Something Real!

The Discount Sale at the Dry Goods and Clothing House of

M. W. KENNEDY & CO.

~%*******

Best Offers, Biggest Bargains, Greatest Satisfaction ever given to the people of this County.

We have the confidence of the people when we make this announcement, as we always do as we advertise. Watch for our quotations of prices. Take advantage of the best chance to secure Goods of Sterling Quality at the Lowest Prices ever touched. Our bargains are manifold, and our facilities for securing the best goods obtainable at the very closest figures from the manufacturers and wholesale dealers are undisputed, and we mean to give to our customers the benefit of every dollar saved in OUR CLOSE BUYING

Here are the lines we handle, and all are included in this Great

Dress Goods, Trimmings, Linings, Cottons, Linens, Tailoring, Tweeds, Cloths, Blankets, Curtains, Carpets, Underwear, Furs, Gents' Furnishins, Woollens and Ready-made Clothing. Underwear, Furs, Gents' Furnishins,

We cheerfully show our goods and quote prices, then we ask you to judge of the values, and we know what the verdict will be.

New Advertisements.

ACENTS

representing us can earn $20 per week selling our Ha. ay i Canadian grown Nursery Stock Permanent position and salaries, Ex-

E. O. GRAHAM, Nurseryman, Toronto, Ontario -80-13.

The Canadian Lost.

LINDSAY, FRIDAY, DEC. 6, 1895.

TOWN AND COUNTY.

DASHES HERE AND THERE

Thomas Beali,

Issuer of Marriage Licenses. Office G. W. Beall's jewelry store, Kent st.

Subscribe Now.

cribers for THE EVENING POST for 1896

Do not Believe it.

Do not believe that Nerviline will cure neuralgia almost instantly. If your teeth ache console yourself with the reflection that pain can't last for ever. Don't use

Warden's Supper.

Thursday evening, Nov. 28th, a pleasar-time was spent at the Royal hotel, the coc:

sion being a supper given by Warden Chambers. The county representatives were Becoption to Boys. The Y. M. C. A. rooms presented a lively appearance lest Thursday night, it being the night set aside for a reception to the games until about 8 o'clock, when two the world.

M. W. KENNEDY & CO.

國內國中國中國中國中國中國中國中國中國中國中國

Peterboro Bus. College Many Young Men and Young Women

The Principals of the Peterborough Business College have not been able to supply the demand for competent office assistants since coming to Peter-There is always Room for Skilled Help. A Complete Course in Shorthand and Typewriting or Bookkeeping for $35.00, or with an $85.00 Type-writer (one of the best in the market) for $100.

Send for Circulars. Le Agents for the celebrated New Franklin Type-PRINCLE & MCREA, Business College, Peterborough, Ont.

R. Neill.

NEILL

THE SHUE MAN is making a speciality of Rubbers, Overshoes, Felt Goods.

* The Largest Retail Business in Canada.

9 STORES.

McLennan & Co.

Sign of Mill Saw. South Side of Kent-st.

CELEBRATED

COAL

SHELF AND HEAVY HARDWARE PAINTS, OILS AND GLASS.

-A new combined baggage and express car has been attached to the Haliburton train. -Bishop Littlejohn's fee at the Marl-

Marriage Licenses

At BRITTON BROS., Jewellers,

Foot of Kent-st. Lindsay,-91.

Local Brevities.

borough-Vanderblit nuptials was $2,500. It takes ducats to make a duchess. -Under the new law a candidate for council must qualify on property situated in the ward in which he offers for elec-

-Mr. T. McConnell, of the Royal hotel, has a couple of painters at work touching up the interior of his well-conducted hos-

-The Webling sisters will shortly appear at the Academy here under the auspices of the Canadian Order of Oddfel-

-Peterboro hockeyists are endeavoring to arrange for a number of matches with clubs in the district in the Ontario Hockey

-Many of the electric light wires broke down under the weight of the ice during last week's storm, keeping the wiring staff "on the jump."

Associatio : series.

-With four inches of snow on an excel-lent bottom, and indications of frosty weather, Lindsay merchants are assuming cheerful countenances.

