GLENARM.

[Correspondence of THE POST.]

WEDDING BELLS.—One of those interesting occasions for which Glenarm has become famous, again occurred on Saturday last. The event was the marriage of Miss Maggie McEachern, daughter of Ronald McEachern, of this place, to Mr Archibald Campbell, of Toronto, late of Vancouver, B.C. On Mr. Campbell's arrival at Mr. McEachern's on Friday evening he was met by a large concourse of friends who were assembled to say farewell. The evening—yes, the night—was pleasantly spent with songs, instrumental music and games and amusements of all kinds. The following address was presented the bride by her friends, who regretted that the time was so short that they could not show their appreciation in much a more substantial manner. To Miss Maggie McEachern,—We, a few of your friends assembled here this evening, cannot bear to disperse without giving some expression, however slight, to our feelings on this occasion, being the eve of your departure from amongst us. We regret very much that our being taken completely by surprise put us in such a position that it is impossible to give any more substantial evidence of our tender regard for you, but we trust you will receive these few words in the spirit in which they are given. We regret very much your departure from amongst us, but feel certain that your life will be one of usefulness wherever you go. We will miss very much your presence and help in the Christian Endeavor Society, and also in every social way, but we trust that the change will be one that will result in still greater usefulness. We all join heartily in wishing you every happiness and the blessing of God in your new home, and pray that your lot may be cast in a pleasant place and your life throughout be one of usefulness and happiness. Signed on behalf of your many friends at Glenarm.....A suitable reply was made on behalf of Miss McEachern, who was deeply moved by the incident.....The young couple were married on the following day and left immediately for Toronto, where they will reside in the future. All join in wishing them a long, happy and prosperous life.

SOCIAL AND LITERARY ENTERTAINMENT.—The brethren of L.O.L. No. 935 intend holding a mammoth entertainment on New Year's night. Extensive preparations are being made, and those wishing to enjoy a musical and literary treat will please watch for further announcements.

TEMPERANCE NOTES. — One Tuesday evening, Nov. 27th, the citizens and young men of this section met in Thornberry's hall to establish a local temperance society. After due consideration and thoughtful discussion it was resolved to organize, which resulted in the following election of officers: E. J. Argue, president; Miss Mary McEachern, 1st vice; A. Galloway, 2nd vice; N. McEachern, fin.-sec.; G. McFadyen, rec.-sec; J. Murchison, treas.; H S Magwood, chaplain; Miss Jessie Gilchrist and H. McKay, wardens; Miss Maggie McKay and A. McArthur, guards. There are about 45 in all now belonging to the lodge After the election of officers each person present seemed to realize the importance of making all future meetings most profitable to all who may attend. Meetings will be held in Thornberry's hall every Tuesday evening, commencing at the hour of 7.30.....That now famous "Rock Tea," to be given here on Friday, Dec 21st, by the L.V.T.L of Islay, is well under way and receiving careful attention and practice. This is something new, and will be an excellent drawing card. Watch for posters.

S. O. S.—At the annual meeting of the Sons of Scotland Camp, No. 137, Glenarm, held on Dec. 8th, the following officers were elected for 1895: Past chief, Bro. Donald Tomlis; chief, Bro. Jas. Gilchrist; chieftain, Bro. Hugh Gilchrist; con.-sec., Bro. A. Galloway; fin.-sec., Alex McKenzie; treas., Bro. John Murchison; marshall, Bro. Gilbert McFadyen; chaplain, Bro. S. Nicolson; sr. guard, Bro. Alex. McArthur; jr. guard, Bro. Hugh McKinnon; standard bearer, Bro. Wm. Kennedy; piper, Bro. Donald Fraser; physician, Dr. A. Galloway. Installation will take place on Thursday evening, Dec 20th.

LITTLE BRITAIN.

[Correspondence of THE POST.]

ENTERTAINMENT.—The Christian church of this place intend giving an entertainment in the Riverside hall on Christmas night. See posters later on. Doors open at 7.30; entertainment at 8 p m.

CUPID.—A wedding on the town line is talked of in the near future.

S. S. ANNIVERSARY.—At a meeting of the Sunday-school officers and teachers it was decided to hold their annual anniversary on the 23rd and 27th December. The business passed off very smoothly except one little hitch, which it would not be wise to name.

A FINE STOCK-FARM.—As news is rather scarce I thought I would give you a brief outline of one of our magnificient stock farms, namely, the "Homestead farm." Our correspondent called their the other day and was cordially received by the genial and affable proprietor, Mr. J. F. Malyon. The first thing which caught our eye was the situation of the buildings. They are situated about one mile east of Saintfield, in a beautiful and commanding location, overlooking for miles the country around. Mr. Malyon is a noted breeder of hogs and poultry, some of his stock having carried off many prizes at the leading shows of the county. Mr. Malyon very kindly showed us through the stables, and as we prepared to take our departure in the gloaming we were inspired to say that the farmer is the most free and most independent of mankind. PRIMROSE.

