HOLIDAY NOVELTIES.

SOMETHING nice and not too expensive is the constant demand on the part of holiday shoppers. The demand is a reasonable one, and we have kept it in mind in making our Christmas selections. One of the features of our stock is nice goods, not too expensive; goods that may be given without shame and accepted gladly and gratefully, yet which do not make an extravagant demand upon the purse.

Such is our assortment of Ladies' and Gentlemen's lined and unlined Kid Gloves for Holiday Presents.

The crowd of buyers and sellers who thronged the market Saturday last prove conclusively the unsuitability of the accommodation provided. At an early hour the country people commenced to arrive with their produce, and the forethought of these stood them in good stead, as many of those who came at the usual hour were unable to obtain room even upon the outside platform for their baskets. The loading and unloading of the produce was a very busy scene, and the market was a very busy one. The market Wednesday of last week was also a busy one, and the same time was also a busy one. The market Wednesday of last week was also a busy one, and the same time was also a busy one.

Saturday evening last a very busy day for the occupation it is to clear a market delivery of about two hundred tons of produce. The market was a very busy one, and the same time was also a busy one.

Mr. W. L. Ord of Brandon, Man., came to town last week to spend Christmas with his brother, Mr. E. D. Ord. He has been in the place since he took Horace Greeley's advice. He holds a responsible position in the Dominion of Canada.

Mr. R. Hall and wife of Griswold, Man., passed through town this week to visit Christmas in Lindsay, where they will spend Christmas. Mr. R. Hall will be remembered by many in town, as he has been here about eleven years ago previous to going west. Good fortune has attended him in every venture, and he has accumulated a large fortune. This year he sold 5,000 bushels of wheat alone, while the aggregate of his crop of different grains was between 15,000 and 18,000 bushels. (Additional local on page eight.)