-The Salem Sunday school, Ops, is arranging for a Christmas tree. No doubt they will have a good one. Look out for Santa Claus—he is coming. -Mr. J. P. Ryley, of the Victoria Plan-ing Mills, is having the exhaust steam used for heating the building, and finds this plan to work successfully. -The 'Varsity glee club, which has been delighting Toronto audiences for some time past, intend visiting Lindsay in the near future under the auspices of the

-The fire alarm wire broke down under the weight of snow and ice last Monday. Messre. Reesor and Begbie had a cold job on Tuesday putting the line in working order agair.

-Mr. L. P. Morgan, druggist, has had a richly designed oilcloth put down in his drug store, which adds greatly to the beauty and comfort of his already wellequipped premises. -Harrison, the wrestler, has another challenger in the person of Humphrey, the mile runner, who wants to match an unknown against him. Smith will have to shake himself if he wants a match. —Horseflesh continues to drop in price.

A few days ago a Campbellford man offered his team to another man to accept as a present. He said he could not afford to feed them and did not like to shoot them.

-Owing to the shortness of straw this year, threshers, as a rule, find that they can thresh out a barn in from one half to two thirds of the time generally occupied. The grain however generally yields well, -A story that beats the average fish varn all hollow comes from a farmer not far from here, who says that owing to the dryness and hardness of the land this fall, he were out when plowing a new plow point each day. -There will be a meeting of the Children's Aid Society in the council chamber at 7.30 p.m. next Friday evening, 6 h Dec. Members are requested to be on time, as several desire to get away within an hour to attend other meetings. -We notice by the Saturday Official Gazatte that Mr. Peter Mitchell, of Lindsay, has been appointed by the Ontario government bailiff for the 5th division court, Licdsay. Mr. Mitchell has had a large experience in such duties, and should prove an excellent officer.

-Mr. D. C. Trew received a welcome letter on Tuesday from Mr. Jas. Hender-son, of Tcronto, who stated that he was so pleased with the Houdan cock shipped to nim that he desired two good hens of the same breed. Euclosed in the letter was a handsome remittance in payment for the

-An east ward man is at work on an invention intended for the American market, which will turn out titles, (with an ancestry dating from the 14th century), at the rate of 60 a minute. The only thing that troubles him is incapability to keep up with the predicted demand for the

The department of weights and measures has decided that hereafter the standard of measures for liquids shall be one of bulk instead of weight. That fixed for the gallon is equivalent to 10 pounds distilled water at 62 degrees Fahrenheit. with the barometer at 30 degrees. -Cour. Killaby flatly denies Coun.

Touchburn's insinuation, madelast Monday at the council, that Dep.-reeve Crandell was the father of the resolution moved by him (Killaby) at the meeting two weeks ago, calling upon Cour. Touchburn for a report of the expenditure on streets and bridges during the year.

-Mr. John McDonald, who returned last week from a long stay at Barclay, in the Rainy River district, where he owns and operates a saw-mill, states that there is little or no money in the North-west. During the past season he had sold over Those handing in their names as sub-$5,000 worth of lumber, and was only able to get a few hundred dollars in cash. will receive it free for the balance of this -If any be on the look cut for pretty year. Remember we will deliver THE Post every evening, rain or shine, without fail, at your home. Support your local paper, as it gives you all the general news of the province as well as the local news of the town and surrounding country. pictures from nature's sketch book, a pleasant sight may be viewed from the Union school grounds at sunset. The sun drawing aboat him the purple and golden hued curtain of sunset, with the great stand pine looming up in the foreground. stand pipe looming up in the foreground like a giant sentinel, makes a pleasing

-last Thursday a Benson house bell boy placed a 10s piece in his mouth izstead of his pocket, and a short time later, while racing up stairs to answer a ball, the coin slipped part of the way down his throat and almost strangled him. Fortunately Dr. Burrows happaned along in the nick of time and secured the dime for his collection of odd coins. Nerviline; it might stop the pair. Rreumatism is often difficult to cur. Keep on rubbing the old fashioned liniments as a matter of respect to your grandfather's aunt. Nerviline is a new discovery that in itself ought to condemn it. Taer fore cling to the old; suffer pain; avoid the use of Nerviline, the most powerful, penetrating, and certain pain remedy in

-A dastardly trick was played by some scamps Sunday evening at the Queen-st. church. Two nuts were removed from the buggy of a young man named Burke, and when he had driven a short distarce on his way home a wheel dropped off, throwing himself and a young lady companion out on the road. The latter received painful injuries.

