The Canadian Post. LINDSAY, FRIDAY, NOV. 22, 1895. LOCAL NEWS-LETTERS.

BALSAM GROVE. [Correspondence of this Post.] WELCOME--Mr. Conner, of east Manilla, visited Mr. John Cowperweight's home on Monday. FROM THE NORTH-WEST--Mr. Levi and Mrs. DeGee have arrived home from their recent visit to the north. PERSONAL--Mr. A. McGinnis is expected home from Brandon next week. EXPLANATION--A neighbor has called my attention to a special correspondence in your column, the Watchman, which includes a news item under the heading 'A word to the correspondent of this Post, but does not say from where. Judging from the malicious strain through the letters, I take it as referring to me. Will 'our' editor excuse me for once in a departure from my usual custom of not noticing these 'articles' that manage (illegally) while the chief editor is away in getting their silly writings in a paper. I fail to see what specialities has to do with correct spelling, or how he can be concerned about the equines driven by the 'mail carrier.' As the writer of the item referred to can only be actuated by either sympathy for the 'hop' or malice to the driver, I can only say 'we,' the horse and myself, do not need his sympathy and only pity him for his malice, and will be content to let him only pay his fare, which he is not in the habit of doing. I am glad he shows a partiality for nice horses, but fear he may never approach nearer to ownership than a wheelbarrow or pair of sideboots. A VISITOR--Mr. Sheppard, a bright Bobbysong lady, is here visiting at her brother's, Mr. Reid's, station master. PORT PERRY. [Correspondence of this Post.] PERSONAL--Rev. Mr. Crosby, of Toronto, preached in the Baptist church last Sunday. Mrs. Craig, of Toronto; Mrs. D. E. Wells and son, West Toronto Junction; Mr. G. Schaefer; Mrs. F. J. Miss; Bellamy, White; Mr. J. Watson, Toronto; Mr. F. Moore, Hamilton; and Miss Lottie Code, Belleville; are visiting friends in this town. Mr. John McGill, of Petersburg, Virginia, who was visiting his brother, W. McGill, of the Western Bank, left for home last Thursday, taking with him Miss Dora McGill to spend the winter months at her uncle's southern home. CHANGE OF TEACHERS--Miss Ethel Kennedy, interested in the Methodist church, is to be the teacher in the school, her place will be taken by Miss McConnell, of this town. DUCK HUNTERS--Several outsiders have been here duck shooting, and had good success as was evidenced by the number of ducks bagged. SKITLER--Mr. John White, with Mr. Hooper, west of the town, had a rather serious accident at the station a few days ago; he fell and broke three of his ribs, which will lay him up for a few weeks. SKITLER--Robert Hicks now occupies his new home on Ross-st. GOOD SALE--Castle sold well at John Irving's sale Saturday, good prices being obtained. GOOD BARGAIN--The Brown farm, in the 2nd con. of Reach, was sold last Saturday, and was bought by A. Ross for $800. CONGRATULATIONS--Mr. Bert Bruce, hardware merchant, has a very milling countenance these days; he is now papa Bruce. It is a boy, too. REVIVAL--This is the sixth week for revival services in the Methodist church. The church is crowded every night and many conversions have taken place. The members of this church think Rev. D. N. McCann is the most zealous minister they ever had. It is to be hoped much good may result from these special services. NARROW ESCAPE--Mr. and Mrs. Prentice, from the head of the island, had a very narrow escape last Friday. The ark broke and the team gave a spring and got beyond his control. He managed to turn the horses near the barber shop and brought them sharp around, but the high front wheel struck the harbor pole with force, when the whiffletree broke, freeing the horses. Mr. Prentice was thrown or rather pulled over the dash, and in the fall dislocated the joint of his fourth finger on the right hand, requiring the aid of a medical man. If the horses had got free of the post Mr. and Mrs. Prentice no doubt would have been seriously injured; Mr. Prentice escaped, but was badly frightened. Mr. P. may thank himself for his luck in hanging on to the lines as well as he did. The buggy was not damaged very much, the whiffletree and neckyoke being broken and the front axle bent. INTEREST--The deer hunters returned last Saturday and had two deer for six men. A SURPRISE--Our popular baggageman, James Catshelm, had a somewhat peculiar feeling in his fingers one day last week. He was handling a bag of freight, as he thought, and it turned out to be a bag of porcupines. He thinks people might label their bags when such strange things as quills, prickly porcupines are inside. AN OPENING--Mahlberg Bros., evaporating works are closed for this season. Here is a chance for some one to make money, as they will sell out cheap. A SAD CASE--James Barker, an old resident of Reach township, and recently from Little Britain, went to Revere Court and asked to be sent to Whiteby jail for the winter, as he thought he would receive better care there than he would by remaining at home. Poor Jimmy likes liquor too well for his own good. He is a man about 65 years of age and net a dollar to bless himself with, every dollar he has earned has gone for liquor. OBITER DICTUM. LIFORD. [CORRESPONDENCE OF THIS POST.] CHURCH OPENING--The Liford Methodist church, having had a thorough repairing will be re-opened on Sunday, the 24th. The Rev. Mr. Kilgour, of Cayvanille, will preach at 2 p.m. and at 7 p.m. Mr. Howell, Mr. and Mrs. Tims, the carpentering, Mr. R. of Peterboro, will deliver a lecture on Monday evening, the 25th, on the subject, 'Mind your own business.'

