment on last Friday night was quite a success in every respect, and Mr. Wright, head teacher of the public school, made quite a hit in the effort. HIGH TALK.—The taxes of Omemee are very high this year, and owing to the scarcity of employment will cause dissatisfaction.

LADY VOCALIST.—Miss Lily Jackson, of Peterboro, silver and gold medalist in music of the Peterboro convent, delighted the Presbyterian congregation on last Sabbath with her sweet and artistic rendition of the solo "City of Rest." The vocalist sang the high notes with ease and clearness of voice such as is seldom heard outside of the cities. E. L. CONVENT.—The Epworth League Convention in connection with the Methodist church, held in the church on Tuesday, the 5th, was largely attended. The addresses by the Revs. Cruess, Coon and others, were interesting. The singing of the choir under the tuition of R. J. Mulligan was a marked feature of the proceedings. GRAIN BUYING.—The grain market promises better here now, Midland & McMaster, of Peterboro, having taken possession of the warehouses. RETURNED.—Messrs. T. Stephenson and Sam Grandy have returned from a hunt, having captured their two deer each. Favorable reports are also being received from other hunters.

EARLY CLOSING.—The different stores are now closing at 8 o'clock p.m. from 1st Nov. till 1st Dec. GETTING SENSIBLE.—The small boys of the town burned a sort of Guy Fawkes on 5th Nov. The older people are becoming more sensible, and the day is scarcely noticed here now. KIRKFIELD. (Correspondence of this Post.) IMPROVEMENTS.—Mr. William McKenzie, of Toronto, has been greatly improving the appearance of his beautiful summer residence and grounds here. The work is under the supervision of A. W. Strachan, artistic landscape engineer, of Edinburgh, Scotland, at present residing in Toronto. By the kindness of Capt. Strachan your correspondent was shown over the grounds and the proposed improvements pointed out. We are unable to do justice to Capt. Strachan's great ability as a landscape engineer, consequently our sketch will be short and void of a technical nature. We may here state that Capt. Strachan is assisted by several of Toronto's most skillful and experienced horticulturalists. The beautiful lawn in front of the residence has been raised, levelled and reseeded, and in the front of the lawn a large hedge has been planted which in a few years will greatly add to the appearance. The lawn will be divided into a tennis court of about 1,000 sq. yards in area, and a croquet court of 400 sq. yards. To the east of the residence, and in rear of the lawn, is the hydrangea bed, and in the rear of this is the floral garden of vases flowering shrubs and numerous other floral plants. On the west side of the residence is a floral terrace, and at a short distance a grave planted with elms and maples, and interspersed with clumps of Norway spruce. In the rear of the residence is the general orchard, through which a five foot winding path passes to the grove beyond the creek. At a distance of three feet on each side of this path for over 600 yards is a bed of dahlias. Midway in the path is a rocky covered with climbing vines and ferns. A rustic bridge spans the creek leading to the grove; this creek is bordered with lilac and stock willows. There will be several pretty drives way entering the grounds. When completed we may safely state that Mr. McKenzie will possess one of the finest residences in Ontario. Great praise is also due to Mr. and Mrs. McKenzie for the interest they are taking in beautifying the appearance of our village. Over 600 trees, consisting of elms and maples, have been planted some 18 feet apart along the sides of our principal streets. They have also opened up several of the side streets and cleared up the beautiful pine grove south of the village. Kirkfield will undoubtedly be in a few years second to none in Ontario for beauty.
