LINDSAY, FRIDAY, DEC. 30, 1922.

LOCAL NEWS-LETTERS

WOODVILLE.

OBITUARY—Mrs. McLeod, relict of the late Norman McLeod, passed away Wednesday at the advanced age of eighty-one years. Her remains were interred in the Eden cemetery on Friday, 23rd.

PERSONAL—Mr. Chevalier, of Cass City, Mich., passed through town Thursday en route to Edmonton to visit friends.

BUSINESS—Mr. McPhaden, our new grocer, is doing a fine trade here. His stock of groceries and boots and shoes are well selected.

UPPERGROVE.

REURE AND SACRED CONCERT—The lecture and concert which took place in St. Columba's church on the 15th inst. was a most unqualified success. The church was completely filled and the net proceeds were very satisfactory. Rev. Father Ryan of St. Michael's, Toronto, was the lecturer of the evening, and the subject he chose was "The Catholic Church and Freedom of Thought."

MANILLA.

LECTURE—Rev. G. S. Manly delivered an address on "The Jews" in the interests of the Upper Canada Bible Society on Friday night last in the Baptist church. It is needless to add that the speaker was, as he always is, well received.

FAREWELL TOKEN.

Upon the departure of our worthy teacher, Mr. C. H. Lapp, the pupils of his room, to show their regard for his services, presented him with a handsome chair. Mr. Lapp has been here for several years and has won credit for himself by his successful labors. We regret his departure.

OBITUARY.

It is with sadness that we chronicle the death of an old, respected and much esteemed citizen, Mr. John Connoe. In the early settlement of this community he carved out for himself not only a business and a home, but a life of distinguished character. As a merchant he won the confidence and respect of the public by his straightforwardness and fair dealing. In Mr. Connoe the poor had a strong friend; the needy a helper. The community has lost a good citizen, a public benefactor, a model of integrity and a noble friend. The family and friends have the heartfelt sympathy of the public. On the 21st inst. a funeral service was conducted in the Methodist church, of which the deceased was a communicant, by Rev. W. Burns of Oakwood. The remains were interred in the Salem cemetery.

NOTES.

Mr. A. P. Browncombe and wife are enjoying festivities at Fort Hope.

Mrs. A. T. D. Lury, of the Variety, spent Christmas under the parental roof.

Mr. S. W. Connoe and wife are visiting with friends at Oshawa.

Misses K. O. Kendall, M. DeLury, K. Moshier, Mr. McLean and

A. DeDury are home resting from their pedagogical labors.

JOTTINGS—We are pleased to see the cemetery here growing into disuse. The board of health would find a topic for discussion if its use should continue. School openings on the third of January with Mr. J. Reynolds as headmaster and Miss T. Edwards as assistant. Mr. D. McQueen has returned from Trinity medical school. "There is no place like home" is clearly proven.

OAKWOOD.

LOST—Mrs. Holliday lost a black and red checked horse blanket on Dec. 3rd, and will give any person returning it to her or Hoag Bros. $1 in cash.

ENTERTAINMENT.

The annual Christmas tree entertainment given in the Oakwood Sabbath school on Christmas eve was largely patronized, and the programme very attractive. The presents were numerous. Miss Malt, who for the past two years has taught the junior department of our public schools, and has also been connected during that time with the Sabbath school, and who now is leaving here to pursue her studies, was well remembered. Mr. Rennie, the principal of the public school for several years, who has also been an efficient bible class teacher in the Sabbath school, was made the recipient of a beautiful easy chair. The Rev. R. Boynton, the junior pastor, was appropriately remembered by the young people of Graham's, Wesley and Oakwood churches in the gift of a beautiful cap coat and gannets, a beautiful beaver cap and fine sleigh robe. The Rev. Mr. Burns also received a fine pair of fur gaiters. These acts of kindness make ministers feel that they are laboring amongst a kind and an appreciative people.

BAIRD CONCERT.

The C.O.E.F. of Oakwood purpose holding their annual concert in the town hall of this place on Monday, January 2nd, 1923. Do not miss this golden opportunity of hearing one of the best vocalists in Ontario; also some of the best musical talent in Lindsay, and comic singers have been engaged to render the C.O.E.F. second concert the best ever held here. A ne plus ultra program will doubtless be rendered.

BAIRD CONCERT.

The band concert on the 26th was a success. Particulars again.

ONEMEE.

NOMINATIONS—The nominations for the township of Emily attracted a large delegation of farmers to the village on last Monday. There were a number of candidates named for the several offices, many of whom resigned, but notwithstanding this the speeches occupied about five hours. The contest for reeve and deputy-reeve promises to be very exciting. For Onemee Dr. Cornwall has opposition for the reevehip, but the indications are that he will pull through. The position of councillor seems a beguiling and the indications are that those who don't resign before next Monday will be returned without opposition.

TEA AND SOCIAL.

The Methodists held their annual tea and social in the church on Monday evening. There was a large turnout. The tea was a success and the concert reflected great credit on the choir, which rendered a very acceptable program of music. The net proceeds were $80.

ENTERTAINMENT.

On next Monday evening there will be an entertainment in the Presbyterian church. The chief attraction will be Struthers' stereoscopic views. They are highly recommended by the pulpit and press. The ladies will serve refreshments during the afternoon and evening in the basement of the church.

VISITORS.

Among our holiday visitors were Misses McCrea, Byers, Connell and Kelly of Toronto; Mrs. Elliott, Peterboro, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Elliott, Hamilton; Wm. Sherwood, Toronto; and Rev. George Sherwood, Lindsay.

PERSONAL.

Miss Daisy Cornwall of Ottawa is spending her holidays at home.

MUSKOKA.