-Mr. John Kelly, landscape gardner, of Peterbore, passed through town bers. The county representatives were out in full force, and did ample justice to the bountiful table laid by mine host McConnell. Dr. Burrows occupied the chair, and engineered the toast list to the satisfaction of all interested. The usual loyal and patriotic toasts were ably responded to. "The County Council" was felicitiously replied to by Mr. Chambers, the warden, and the elder members of the council; "The Town Council", by his worship Mayor Walters; "The Military," by Col. Deacon, Lieut. Hopkins and Lieut. Laidlaw; "The Learned Professions," by Dr. Burrows; and "The Press," by Geo. Lytle. A number of songs were rendered by some of the guests, and at an early hour the host and guests meandered to their respective places of sojourn. The menu was in Mr. McConnell's best style, and all agreed that a most enjoyable evening was numbered with the past. last week after a stay of several weeks at Kirkfield, where he was doing work in his line, besides laying out and fitting up a cemetery for the village, the site of which was presented by Mrs. McKenzie, wife of the president of the Toronto

Street Rallway. -Now that Eugene Field is dead every one is reading his poems. One cannot help but msrvel that so much touching tenderness and pathos should be the out-come of such simple, unassuming, quiet lines. Yet it is just such poems, childlike as they may appear, that one revels in for a few moments, forgetting his cares and bringing out all the nobler and pleasanter traits of character.

-Mrs. H. P. Angell, of Galveston, Texas, died at New Orleans on the 28th ult. The deceased lady was a daughter of the late Charles Hughes, formerly of Port Hope, and a neice of the late Mrs. Thomas Matchett. Mrs. Angell was greatly esteemed by all who had the pleasure of the reconstitutions. She paid coassional her ecquaintance. She paid ccessional visits to Lindsay, accompanied by her the night set aside for a reception to the junior members and their boy friends. By six o'cl. ok the Ladies' Auxiliary had a large number of tables nicely arranged throughout the parlour and game-room, and the boys were soon seated around these, when in a few minutes the fun began. There was a brisk demand for the good things provided, and no plate returned other than empty. Over ninety boys were given tea, and great credit is due to were given tea, and great credit is due to the ladies present who managed the work the ladies present who managed games until about 8 o'clock, when two short debates by members were well contested and created much merriment. A neatly worded vote of thank to the ladies was moved, seconded, and heartily carried by the boys, and after a few brief speeches by gentlemen present games were again indulged in until 930, when the boys dispersed, all agreeing that they had had a "big time." This branch of the association is making rapid progress and undoubtedly much good is being done among the boys.

SCRANTON COAL

Company.

—A well attended farewell reception was held in St. Paul's schoolhouse last Monday evening previous to the departure of Mr. Petter, who left next day for the Saskatchewan diocese. A selection of vecal and instrumental music was rendered. Refreshments were served by the ladies, after which Mrs. Soanes, on behalf of the Gleaners' Union, presented Mr. Petter with a dressing case and some books. Mr. Petter replied in a few well and the company of the provious to the departure of Mr. Saskatchewan diocese. A selection of the ladies, after which Mrs. Soanes, on behalf of the Gleaners' Union, presented Mr. Petter with a dressing case and some books. Mr. Petter replied in a few well and the ladies of the Gleaners' Union, presented Mr. Petter with a dressing case and some books. Mr. Petter replied in a few well and the ladies of the Gleaners' Union, presented Mr. Petter with a dressing case and some books.

Marriage Licenses at PORTER'S Bookstore. Kent-st., Lindsay.-14.

Found. On the corner of Peel and William-sts., during the winter months, a practical furrier who gives entire satisfaction, or money refunded, when repairing or making to order furs of every description and in any style. -87-tf. G. P. MULLETT. style.-87-tf.

You can Believe The testimonials published in behalf of Hood's Sarsaparillia. They are written by honest people, who have actually found in their own experience that Hood's Sarsap-arilla purifies the blood, creates an appetite, strengthers the system and ab-solutely and permanently cures all dis-eases caused by impure and deficient.

Local Brevitles. -Messrs, Silver & Culbert are the new proprietors of Clendensn's livery. -Mr. Wm. Weese shipped a carload of horses to Montreal last Saturday.

-Booksellers and fancy ware dealers are already making brave displays of goods or Christmas. -The county councillors concluded their arduous labors last Saturday and lefe for their homes.

