He Has Just Arrived From Cuba and Thinks Spain Has a Big Contract on Hand.

New York, Dec. 14.-Winston Leonard Spencer Churchill, son of the late Lord Randolph Churchill, arrived in this city from Cuba last week, where he has been watching the operbuild, at its option, a high level bridge | ations of the belligerent forces for the last eight weeks. Mr. Churchill is accompanied by his brother officer and chum, R. W. R. Barnes. Mr. Churchill was seen by a reporter, and denied all the rumors about the political significance of his trip. He said that he had simply been in search of pastime and pleasure, and that he had had many interviews and experiences in the south. "My letters to Gen. Campos," said he, "gave me many advantages which I would not otherwise have had. I was fortunate in being entertained at Spanish military headquarters, and had a good opportunity for observing operations. Campos gave me a letter to Gen. Valdez, and spent eight days at the front with his column. During that time I was a member of his staff. At La Reforma we were near the insurgents for the two and a half days, at the end of which time they retired." "What is your opinion of the situa-

"I think that, owing to the nature of the country, the Spanish have before them a very difficult task in the suppression of the rebellion. Although I believe them to be brave and energetic. I do not think there is sufficient combination in the movement of their several columns to catch the insurgents or inflict upon them serious de-

"The situation at present is just as it has been since the outbreak of hosilities. There have been no decisive battles fought and won on either side. And let me say right here that the reports of the engagements as published in the foreign papers have been misleading in every respect. At every battle a few men are killed on both sides, but the problem is no nearer

"If when the spring rains set in is now, the probabilities are that the insurgents will win. Owing to the abominable condition of the roads in spring and summer it will be impossible for the Spanish to move their troops, and what with losses that must ensue from heat and pestilence. it would look as though they would have to eventually withdraw."

Scribner's for Christmas

Frank R Stockton has a Christmas love story, which bears a characteristic title .- 'The Staying Power of Sir Rohan' It's illustrations are quaint and exactly suitable A thrilling Detective Story by C. E. Carryll, entitled "The River Syndicate," perhaps equalling Sherlock Holmes' best work, Joel Chandler Harr's' characteristic tale of a faithful slave -The Colonel's Nigger Dog." Other Christmas stories are "A Wnite Blot," by Henry Van Drke, a poetic and imaginative tale of a picture (illustrated); "Heroism of Landers" by A S. Pier (illustrated); and "Hopper's Old Man, by R, C. V. Mayers,

Sentimental Tommy

By J. M. Barrie,

Those who have read (and who have not ?) "The Little Minister" and "A Window in Thrums" can anticipate what Mr. Barrie's 'Sentimental Tommy" will be.
It is to be the chief serial in SCRIBNERS for 1896, beginning in the January number. Two Years for $4.50

Scribner's Magazine costs $3 00 a year, but new subscribers can have all the numbers for 1895 and a year's subscription for Scribner's Magazine is going to be better next year than ever It is going to have new features. Its publishers are not satisfied with past successes. It purposes to more thoroughly deserve the confidence of the reading public.

The History Serial— Last Quarter Century in the United States" - will be continued. Just now it is approaching a period of absorbing interest to the present generation—the first administration of President Cleveland.

Christmas gift. The $4,50 offer ought to get double consideration. CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS, 153 Fifth Avenue, New York.

Scribner's Magazine ought to get careful consideration as a you will have trying to cook a Christmas dinner on that old stove. Choose a Range for a gift from Santa and let him bring it a day or two beforehand. You'll be delighted with the oven, a patent flue keeps it EVENLY HEATED-the fire answers readily to a touch -and your coal will last half as ong again. You'll enjoy baking with it.
