LINDSAY, FRIDAY, NOV. 3rd, 1899

LOCAL NEWS-LETTERS

WOODVILLE.

(Correspondence to The Post.) McKay, the tailor, is prepared to get you up a nice nobby suit of clothes for an overcoat. His stock of fall goods has arrived and his prices are very reasonable. Mrs. Wm. Reid, of this village, died on Wednesday morning, after a long illness. She leaves a loving husband and daughter to mourn her loss. Mrs. Reid was one of the pioneers of Eldon. The council met on 31st Oct., and among other things they passed a by-law to have all taxes collected on the 10th Dec., so the collector must hustle.

MANILLA.

(Correspondence to The Post.) Mr. Wm. English had the misfortune to lose a valuable mare Saturday morning. Cause, inflammation of the udder. His stock at fall goods has arrived and his prices are very reasonable. Mrs. Wm. Reid, of this village, died on Wednesday morning, after a long illness. She leaves a loving husband and daughter to mourn her loss. Mrs. Reid was one of the pioneers of Eldon. The council met on 31st Oct., and among other things they passed a by-law to have all taxes collected on the 10th Dec., so the collector must hustle.

BURY'S GREEN.

(Correspondence to The Post.) Weddings are plentiful around here this fall. On Tuesday, the 17th Mr. William Hoskin, of this place, was united in marriage to Miss Bella Sinclair; also Mr. Edward Hopkins was married to Miss Lizzie Moffat. We wish the respective young couples long life and prosperity. A very successful young supper was held in the Presbyterian church here on Oct. 20th. The program consisted of music, a dialogue and speeches by the Rev. Mr. Leitch, of Fenelon Falls, and Rev. Mr. Green and Mr. Fair, of Fenelon Falls. Quite a number drove out from that village, as it was a fine one. Proceeds amounted to $50, which will go towards the shed fund. Miss S. J. Green, of Toronto University, was home lately on a visit to her parents. She looks as if the city had been studying with him. Miss Cora Stevens, of Lindsay, is at present visiting Miss Belle Campbell. It is rumored that a couple of young people, whom you know, expect to move to Monticello this fall. We know positively that one of them, at least, will be going as long as the stakes don't exceed thirty-five cents. Miss Etta MacKenzie and Miss Jack Wood spent Wednesday of last week in Lindsay. Some of the boys went out hunting the other day. We believe one of them got a duck. Doubtless he would have preferred a deer (deer). Hunting is becoming quite a fad, especially among the young ladies. There has been a photographer in town for the last week or so. Messrs. C. Ford and Webster wedded to Lindsay recently, but were compelled to "train" it home owing to the bad condition of the roads, caused by rain. Mr. A. Spence, who has been on an extended holiday to North Dakota's friends, is expected home next week. Mr. A. B. Clifford's grist mill is doing a rushing business. At present Mr. Clifford manufactures stone flour, cornmeal, rye, buckwheat flour, and all kinds of chop and feed, also grain and rolls at low prices. Mr. Bert Clifford is in charge of the mill, and is assisted by Mr. Barling. Mr. A. Gusty is building a new addition on to his hotel property, which will be utilized for a billiard parlor. Owing to the price of iron having been raised, it is expected that the local blacksmiths will raise their prices accordingly. Scarcity of houses is still reported. Mr. Billingsley, the genial station agent, says that it would pay some enterprising man to build a few houses.

LITTLE BRITAIN.

(Correspondence to The Post.) A grand concert and oyster supper will be held in the Methodist church on Tuesday, Nov. 14th, under the auspices of the Public Library. An excellent program has been prepared, consisting of recitations and vocal and instrumental music. Messrs. Vallentyne and Yerec, of Sunderland, Miss Glendon and Mr. D. McQueen, of Manilla; Mr. J. F. Cummings, of Oakwood, and Mrs. McCrimmon, of Lindsay, Messrs. McCrimmon and Morgan, of Lindsay, well-known favorites, will take part, assisted by the best local talent. Oysters will be served at 6:30 o'clock. Don't fail to attend, as this will be an excellent opportunity of enjoying an evening of solid fun. Mr. J. J. Rich, in his new stand, is prepared to fit you with a nice suit of clothes of an overcoat. For style, fit and finish, he can't be beaten. Have you tried Yeo's turnip boxes? They are the handiest thing any farmer can get to haul in roots.