[NOTE.—Although "Primrose" does not sign his full name we shall be pleased to have him write again.

POWLES' CORNER—FENELON.

[Correspondence of THE POST.]

RE-ENGAGED.—The trustees of the school here have very wisely engaged Miss Annie Gillis for another year to teach the junior department. Miss Gillis cannot be excelled in her profession as a teacher able to inculcate knowledge in the minds of the young.

PATRONS OF INDUSTRY.—The patrons here are holding meetings every Tuesday night, as the busy time is over for a while. The meetings are being well attended. Quite likely they will be making preparations for the coming general election. They should be very careful lest there be another big snow storm in North Victoria and some one might get snowed under.

BEEF AND PORK.—As there are lots of buyers for both cattle and hogs they are soon picked up, but the prices are very low, yet we know that Bob Reid gives every cent that he is allowed to give.

THINGS WE WOULD LIKE TO KNOW.—When the Epworth League of Christian Endeavor is to be organized here.....If the young gent from Brockville will be here for Christmas eve?....When is that wedding coming off near Ball Point?

PERSONALS.—Mr. Alex Rutherford went up to Toronto, as his brother, George is lying in a very low state of health in the hospital there. It is the intention of Alex. to bring his brother home if he is able to come.....Mr. Joseph McGee has gone up to the county of Simcoe to assist his brother-in-law, Mr James Miller, in the woods. Joe is a good hand in the woods.

RECOVERED.—A little baby girl of Mr. A. E. Minthorne has recovered from a severe attack of quinsy, which was skillfully treated by Dr. Graham, of Fenelon Falls.

FENELON FALLS.

[Correspondence of THE POST.]

HERE WE ARE AGAIN.—Your correspondent has been very silent for the past few weeks, and in order to relieve your mind from any anxiety on my behalf I once more take up the thread by informing you that I am not dead, nor have I been sleeping.

THE IMMUTABLE LAW OF CHANGE.—Since my last letter there have been many changes around here. The light fall overcoat has been hung up by the left sleeve and replaced by one of heavier texture. Silk underclothing has gone to a more congenial climate, and the good old woolly is hard to be found except for a short distance above the falls—mud has been replaced by a slight coating of snow and ice. In fact everything tends to make one feel that the summer is ended and winter has come to stay for five or six months anyway.....Then there have been changes of another kind—in fact of several kinds. Mr. Geo. Rutherford, for some years past connected with the general store of Burgoyne & Co., has severed his connection and set up in business for himself, having purchased the stock of Mr. W. S. Newman.....Some other folks got sick and tired of sleeping alone, and remembering past sufferings from cold feet in the winters gone by, decided they would have no more of it. Such small things seemingly have the effect of making people marry, even better than the prospect of a breach of promise suit.

THE RAILWAY.—There has also been a change of time on the railroad. For a long period it took a whole day to get from here to Toronto, and three days would be consumed in going and returning. The same time would be sufficient for a trip from Toronto to New York and return. Now we can get from here to Toronto in time for an early dinner on arrival there. Although we cannot get back to the Falls the same day from Toronto, yet the town of Lindsay possesses myriads of good hotels where we can spend our superfluous time (if we have any), and if not, the walking is generally good and the distance less than 16 miles.

THE GRIM REAPER.—The saddest changes of all are those caused by the grim reaper. Death has been gathering in his harvest, claiming the late (Father) J. B O'Connell, brother of Father T. B. O'Connell, of Fenelon Falls, and Mr. William Littleton of Fenelon township.

UPHILL.

[Correspondence of THE POST.]

TEA.—The annual tea and entertainment in connection with the Presbyterian church here will be held on Thursday evening, Dec. 20th. An excellent programme is being prepared Two choirs are expected, and everything to make the evening an enjoyable one is being done. Proceeds for the building fund. Come all, and bring your girls.

PERSONAL.—Mrs. McKenzie, of Toronto, has returned home after waiting on her mother (Mrs. Calhoun), during her prolonged illness. Mrs McKenzie's many friends here extend their sympathy to her in the loss of her respected mother.....Mrs. Suter is absent spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs Wm. Benson, Bexley.

[Correspondence of THE POST.]

LOOKING BACKWARD.—Will the editor kindly allow a little divergence from the ordinary news from your correspondent. Whilst the writer desires in good time to wish the many readers, at home and abroad, of THE POST, and his own personal friends, a merry Christmas and a happy New Year for the approaching happy Christmastide, he asks a little space to say that he looks back with at least some satisfaction to the fact that he has been permitted to be a correspondent from here of THE POST during its whole honored career, and has never knowingly falsified items, and although contributing sometimes otherwise than through items to help on the the purposes of THE POST, he is able to say that the paper has always met with his complete approval in all its management. Starting with Mr. C. B. Robinson, its founder, away before the "big fire" in Lindsay, early in the sixties, during its management in the hands of Messrs. Cruickshanks and Wallace, in the hands of Mr. Barr, or the present proprietors, THE POST has all along been on the right side of all the public questions of the day — religiously, morally, socially or politically; it has contended for freedom in the widest sense in temperance, education, Sabbath observance, union of the Presbyterian and separated churches, the divided Methodist churches—in fact the writer cannot recall an instance of THE POST taking the wrong side of any of the questions of its time.

