Moved by Dr. CORNWALL, seconded by Mr. LOWNSBROUGH, and resolved, that i is with unfeigned and profound sorrow that the members of this council place on record a memorial of their late colleague, John Chambers, esquire, reeve of the township of Fenelon. When the members last separated from their duties it was unthought that one in the meridian of manhood in years and useful life, would so soon by cut down, but so it has been, and we can but reverently bow to the will of Him who in His wisdom has permitted so great a loss to befall the community which our colleague served so zealously and well. Coming into the council six years ago, he early became a favorite of his fellows by reason of his geniality and the modesty of his demeanor. Whilst desirous of doing his duty fully, he was ever ready to learn from and defer to the views of those among us whom he was pleased to confess had larger experience and knowledge of public affairs, and when, during last year, he occupied the honorable position of warden, conscientious care in the discharge of his duties and a sensitive desire always to do what was best were distinctive marks of his character. The calling of the roll, with the responses, were very interesting. The non resident numbers sent messages and thank-offerings. The sermons and addresses by the Rev. F. B. Kennedy, B.A., were forcible and stimulating. A crowded church listened to his lecture, "A Man's a Man for a' That," which bristled with incident and wit; it was full of common sense and was helpful and uplifting. There will be no difficulty in filling the church on his next visit. The thank-offerings were good, raising the total sent in from this field for home missions in two months to $70.

WOODVILLE. [Correspondence of THE POST.] BUSINESS CHANGE. - Mr. W. T. Moore recently purchased the livery business formerly carried on by Mr. Ben Ross. The FIRE.—The barns and stables, with the contents, on the farm lately owned by J.

H. Wilson, were consumed by fire on Thursday night. The place has been rented by George Wilson for the past two years. His loss will be heavy, as he had no insurance. A threshing machine owned by Ben Farrer, which had been at work during the day, was also burned. The fire was the work of an incendiary, as it started In the stack about 12 o'clock and the fire was out in the engine at 6 o'clock.

Home Again.—Ed. Staples and R. Benson have returned home from Manitobalocking hale and hearty. They give a good account of the crop where they were.

BOBCAYGEON.

THE ANNIVERSARY of the Bobcaygeon Methodist church was a decided success. The Rev. J. J. Rae on the Sabbath preached to large and deeply interested congregations both morning and evening. The tea on Monday evening was largely patronized by the villagers and people from the surrounding country. The lecture on "Mind your own business" was listened to throughout (one hour and one half) with marvellous attention and quietness, except when the stillness was disturbed by bursts of laughter as the lecturer illustrated a point by an appropriate but ludicrous story. The singing was well rendered by the choir. All were highly pleased with the evening, and the board of trustees have $100 as the result of the anniversary.

Dunsford. CHURCH NOTE -Rev. Mr. Chaffee conducted anniversary service in St. John's church last Sunday. Both morning and evening services were well attended and the offertories were liberal.

OBIT.-On Tuesday, 17th inst., the rewere interred in St. John's churchyard. Mr. Bell was with a party of friends deer hunting in Peterboro county, near Whetupturned canoe floating on its surface, suspected that their comrade had been drowned. Their suspicions were sadly verified by finding his body the following day at a depth of twenty five feet below the surface. His brothers, Messrs. Arthur and Thos. Bell, and Mr. R. Thurston, his brother-in-law, who had been telegraphed for, immediately left for the scene of the disaster, and on Monday returned with the body. Mr. Bell was a son of the late Mr. John Bell; he was born and brought up on the farm now occupied by his brother,
Mr. Thos. Bell. The deceased was well and favorably known, of a kind-hearted, genial disposition, a good friend, olliging neighbor, kind husband and indulgent parent, and the report of his sad and sudden departure cast a gloom over the whole neighborhood. His funeral took place from the residence of his brother, Mr. Thos. Bell, and was numerously attended by sympathising friends, many of whom were his old schoolfellows; also by a number of his new acquaintenance. Chopping of all kinds promptly he must have been greatly respected, as those attending his funeral had to drive forty miles to pay their last tribute of respect to a departed companion. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr. O'Malley, of Lindsay, the Rev. Mr. Creighton, incumbent of Dunsford, being

KIRK FIELD. ROWDYISM .- The 15th brings around the usual number of drunks and more or less rowdyism, and the evening of the 16th was who is fearless in his duty and who is couple of the noisier ones were quickly landed in the lock-up and brought the next morning before Mr. John Ray, J.P., who fined them $5 and costs for their evening's amusement. Two others were also summoned before him for enticing the prisoners to resist the constable. They were fined $12 50 each and costs—a lesson that will undoubtedly teach them to mind village when completed. COUNTY COUNCIL.-The present system of electing the county council terminates with the close of the year. Henceforth twelve commissioners will transact the county business instead of the present twenty-six. Our county is now divided into six districts, each of which will elect two commissioners. The townships of Eldon, Dalton and Carden, and the village of Woodville, form District No. 6. It is to be hoped that the electors of this district will consult their interests by electing two representatives who will be able to fulfil their new and onerous duties to the credit of the district. The members of the new county council will have far more duties than at present, being fewer in numbers and having much larger districts to look after every commissioner should be a skilled debater who can clearly place his views before the council on all occasions, experience, and who will be able to deal intelligently with matters of grave importance that will undoubtedly come up before the new body.