Mr. J. B. Weldon, our popular clerk, was in Lindsay last week on business. Little Britain was well represented at Mr. S. D. Webster's barn-raising on Wednesday, Oct. 18th. We noticed the following gentlemen: Rev. Mr. Robinson, Messrs. Green, V.S. Jenkins, J. B. Weldon, H. Brown, Mr. Pogue and W. R. Smith.

FENELON FALLS.

(Correspondence to The Post.) Our harvest home anniversary on 22nd and 23rd was a decided success, though the weather was unfavorable on the eve of the fowl supper and entertainment. Rev. D. N. McManus, an old pastor, whose memory is "as ointment poured forth," profited and encouraged all who heard him. On Monday evening his hon. Judge Deane occupied the chair, and said many good things. Mr. W. H. Carnegie, Mr. P. P. also spoke well and profitably, and Mr. McManus excelled himself in a speech replete with humor, and sang two songs, which were well received. The pastor announced the church virtually out of debt, through the inspiration of the "20th Century Fund," and the generosity of the people. The debt has been there for 21 years, and was $850 when Mr. Leitch came.

GREENBANK.

(Correspondence to The Post.) Mr. John Ewan, Uxbridge, formerly of this place, died last week after having been under the doctor's care for some months. Miss R. Hall is spending a short time here with friends. Quarterly meeting will be held in Saintfield, so they will be no morning service here in the Methodist church. The following is the report of the senior division of Greenbank school for October: Class V.—J. Taylor, G. Burke, Class IV.—T. Bryant, C. Guley, A. McMillan, G. Burke, E. Saiter, E. Miller, W. Real, M. Petty, A. Real, G. Burns, J. Michie, E. Phair, L. Seacombe, E. Franklin, L. Phoenix, M. Taylor, S. Leask, W. Leask, A. Ward, E. Leask, W. Leask, R. Real, J. Burns, F. Martin, Class III.—Sr.—R. Beare, J. Jamieson, G. Beare, E. McDonald, B. Barrett, F. Beare, V. Cragg, M. Taylor, J. McArthur, A. Oliver, E. Oliver. As our present teacher, Mr. J. Geo. Miller, has accepted a position in Toronto, the trustees are on the lookout for an experienced professional one.

GOODERHAM.

(Correspondence to The Post.) At the beginning of last week a number of small boys cleft town to hunt partridge at Dickson's camp. They were quite successful, and came home laden with spoils. Davis & White have enlarged their stove factory, getting ready for next season's work. Our town is much improved by the new grist mill recently erected by Mr. Hunter. We expect it to be running full force in a few days. Miss Ethel Thompson was visiting friends in town last week. The Misses Barr, accompanied by Mr. Will Currie, Irondale, were in town on Sunday. Owing to the non-appearance of the preacher, there was no service in the Methodist church on Sunday. Jay Gould, Peterboro, and R. Haggarty, Rochester, were at the Union last week. They were trying their luck at our partridge, and took a goodly number away with them. Miss Mary Ingles left on Friday for Madoc, where she will be the guest of her sister, Mrs. P. Brady. There is to be a new shingle mill erected here. The proprietor intends getting down and we understand that the services of a preacher will be required about that time. Doctor and Mrs. Harnden, Bowmanville, were guests at the Union last week. Miss Puffer, Mountain View, spent a short time in town last week. Dr. Somers, dentist, Lindsay, visited Gooderham Thursday and Saturday and was kept busy extracting and filling teeth.

KIRKFIELD.

