Fight With a Lycx.

In conversation with a man from the Algonouin park lumbering region this morning our reporter gained the details of a terrible fight with a Canadian lynx. He said two men named Stott and Westlake were cut coon hunting, when their dags treed what they supposed to be a With the aid of a lantern the animal was legated among the transhes of report of his fifts the animal with a plereing scream made a spring and landed apon him, kneeking him down, and before the dage could come to his resent tore away the clothing and bedly lacerated the hash of his sems and shoulders. In a short time the Canadian Irax, as the animal proved to be, literally tore three of the seven dags to shreds, and was fast making away with the others when Westlake attempted to strike it with an axe, but anly succeeded in turning the infuriated animal from the dogs to himself and was soon bitten and seratched in a terrible manner. The wounded man fought savagely and he finally dealt the lynx a death blow with the axe, almost severing the head from the body. The men were not dangerously wounded, but received and pliaful scratches.

Church Notes.

-The Methodist body is again in luck. The Rev. John Hughes, who died at Colborne on Dec. 1, in his 90th year, bequeathed $1,500 to his former church. Of this sum $1,000 is to devoted to superannuation purposes, the remainder going to the mission fund. Mr. Hutchinson, of Chirquaconsey township, who died recently, left $1,000 to be divided equally between the superannuation and mission band. The Wesley Camp Ground Committee, of Niagara Falls, have wound up their affairs and made a donation of about $3,000 to the superannuation fund.

-At St. Paul's church Sunday morning Rev. C. H. Marsh conducted the service and preached from Romans 13:14: "But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to falfil the lusts theraof." The sermon was very appropriate to the season of Advent. It being near the close of the sesson, he recommended his hearers to carry out the lessons that had been learned and not to leave the matter of self improvement to and correct their own failings In the evening Mr. Percy Spanes read the prayers and the rector read the lesso : s and preached from Issiah 32:2: "And a man shall be as an hiding place from the wind, and a covert from the tempest."