COME TO STAY.—We hear our board of trustees have again engaged Mr. Rannie for another term; also Miss Prior.

CHRISTMAS TREE.—Preparations for a Christmas tree and entertainment, to be held in the town hall, (including lime light views of the World's Chicago Fair), are being actively pushed on.....Other attractions—Chosen Friends, 2nd Jan., 1895.

CHURCH NOTE.—Rev. J. H. Hector, the "Black Knight," will give a lecture in the town hall on Thursday evening, Dec. 27th. He comes highly recommended as a temperance orator, and had large audiences when in Lindsay.

DIED.—At her home in Ypsilanti, Michigan, Mrs. Stephen Draper, youngest daughter of the late J. B Pearson, formerly of Oakwood, and son-in-law of Mr. W. H. McLaughlin, of Oakwood. A good woman was called to her rest. She was a church worker and member of the charitable and benevolent societies.

THE MODERN MOTHER

Children enjoy it and it benefits them. The true remedy, Syrup of Figs, is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

Curling Notes.

—Peterboro Review:—"Mr. J. D. Flavelle, the famous curler, knows a "good thing" when he sees it. The reputation of Mr. Ernest Rutherford, son of Mr. Thos. Rutherford, caused Mr. Flavelle to select Ernie as a member of his rink. Mr. Rutherford is now in Lindsay."

—A largely attended meeting of the skips of the club was held in the town clerk's office on Thursday evening of last week, to make full arrangements for the season's games, and to add some new members to the different rinks. E Rutherford was transferred from Flavelle's rink to W. McLennan's, in which rink he will act as vice-skip. F. Maunder was added to J. D Flavelle's rink; D. Clarke to J. C. Harstone's; J. Carew and J. Crawford to G. H. Hopkins'; J. Petty to W. McLennan's; Mr Pepper to T Brodie's; B. Gough to J. McAdams'; G. A. Milne to J. McLennan's; Robt. Ross to J. McMillan's; S Brown to G. A. Little's. It was then decided that should a member of a rink be away on the night of a rink match, the skip of the rink might put on a person of the same rank, or of not higher rank, to lead, provided the opposing skip consented.

—The curlers are only waiting for a cold snap to get down to play in earnest. Should the ice be suitable the following matches will be played next week:

Monday, Dec. 17.—S. Armour vs. J. G. Edwards; T. Brodie vs. W. H Simpson; W. Dundas vs. T. Pratt; M. W. Kennedy vs. J. McMillan.

Rev. Robt. Johnston in Toronto.

Toronto World, Monday last:—Rev. Robert Johnston, of Lindsay, a young minister of high promise, occupied the pulpit of Westminster Presbyterian church, Bloor st. east, yesterday. His morning discourse was on the life of Moses, whom he designated as the truest, greatest man, save Jesus Christ, the world has ever seen. To him he applied in a higher sense the eulogy of Anthony over the dead Brutus. 'This was the noblest of them all." But the highest testimony to the character of Moses is given by God himself, who not only buried him, but wrote his epitaph, "There arose not a prophet like unto Moses," and that in the New Jerusalem the redeemed sing "the song of Moses and the song of the Lamb." Many lessons of encouragement and comfort were drawn from this great prophet's career. These were especially applicable to the young; self control, purity, fidelity. Every hour of his life was filled with duty and at the close he had no regrets. Those living such a life could truly say:

Life! we've been long together,
Through pleasant and through cloudy weather;
'Tis hard to part when friends are dear;
Perhaps twill cost a sigh a tear;
Then steal away give little warning,
Choose thine own time;
Say not good-night, but in some brighter clime
Bid me good morning.

Moses relinquished the sunshine of the throne for service for the oppressed. Here was an example for men of the present to sacrifice themselves for the uplifting of down-trodden humanity. Moses was willing to suffer the loss of life eternal if his brethren could be blessed. "If Thou will not forgive their sins, blot me, I pray Thee, out of Thy book." In graphic style the preacher sketched the ascent of the mountain of Nebo to the top of Pisgah —his vast view of the goodly tents of Israel, and his first glimpse of the jasper walls and golden streets of the New Jerusalem. "And the Lord buried him, but no man knoweth of his sepulchre unto this day." In relation to this, Mr. Johnston cited Josephus and the saying of the Rabbis, "Moses died by the kiss of Jehovah." He also quoted the whole of the stanzas of the beautiful and well-known poem on the burial of Moses, "By Nebo's Lonely Mountain."