(Correspondence to The Post.) Mrs. A. G. MacKenzie spent her Thanksgiving holidays in Toronto. Mr. Peter Spence paid a flying visit to Toronto last week. Miss Edith Mackenzie, of Toronto, who has been visiting her sister for the last few weeks, entertained her many friends at "Shady Hurst" on Thanksgiving. Miss M. MacFadyen has returned to Lindsay, to continue her studies at the Collegiate. Miss S. Trohey, who has been visiting in Toronto, has returned home. Mr. J. J. C. Campbell, and Miss Campbell spent Thanksgiving week in the city. Mr. Carl Henderson, of Lindsay, paid a visit to his friend, Mr. Sam Staples, last week. Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Stacey, of Collegiate, Toronto, spent a few days in the village last week. Miss Evelyn Fraser gave a very enjoyable party on Tuesday night. That everyone enjoyed themselves immensely was demonstrated by the fact that we didn't get home till the "wee sma' hours of the mornin'." We understand that some of the guests were attacked by masked highwaymen upon their way home. They all escaped without injury with the exception of one young lady, and we believe that she escaped with her life and her purse. Miss Cora Stevens, of Lindsay, is at present visiting Miss Belle Campbell. It is rumored that a couple of young people, whom you know, expect to move to Monticello this fall. We know positively that one of them, at least, will be going as long as the stakes don't exceed thirty-five cents. Miss Etta MacKenzie and Miss Jack Wood spent Wednesday of last week in Lindsay. Some of the boys went out hunting the other day. We believe one of them got a duck. Doubtless he would have preferred a deer (deer). Hunting is becoming quite a fad, especially among the young ladies. There has been a photographer in town for the last week or so. Messrs. C. Ford and Webster wedded to Lindsay recently, but were compelled to "train" it home owing to the bad condition of the roads, caused by rain. Mr. A. Spence, who has been on an extended holiday to North Dakota's friends, is expected home next week. Mr. A. B. Clifford's grist mill is doing a rushing business. At present Mr. Clifford manufactures stone flour, cornmeal, rye, buckwheat flour, and all kinds of chop and feed, also grain and rolls at low prices. Mr. Bert Clifford is in charge of the mill, and is assisted by Mr. Barling. Mr. A. Gusty is building a new addition on to his hotel property, which will be utilized for a billiard parlor. Owing to the price of iron having been raised, it is expected that the local blacksmiths will raise their prices accordingly. Scarcity of houses is still reported. Mr. Billingsley, the genial station agent, says that it would pay some enterprising man to build a few houses.

Dr. C. Thorn, V.G. whose leg was so badly bruised in an accident several weeks ago, is rapidly recovering. The doctor says it was the worst mix-up he ever got into, and hopes never to experience the same again.

PLEASANT POINT.

(Correspondence to The Post.) Mr. John H. Poole has secured the position of day engineer in the Electric Light Co's station in Lindsay, and left for that town last week. Our population is still increasing. There is joy in the home of Mr. Endicott over the arrival of a young son. Mr. Thos. Jackson, of North Ops, has rented Mr. Daniel Curran's farm for a term of years.

OAKWOOD.

(Correspondence to The Post.) A burglary took place at the stores of Messrs. Hogg Bros. on Saturday night last, 21st. The parties or party, no doubt feeling their danger, decamped without much booty. The returns for the month of Sept. have just been sent out to the patrons by the Cheese Company, and show the most satisfactory results of any month yet for making cheese. The quantity of milk delivered for the month was 108,645 lbs., which made 19,491 lbs. of cheese, and a net profit of 99 cents per 100 lbs. for milk, and after deducting cost of drawing, net average return of 90 cents per 100. The patrons are paid for milk according to test, and some with very rich quality of milk run as high as $1.01 per 100. The directors at a meeting last week re-engaged Mr. Lewis as manager to manufacture both butter and cheese, and as some repairs are to be made to the factory after closing cheese season, on Oct. 31st, it was deemed best to commence making butter on Monday, 13th November. Farmers here are seeing that dairying is quite a profitable part of their business, and as some besides getting a much better price for the butter. A number of new patrons will be sending during the winter.

NORLAND.

