The Result of Ignorance.

[To the Editor of THE POST.] SIR,-Lindsay has as good a fire alarm system as any town in the province, but thanks to the bungling work of our council it bids fair to become on a par with the street grader, etc., in other words-to be

From the day the installation of a system was first seriously mooted, Councillor Spotheran made himself offensively prominent in handling a matter of which he knew less than nothing; "offensively," because throughout he acted purely as an obstructionist. Recently Mr. S. stated "We can teach one of the firemen to keep the system in order." To day the system contractor—so now is the time for Mr. S. to shine as electrical instructor in chief to the fire department. But let me say right here that the council—I should say, Mr. Sootheran—will eventually have to do as the other towns, and appoint some competent man to regularly test, inspect and maintain the system. - Yours, etc.,

The Young Liberals' Meeting. [To the Editor of THE POST.] SIR,-"Fair Play," whose letter appears in the Watchman of last week, complains that the organization meeting of the Young Liberals of the town was convened at the Boys' Room of the Y.M.C.A. suite. I think, however, had he endeavored to ascertain the facts before writing, his good sense would have prevailed and the letter would not have been written. The Y.M. C.A. have a suite of rooms. One is called the Boys' room, having a separate entrance from the others. The association have been in the hatit of allowing lawful meet rental therefor, and deriving a small revenue in this way. If the Young Liborganize in the same way, I have no doubt they can have the same room on paying what the Young Liberals paid for it.

In a few days now the farmers of the township of Ope, interested in the lowering of the water of the Sougog, are to the rooms which is less frequently used by the association than the others.

I offer this explanation to "Fair Play" fully explain all the points of the manly and trust that he will accept it.

I also understand that all the chairs belonging to the Y.M.C.A. were loaned to the conservatives for use in the Academy on the evening of the Whitney meeting. Where is the distinction between tories sitting on Y M.C.A. chairs in the Academy, and grits sitting on tham in their rooms? The grits paid for their privilege—how about the tories?—Yours sincerely,
D. R. ANDERSON.

The Fire Alarm Bungle,

[To the Editor of THE POST.] DEAR SIR,-In view of the trouble now being experienced with the fire alarm system, and of the attempt being made to few friends of Sir Oliver and Mr. shoulder the blame on me, permit me to make a statement and justify myself in in the chamber while the oath was the eyes of the public. The system as installed is one of the best made, as is proved by the fact that the underwriters give it the preference over all others. It was turned over by me to the council in good working order, as is proved by the council having inspected, accepted and paid for it. At the time myself and others were tendering for the contract we warned the council that so complicated and delicate a piece of machinery would need the constant care and extention of a competent man to keep the contract was accepted.

Hon. William Mulock, Commander Law, Capt. Kirkpatrick, Thomas Hodgins, Q. C., Capt. Wilberforce, A.D.C., H. M. Mowat, Dr. Hewitt, Secretary to His Excellency, and three representatives of proved by the council having inspected, and allow the system to fall into its present crippled condition. It is but fair sand allow the system and life present crippled condition. It is but fair to explain to the ratepayers of Lindsay that the present "bungle" may be fairly ascribed to the (perhaps thoughtless) but certainly culpable neglect of Mayor Smyth and his advisers in dealing with this matter, he (and they) having been fully warned at the last regular meeting of council. And now, finding themselves in a box, instead of being manly enough to own up that they have been prejudiced throughout by ignorance and petty spite, they are indulgent in vituperation, but indulgent in vituperation, but indulgent in vituperation, but they are indulgent in vituperation, but indulg