-Mr. W. Walters last week placed the stop logs in position above the locks so as to prevent leakage. -A choice stock of Memorial cards of the latest and most handsome design just received at THE POST. -The G. N. W. Telegraph Co. linemen were busy last Monday changing the position of several posts on Kent-st. -Sporting men will notice with pleasure that the old here, Ned Hanlan, the cars-man, is again coming to the front. -Miss Galbraith, has resumed her music class at Mrs. Robinson's, William-st. north.—128-3m.—79-3m. -A gang of Italian navvies, about 25 .B. & O.R.R. on their way to Montreal. -The Light, Heat and Power Co. have supplied two more houses on Kent-st. with electric light. Other orders are at hand. -A meeting of the Children's Aid Society was held last Monday in the council chamber to consider a pressing

-Municipal matters are engaging some attention in Opy. It is said new men will offer for the positions of reeve and deputy--County Constable Crawford took old man Hepburn to Toronto hospital last Monday, where he will be kep) at the county's expense. -The funeral of the late Mrs. David Walker took place last Monday and was very largely attended considering the inclemency of the weather.

-No the least among the libraries in town is the Collegiate's, which comprises some 555 well chosen and useful books. Truly our students have great advantages. -Last Sunday evening, as Mrs. Earl, of the east ward, was returning home from church she fell on the hard pavement and seriously hurt her leg. We are glad to learn that no bones were broken.

-A lady lost a purse last Saturday containing about $30 in cash and some private papers, as well as a ticket for Mariposa Station. The finder will be rewarded by leaving it at this office.

-Mr. M. Boyd's Rocky Mountain puma is dead. The Independent says the var-mint lived high on wild duck and part-ridge and could have had quail on toast if he had only dropped a hint that way. -There were scores of back-sliders from he various churches last Sunday, and many forsook the narrow and took the broad road-not from a spiritual standpoint, though, but owing to the slippery condition of the sidewalks.

-Mr. Sam Swanton, of this town, is making trips through the north country closing contracts for live cedar paving posts, telegraph poles and cedar railway ties, to be delivered at G. T. R. sidings during the coming winter.

—The ladies of the Central Charity Committee have completed the program for their concert on the 12th of Dec., and trust that it will be well patronized by the town and country people. The concert is for a good object and should be well attended.

-R. S. BAILEY'S French and American combination systam for cutting Ladies' and Children's Garments. Simple, perfect and always reliable. Cutting taught and systems supplied. Call or address Mrs. Nellie Williams (Agent), 52 Regent-st., Lindsay.—19 13w.

-The young man who gently put his arm around a fair maiden's waist on William-st. the other evening discovered that he had got his arm around the wrong young lady, having mistaken her for an-other. She was very angry when he found out his mistake.

-Constable R. S. Cole, of Dorset, Hali-burton county, arrived in town last Monday with a prisoner named Geo. Ford, who had been committed by Magistrate J. S. Shrigley to stand his trial on a charge of aggravated assault. Ford was placed in care of Goaler Jackson.

-Mr. A. Jewett has just purchased a very handsome well-matched team of grey horses, which he intends using in his livery business. Mr. Jewett knows a good horse when he sees one, and his patrons enjoy the benefit of his knowledge by being furnished with good turnouts.

-Messrs. Horn Bros, of the Lindsay Woollen Mills, evidently reached high water mark in the retail sale of their famous blankets last Friday, purchases advancing from an average sale of 14 pairs to the large number of 42 pairs, which speaks well for the quality of goods hey manufacture.

-Now that Lindsay has its daily paper, newsboys, boot-blacks, poor and aged, all that it requires to make it a full-fledged city is a civic scandal and an investigation. Capt. Crandell, the "watch-dog" of the treasury, has several times hinted at dark deads that would not bear the light of day. deeds that would not bear the light of day. Has he been muzzled?

