had been committed last April as a lunatic, died in the gaol on Saturday evening. He was a harmless imbecile, and previous to his committal as a person of unsound mind had been sent up several times as a vagrant. He was taken suddenly ill a few days ago with phlegmonous erysipe-las, and was given every attention by Dr. Herriman, acting as gaol surgeon during Dr. DeGrassis illness. An inquest was held this morning by Dr. Poole, coroner; the verdich returned was "Died from natural causes." The burial charges will be borne by the county. The Kinmount Bridge. against the counties of Victoria and Peterboro, came on to be heard before Mr. Justice Meredith at the chancery sittings of the high court at Lindsay on Tuesday, 19th). The action was brought by the township of Somerville on a declaration against the counties of Peterboro and Victoria that the latter were bound to maintain the Kinmount bridge. The county of Victoria, although nominally one of the defendants, so far as contesting the case was concerned sided with the plaintiff. Considerable evidence was taken on both sides, and after argument by counsel, Mr. Meredith reserved judgment. A. B. Ayles-worth, Q.C., and McSweyn & Anderson for pltf, and Geo. H.