(Correspondence to The Post.) War has been declared by the citizens of our village, but instead of the Boers of South Africa, the antagonists of the war are the wood and mark for best trusty rifles. Our village detachment left on Tuesday morning for Victoria lake, well supplied with provisions, canoe, dogs, and our best gear, and we are among the party. We may feel confident that when they return their canoes will be more heavily laden with venison than they were with supplies when they left. The grim reaper has again been in our midst. On Friday Mr. Thomas Cooper, of Head Lake, was called away after several months suffering from that dread disease, consumption. The funeral on Sunday to Norland cemetery was largely attended. The sorrowing friends had the sympathy of the entire community. It is confidently expected that the new sawmill erected by Messrs. Stephens & Argue, will begin operations shortly. Mrs. Geo. Greer, of Temiscamingue, is visiting friends here. Mr. M. Greer, Sr., has returned home after spending a few days visiting his son at Gravenhurst. Miss Annie Russell has returned from Peterboro, where she has been staying for some time. Dr. and Mrs. Harnden, Bowmanville, spent last Sunday and Monday in this place. Dr. Harnden is one of the best workers in his profession, and all who have defective teeth should not fail to consult him at his next visit. A number of hunters from outside points have also passed through the village on their way to the hunting grounds farther north, where they are busy getting comfortable camps erected before the first of November. Revival services were closed at Head Lake church last week. A great good has been done by the meetings, not only to membership, but to the entire community. Some fourteen persons were converted. Mr. and Mrs. J. Hoskin and family are visiting friends in Tiny township this week. Miss Lamont has been engaged for another year as teacher of Beach Lake school. She is known as A.I. in her profession. Heavy rains prevailed throughout this section on Thursday and Friday, and put the roads into pretty bad shape. Potatoes are all dug; ploughing is in full blast; turnips to catch it next week.

VICTORIA ROAD.

(Correspondence to The Post.) Mr. J. C. Shields has opened out in Mr. Anderson's old stand a choice stock of general groceries, provisions, flour and feed, etc. His son George will be in charge of the store, and we are pleased to show the goods to prospective buyers. A share of public patronage is solicited—w-l. The Victoria drug store started on 1st September by our genial Dr. Grant, is doing a splendid business. The doctor intends enlarging the store, taking in the small premises at the side and fitting it up for an office. He will then have one of the best stands north of Toronto. Messrs. J. W. Shields, Anderson & Rehill and John Harshaw, our other merchants, report business good. Their stores are well filled with dry goods, groceries, boots and shoes, etc. The Victoria Road flour and feed store, conducted by Mr. J. Connelly, is doing a rushing business now. Mr. Connelly buys cheap for cash there is in a position to give customers the benefit of his close buying. He deals in grain, lumber, baggages, wagons, sleighs, carriages and cutters, and is also agent for all kinds of farm implements. Picture framing and enlarging of photos done on shortest notice. All requiring anything in the above lines give Mr. Connelly a call—w-l. Mr. D. King has one of the best butcher shops in North Victoria. His stock of fresh and cured meats, bacon, sausage, etc. is first-class. Messrs. D. Ryckman and S. C. Caverly, our blacksmiths, say that they have never been better. Mr. Caverly deals in furniture, cutters, carriages, buggies, etc., and reports business good in these lines. Our hotelkeepers, Messrs. A. McEroy and W. J. Chipraw, have no cause to grumble, for their trade has kept up well. The accommodation is first-class at both hotels. Mr. Chipraw, who runs the saw mill, says his lumber business is as good as ever, if not better, despite keen competition. He is anxious to buy a large quantity of lumber, shingles, shingle bolts and posts, for which the highest price will be paid. Our genial postmaster and division clerk, Mr. A. C. Graham, is at the work of that nature, give him a call. Mr. T. Foley, Mr. D. J. Finn and Mr. Cummerford, of Uphill, paid our village a friendly visit last week. Mr. John McDonald, of Lindsay, was in the village last week. Mr. T. H. Peel, of Toronto, was in town last week in preparation for his annual deer hunt. The party will go to North Bay. Mr. Jas. Gilgoly, of the Rathburn Co., and Mr. H. C. North, of the Post, were in town last week. Mr. Ed. Lytle has disposed of his farm in the township of Bexley to Mr.