-A young lad named Walker broke through the ice last Sunday near Rathbun's mill while skating, and had a narrow escape from drowning. By desperate efforts he managed to break a way through the ice towards shore, and was finally pulled out by his companions more dead than alive from exhaustion and exposure. -Dundas & Flavelle Bros. staff were somewhat handicapped last Monday in some of the departments by the workmen engaged in tearing down the walls in the rear to give communication with the store vacated by Messrs. Matchett and Carroll. Ere Christmas arrives the firm hope to have most of the projected alterations

-Mr. D. C. Trew, our well-known poultry breeder, shipped a grand Houdan cockerel last week to Mr. Allan Bogue, of London, Ont.—one of the largest breeders in western Canada. Last Friday Mr. Trew shipped a second Houdan cock to Mr. S.A. Henderson, of Toronto, and in a few days he will ship a cockerel and two hens to Mr. S. H. Semens, of Milwaukee,

-An enjoyable social was given last Friday evening at the residence of Mrs. Jar.
Meehan, Ops, to which members of the "Social 40" club and others were invited.
Amusing games and other pastimes were indulged in. A tempting lunch was served at a convenient hour, and later on all returned to their homes, hoping that the next may prove as successful.

Victoria-ave.

-The Hamilton Times, in noting the institution of a regular course of lectures to the attendants at Hamilton asylum, states that the lecture given on Tuesday evening by Dr. Herriman, of the asylum, (son of Dr. W. L. Herriman, of this town), on the subject of "Comparative Physiology," was both elever and entertaining.

-Whithy Chronicle: Mr. Robt, H.

There was a very large market last Saturday, but a great deal of the produce remained unsold at the close. The ruling prices were: Turkeys, 7c to 95 per lb;
butter, 14c to 18c; eggs, 155 to 16c; geese, 65 to 7c per lb; chickens, 25c to 355; ducks, 45c to 60c; lard, 10c to 12c; potatoes, 25c to 30c; lamb, 5c to 7c per lb; apples, per bag, 50c to 70c; beef, $3.50 to $4.75 per ouarter.

Marriage Licenses can be obtained at any hour, day or night at HUGHAN & Co.'s .- 88-tf.

[The Post invites all its readers to contribute to his column all items of a personal nature, such as the arrival and departure of guests, the movements of well known people, business men, etc. All that s required is to send a postal card to The Post, or ring up No. 12 on the phone.] -Mr. Geo. Lee, of Montreal, was in town last week. -Mr. J. Jordan, of Valentia, spent last Monday in town.

-Mr. H. Mulligan, of Millbrook, was in town last Monday. -Miss Lottie Fox visited friends in Napanee last week. -Mr. Hal. Harris, of Bobcaygeon, was in town last Monday. -Mrs. McKinnon, of Fenelon Falls, spent Saturday in town. -Mr. Charlie Daniels, of Fenelon Falle, was in town last Saturday. -Mr. Henry Raszin, P.S.L., West Victerla, was in town last Friday. geese are all the go in the country just day for Chicago to visit friends. -Mr. Findley McDougal, of Fenelon Falls, spent last Monday in town. -Miss Florence Marshall, while in town, was the guest of Miss Spier, Russell-st. -Mr. C. J. Pasey passed through on Monday last on his way to Brockville. -Mr. A Dingle. Bond-st., left last Thursday morning for Toronto to visit friends. -Miss Maud Needler, who has been on a visit to town, has returned to college in

-Mr. W. J. Sherwood, of Peterboro, was a guest at the Simpson house last Monday. -Mrs. R. W. McFadden, of Reid-st., Peterboro, is visiting friends on York and -Mr. J. H. Swan, manager for Howry Son, Fenelon Falls, was in town on Saturday. -Mrs. W. Snelling, of Fenelon, is visit-ing with her brother, Mr. Woren Worsley, north ward. -Mr. Tom Callaghan, of Campbellford, foreman for the Rathbun Co., was in town last Monday. -Mrs. H. Workman and her son James left last Friday for Minden, where they will visit friends. -Mr. Thos. Fee, who has been confined to his house for five weeks, is able to be about again. -Mrs. J. H. Lennon left last Monday for Sudbury, where she will spend two weeks with friends. -Mrs. R. Sheridan, of Ashburnham, "Maple Grove Cottage," is visiting Mrs. Archambault. -Miss Nellie Snelling, of Fenelov, left town last Monday to spend a week with Peterboro friends. -Rev. S. McCaulev, cf Oakwood, and Rev. J. W. Totten, L'ndsay, exchanged pulpits last Sabbath. -Mr. R B. Rogers, of Peterboro, superintendent of the Trent Vally waters, was in town on Saturday.

