LOCAL BREVITIES.

Town and County Items of Interest
—Owing to low water the Eskutrin now heads below the Rathbun Co. mill.
—Mr. McMillan shipped a carload of hogs to the Matthews Co., Peterboro, Wednesday.
—The Str. Comet, from Caesarea, arrived in port last Saturday with a number of passengers and a cargo of oats.
—Tell your story so people can understand it, and if you deserve business you will get it. That is all there is in good advertising.
—Both windows of Mrs. H. Silver's millinery show rooms on William-st. are now fitted with plate glass. The second sheet was placed in position on Saturday.
—Lakefield News: Miss Cameron, of Lindsay, has been appointed to the second department of the Lakefield public school, in place of Miss Lewis, who has resigned.
—A hunting party from Stouffville, who are camping in Monmouth township, are having grand sport. On Saturday evening they shipped out eight deer and three bears.
—The pupils of St. Joseph's convent are preparing a program for a public entertainment, to be given in the Academy in the course of a few weeks. It will be worth patronizing.
—Our Goods our reputation—we keep nothing but the best. If you need a trial to be convinced. Come and see JOHN FLEURY, at the Oak Front Grocery, Kent-st., near post office.
—Mr. James T. Richardson, who has been acting as agent in this vicinity for the well-known Montreal cheese operator, who erroneously credited Mr. James Whitton, buyer on the Lindsay board, with being his agent. No doubt most of our farmer readers recognized our error, but for fear that the item may cause trouble in other ways we take the opportunity of stating that Mr. Whitton represents Mr. Thos. Watkins, of Belleville, whose business is confined to the district between Toronto and Montreal, and whose contracts have always been carried out in the most satisfactory manner. The slight similarity in names, and knowledge that at one time Mr. Whitton bought for Mr. Warrington when the latter was in business in Belleville, led us and other papers into an error excusable under the circumstances.
Farwell to Mr. J. C. Ross.
Last Friday evening a number of the members of the Y. M. C. A. gathered in the rooms, and after the close of the directors' meeting, all adjourned into the parlor. Mr. F. A. McDiarmid acted as chairman, and first called upon Mr. Alex. Horn, vice-president, to make a few remarks. That gentleman spoke of the excellent work Mr. Ross had done during his short term; of how he had won the highest regard of all with whom he came in contact; and of his cheerful and untiring zeal in performing all his duties as secretary of the Association. In behalf of the Association he then presented Mr. Ross with a bible and a beautiful solid gold watch chain, in the form of a Maltese cross, with the letters "Y.M.C.A." engraved thereon. Mr. Ross was greatly surprised but replied feelingly and suitably, expressing his high appreciation of the memento, and of the kindness of the citizens of Lindsay during his stay here. After a solo by Mr. Robson, and here, after a solo by Mr. Macmillan and Mr. W. Symonds, provincial secretary, the meeting closed with prayer. Mr. Ross left this morning for his home in Woodstock, carrying with him the best wishes of all for his future. He intends preparing himself for the ministry.