RAISING--Mr. J. Staples has erected a new barn to replace the one destroyed by fire some time ago. The neighbors turned out and helped him, and in a few days it was finished. DOWNEYVILLE. [CORRESPONDENCE OF THIS POST.] OUR SCHOOL--S. S. No. 6, Emily, has reopened after a closure of about six weeks. The attendance is small as yet, but will be larger with the coming of better roads. HYMNAL--On Tuesday last week Mr. Michael Crowley, of this place, and Miss Perdue, of Ennismore, were united in holy bonds of matrimony by the Rev. Father McColl, of Ennismore. The event was quiet, a few friends only of the contracting parties being present. We wish Mr. and Mrs. Crowley a long and prosperous married life. OFF TO THE WOODS--A number of the boys around here have gone to the shanty and others are expected to follow. Really sends out its contingent of stony, stalwart men yearly to hew down the trees of the forest. It surely performs its share in assisting to develop the great natural resource of this country--lumbering. WHY NOT LINDSAY--A great deal of hanting, chiefly of hay, is done from around here to the Peterboro market. The journey is a long and tedious one, it says, and that's all the farmer cares about.

TOWN JOTTINGS. Memorial Cards. Some handsome lines of memorial cards now in stock at reasonable prices for one and two dozen lots. Call and examine or write for samples to this office. A Hockey Team Organized. There was an enthusiastic meeting of hockey players at the Simpson house last evening, and a strong club was organized with the following officers: Hon. pres., J. G. Edwards; president, W. H. Simpson; secretary, H. Richardson; treasurer, Peter Kennedy; committee--Geo. Kemp, S. Hulme, Fred Shannon, Phil. Kennedy. It is probable the club will seek admission to the league. Football Notes. A lover of the game asks: Is there to be no more football? We do not hear much about it just now. The Separate school boys have been practicing Association and Rugby football lately, and now can put up a good game of either. They played the Union school three times and defeated them, and now they would like something a little harder to tackle. We would like to hear in your next issue of some strong team coming to play them, and they will have work to beat the Separates. One of the hottest games of the season was played Monday afternoon between the senior Separate school team and the juniors, and when it ended the score stood 2 to 0 in favor of the young lads. Their team was made up as follows: H. Tims, W. Baker, A. Kenny, A. Callaghan, F. O'Neil, E. Bouyca, W. McHugh, A. Daek; umpire, Stafford Gillogly. The secretary, W. Baker, states that the juniors stand ready to play any other club of equal weight for any reasonable consideration, fish-hooks or marbles preferred.

The Little Peach. A little peach in the orchard grew-- A little peach of emerald hue-- Watched by the sun and wet by the dew, It grew. One day, passing that orchard through, That little peach of emerald hue-- Of Johnny Jones and his sister Sue-- They two. Up at that peach a club they threw-- Down from that stem on which it grew-- Fell that peach of emerald hue. Mom Die!

John took a bite and Sue a chew. And then the trouble began to brew-- Trouble the doctor couldn't subdue. Too true. Under the turf where the daisies grew They planted John and his sister Sue. And their little souls to the angels flew-- Boo hoo!

What of the peach of the emerald hue, Warmed by the sun and wet by the dew? Ah, well, his mission on earth is through. Adieu. [DUNDAS PRESS.]

Mr. John Campbell, operator at Midland, who has been on the sick list for some weeks, resumed his place at the 'dicker' on Monday last. Mr. W. Piggot is at present relieving Mr. J. Chant, agent at Blackwater, who is spending a few weeks' holidays visiting friends in Western Ontario. Two engines and crews left light last Monday for Montreal, when they will be engaged for three weeks or more hauling freight between that city and Richmond, Que. Mr. C. J. Pacey, president of the I. B. & O. R. R., went north last week. He stated that he hoped to have his line completed as far as Bancroft in about three weeks. During the past few days a number of new men have been put to work on this division to fill the vacancies caused by the removal of the more experienced train men to other points, necessitated by a revival in traffic that had run the gannet of the trains all season in the vicinity of Victoria Harbor, where run down on Saturday last by a freight. Engineer Hamilton and Fireman Hunt had the pleasure of putting them successfully out of the way of doing further harm. The travelling public will be pleased to learn that Conductor Lethbridge, of Midland, has so far recovered from a severe attack of bronchitis, which kept him in doors for the past month, as to be able to resume his duties on the Blackwater and Midland run. When the Haliburton train pulled into the station last Saturday morning it was noticed that the cow-catcher and front beams of the engine were covered with blood and hair. Enquiry elicited the fact that a cow had been hoisted over the fence on the passage down. The block system of signals was initiated over the entire length of the G. T. R., commencing with the change of time on Monday. In future no train will be allowed to leave a station until the train preceding it is reported at the next station. While this system may at times cause some delay, the public may rely on perfect safety. The grain trade from the west continues to keep the G. T. R. busy. From eighty to one hundred cars of grain are loaded daily at Midland, and the grain is being stored at the company's elevators at Owen Sound, Port Hope, Belleville and other points on the road, until rolling stock is available to move it further. Until the Georgian Bay, or Midland harbor, is closed the elevator will be run night and day, and all the less important traffic will be suspended until the Northwest grain is taken care of. Mr. White, the general traffic superintendent, and Mr. Webster, divisional superintendent, are located at Midland for the time being, seeing that every expedition in handling the grain is used.

MARRIAGES. CORNELL-JACOBS--At the residence of Mr. C. A. Mott, Norwich, brother-in-law of the bride, by the Rev. W. L. Newton, Mr. R. O. Cornell, of Lindsay, to Miss N. M. Jacques, of Norwich. [DUNDAS PRESS.]