-Mr. John Barron, a well known To-ronto grocer, spent Sanday last in town, the guest of Dr. Burrows. -Mr. J. J. Turner, the well-known tent and awning maker, of Peterboro, was in town last Monday on business. -Miss Graham, of Havelcek, and Miss Williamson, of Lindsay, was visiting Miss Brown, of Millbrook, last week. -Mr. P. McArthur was in the city on Monday last and made a large purchase of new goods for the holiday trade.

-Capt. Lane and family returned to town on Tuesday from Bobcaygeon, and will reside here during the winter. -Miss Thompson, of Bethany, was the guest of Mr. Robert Johnston, Bond-st., for a portion of last week and this. -Rev. Robt. Johnston, of Bethany, is in town visiting his nephew, Mr. R. Johnstop, of the firm of Johnston & Sisson.

-Mr. Abraham Jacob, reeve of Carden, was a guest at the Daly house while attending the county council last week. -Mrs. John McDonald, of the north ward, left for Peterboro last Saturday morning to spend a few days with friends. -Mr. Jas. Growden, jr., left for Port-land, Me., last Saturday in charge of Dundas & Flavelle Bros. shipment of turkeys. -Mr. Alex. Morrison, deputy reeve of Somerville, attended at the county council last week, and gave THE POST a pleas-

-Mr. W. S. McKowan, of Bowmanville, representing the International Publishing Co., Philadelphia, Pa., was in towa -Mr. R. P. Gamon, of the Bank of Montreal staff, was confined to his room by illness for a few days last week, having contracted a severe cold. -Contractor R. F. McGragor, J. C. Smith and James Swanton, three Peterboro citizans, were registered at the Daly house on Monday last.

-Mr. D'Arcy Graham, of Graham Bros., grocers, has been seriously ill for some days. Last Saturday his ailment took a bad turn, but he is now considerably

-Mr. R. B. Andrews, of Bowmanville, representing the Morris, Fields & Rogers Co., piano manufacturers, Listowel, was in town on Wednesday looking up business in his line. -Mrs. Wm. Flavelle and Miss Flavelle returned from their Southern trip on Saturday evening last. They enjoyed a pleasant time and were greatly benefited by the trip. -Quite a few of Mr. Petter's friends were at the station last Tuesday to bid him farewell. Mr. Petter will visit friends in the city for a few days before leaving for Calgary, N.W.T.

-Orillia News-Latter: -Mr. Jas. Smith, plumber, of Lindsay, who has opened a branch business here, has moved his family to town and has taken one of Mr. Venner's houses on Front-st. -Fenelon Falls Gazette:-Miss Barran, of Lindsay, has been visiting at Mr. Dickson's since Monday last..... Miss Bonnell, of Babcaygeon, left for home on Wednesday, after a long visit to her friend, Miss

Dickson, at the Falls. -Mr. Leslie Bick, son of Mr. Thos. Bick, of this town, has returned from Sudbury hospital, where he spent three weeks suffering from an attack of fever. It will be some time yet before he recovers his usual rugged health. -Mr. Jas. Carroll, traveller for the Pelee Island Wine Co., has returned from his first trip in the interests of the firm, and is well satisfied with the measure of success he met with. He left on Wednesday for Montreal and points east. -Letters received by friends in town convey the cheering news that Mr. R. H. Walks, cf the Collegiate staff, is rapidly recovering his good health at his home in Brooklin, and he hopes to be with his pupils again after the Christmas holidays.

-Rev. P. H. Allin, B. A., is visiting his brother, Mr. J. L. Allin, Cambridge st. The rev. gentleman assisted in the service at Cambridge-st. Methodist church last evening. Mrs. Allin is also on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Maunder, Victoria-ave.

duarter.

—Mr. W. Archbold, representing John Lovell & Son, the well-known directory publishers, was in town last Friday taking orders for a new directory to be issued in June next. It will be alphabetically arranged and will take in every city, town and banking village in the Dominion of Canada. It will be a stupendous work, and will be invaluable to business and professional men.

