THE WRITING ON THE WALL

There is an old saying to the effect that "rats desert a sinking ship," which is very applicable to the present position of the Ottawa government. Convicted of corruption of every conceivable form, it is beset with difficulties created by the incapacity and lack of union in the cabinet, and in the hope of postponing Bowell and offer the premiership to the former leader of the Ontario oppositionof the Toronto Saturday Night, who is a conservative among conservatives, but who cannot stomach the present crew at Ottawa, comments on the proposition as follows in the last issue whom is he asked to help? Is it a brave | with a desire to smash confederation into band of patriots? Much abused as the word patriot has become, to apply it to the majority of the members of the ties is nearly full. Ottawa government would be to make the staunchest conservative laugh. Weakness and self-seeking, pandering and procrastination, have made the government an object of pity and contempt. Alternate fits of bullying and begging have

If we believed Chief Justice Meredith to be a selfish and self-seeking man-though this we know would not be said of him even safe, or there was any great honor to be bestowed upon old and well tried conservatives, Mr. Meredith was not consulted; he was simply sacrificed. It is not the chief mission of conservatives in Canada to till the soil and engage in their daily tasks merely to keep body and soul together, that on election day they may be afforded the glorious opportunity misshappen collection of politicians who, happening to wear the party name, are in power or anxious to get there. The present outfit at Ottawa does not repressent the opinions or impulses of any considerable body of electors in this province except the footsore heelers who are still hoping for a job. There are a number of able and reputable gentlemen in the cabinet who are overshadowed and raised and spent, and now after three years Mr. Wanamaker has had to pay overpowered by those in whom the electors have no confidence, but as it seems impossible to get rid of the rubbish | disclosures. EDITORIAL NOTES.

An Indiana parson has broken the record by unitinglin marriage twenty-one children of one parent pair. The last member of the family married was the fifteen-year-old daughter, who eloped with another girl's beau and furnished Hause with another fee. By the way, the proper fee in such a case would be a liberal application of a good whip.

Those people who are trying to make themselves believe that Canada escaped the hard times and is now in an excellent business condition don't read the commercial reports. There were 49 failures reported in the last week, against 42 in the same week of 1894. And the weeding out process has gone on a long time. The N. P. is powerless to do anything but tax the people.

The German sugar refiners are clamoring for more bounties "to prevent the extinction of the industry." And only a few weeks ago the Canadian tory press was pointing to the German sugar industry as the one great and convincing evidence of the success of the paternalistic policy of protective tariffs and bounties paid out of the peoples taxes. What a greedy lot those "successful" tariff and bounty-fed industries are.

New York Yacht Club members threaten to expel Lord Dunraven. If what Lord Dunraven has said about New York yacht club members is not true, there will be reason in removing his name from the list. Before acting, it will be best to show, beyond doubt, that the Dunraven charges are not true. Then, probably, his lordship will want to resign, and it will not be necessary to do harsh Selling Tobacco to Minors.

SIR,-Will you please allow us to bring to the notice of tobacconists and others the matter of supplying tobacco in any form to minors. Although an act was passed in '92 forbidding the sale to minors under 18 years of age, we find a large number of our town boys using tobacco in various forms, and having the welfare of the boys at heart we intend to do what is possible to stop this pernicious habit.

Any one who gives or sells or causes to be furnished cigars, cigarettes or tobacco n any form to boys under above age is liable to a fine of not less than $10 on summary conviction before a justice of peace. Thanking you for the space given, we
