CONCERT AND DEBATE.-A large crowd that society. Three members of the C. L. A., of Lindsay, were present and debated against three young men of the C. L. A here. Those from Lindsay were Messrs. McCauley, MacDonald and Begley. The subject was "Resolved, that there is more pleasure in city life than in country life." The visitors took the affirmative, and the negative was upheld by Messrs. James D. Ryan, Thos. Fleury and John J. Garvey. The subject was very well handled by both sides. Rev. Father McColl, of Ennismore. made a pleasant and efficient chairman In giving his decision he said it was rather a difficult task, as the subject had been so well argued by both sides, and it was almost a case of Paddy's oxen-"both best" -however, after summing up all the points he found that the Lindsay boys had made one more point than their opponents, consequently he gave the decision in their favor. He took occasion to remark, how ever, that if the Downeyville boys had taken their allotted time in speaking that they might have won. He also congratu-lated Ray. Father Bretherton on having such a nice room, and signified his intention of starting a similar sce ety in Ennismore. Mr. James D. Ryan moved a vote of thanks to Rav. Father McColl in accepting the invitation to act as chair-man, and felt that he was voicing the sentiments of all present in saying that he made an excellent chairman. Mr. Mc-Cauley, in a few well chosen remarks, seconded the vote of thanks, and said that in the near future they would forward an invitation to the C.L.A. of Downeyville to send some of the members to debate against them in their rooms at Lindsay. Rev. Father Bretherton was highly pleased with the entertainment, and said that with a little more practice our boys could compete with the best of them. Messrs. Charles Podger and F. Shannon contributed largely to the success of the entertainment, each singing several songs, some of which were encored; they also gave selections on the guitar, banjo, and accordeon. Rev.