—Uxbridge Times:— Mrs. White, of Lindsay, spent Thankegiving day with her sister, Mrs. Tisdale.... Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hardy, of Lindsay, ate the Thankegiving day with her sister, Mrs. Tisdale.... Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hardy, of Lindsay, ate the Thankegiving day with her sister, Mrs. Tisdale.... Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hardy, of Lindsay, ate the Thankegiving day with her sister, Mrs. Tisdale.... Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hardy, of Lindsay, ate the Thankegiving day with her sister, Mrs. Tisdale.... Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hardy, of Lindsay, ate the Thankegiving day with her sister, Mrs. Tisdale.... Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hardy, of Lindsay, ate the Thankegiving day with her sister, Mrs. Tisdale.... Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hardy, of Lindsay, ate the Thankegiving day with her sister, Mrs. Tisdale.... Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hardy, of Lindsay, ate the Thankegiving day with her sister, Mrs. Tisdale.... Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hardy, of Lindsay, ate the Thankegiving day with her sister, Mrs. Tisdale.... Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hardy, of Lindsay, ate the Thankegiving day with her sister, Mrs. Tisdale.... Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hardy, of Lindsay, spent Thankegiving day with her sister, Mrs. Tisdale.... Mrs. and Mrs. E. A. Hardy, of Lindsay, ate the Thankegiving day with her sister, Mrs. Tisdale.... Mrs. and Mrs. E. A. Hardy, of Lindsay, ate the Thankegiving day with her sister, Mrs. Tisdale.... Mrs. and Mrs. E. A. Hardy, of Lindsay, ate the Thankegiving day with her sister, Mrs. Tisdale.... Mrs. and Mrs. E. A. Hardy, of Lindsay, ate the Thankegiving day with her sister, Mrs. Tisdale.... Mrs. and Mrs. E. A. Hardy, of Lindsay, ate the Thankegiving day with her sister, Mrs. Tisdale... Mrs. an

Warner & Co.

OPENED THIS WEEK BY

WARNER & CO.

Contain some very interesting bargains, of which we have space only to mention a few.

5000 yards Factory Cotton Remnants, from 2 to 20 yard ends. We offer a bargain in every end.

30 Dozen Men's Lined Kid Gloves and Mitts, bought at a clearing price, are being offered 25 to 40 cts. below value.

20 Pieces Heavy English Flannelette, nearly yard wide, good value at 14c., our price to clear 10c. per yd.

50 Dozen Men's and Boys' Cloth, Curl and Sealette Caps way below value; a saving of from 25 to 30 cts. to you here.

75 Ladies' Black Muffs, splendidly finished goods, regular value $1.50, our price $1,00.

Our regular Stock of Furs is very complete. Our prices for Caps, Muffs, Hair Seal, and Otter Capes, beautifully finished goods, will be found lower than usual, as all are marked at straight dry goods' profits.

25 Extra Large Gray Goat Robes, on which you can save just $1.50 each.

50 Dozen New and Nobby Styles in Men's Neckwear, regular 35 to 40 cent goods, your choice for 25c.

25 Dozen Ladies' Embroidered White Lawn Handkerchiefs.

25 Dozen Handsome Designs in Silk Handkerchiefs. Lovely goods at bed-rock prices.

We ask your careful inspection of our Whole Stock. Our Prices are Moneysavers every time.

LINDSAY AND WOODVILLE.

Read our Clothing Advertisement elsewhere in this Paper.

Priestley-Montreal.

The New "Eudora" Cloth Have you seen the new "Eudora?" FOR LADIES.

It might have been thought that the black dress goods in the world. And now they have brought out the new "Eudora." The Henriettas seemed perfection.

But with the Priestleys it is ever onward. The "Endown." ness, all its own. It has extra width and weight, it fits beautifully, and gives long service, while the glow upon its surface, gives ALWAYS ASK

VARNISHED it the character which FOR PRIESTLEY'S and Priestley's name stamped on every five Granby Rubbers.

DRESS GOODS

Granby Rubbers

ladies like.

Are out again this season in new styles and in all the new Shoe shapes, right up to date, but with the same old "wear like iron" quality that has always characterized them, because they are honestly made of pure Rubber. Be sure you get Granby's this year.

5 Packs of OARDS FREE! One Pack May I, C, U, Home ; One Pack, Escort's One Pack, Flirtation; One Pack, Hold to the Light; One Pack, Our Sofa justs holds Two; One sample book full of Novelties, Send 5c. 89 4. A. W. KINNEY, L.C.P., Yarmouth, N.S.

Farmers' Sons

or other industrious persons of fair education to whom $75.00 a month would be an inducement, Write me with references. Could also engage a few ladies at their own homes, T. H. LINBOOTT:

will-5 d98-26. w91-5. d98-26.