This meeting on Thanksgiving day has now become annual, and on this occasion I have the pleasure of recording that the response to the ladies' invita-tion was liberal. They asked for money in unlimited amount, and also for help to dispose of unlimited quantities of beautiful coffee and cake, and both requests were complied with to an extent that was gratifying. There was an excellent program. Mrs. (Rev) P. A. Upon making closer enquirles it proved only too true. The surmises are that very poor health and financial losses lately caused him to commit the When found he had been some time dead, having shot himself in the roof of the mouth.

POSTPONED.— The auction sale of the goods and chattels of Robert Weir, which was extensively advertised to take place on last Monday, did not materialize. CHURCH NOTE.-Mr. Albert James Brace, of Markham, son of the Baptist pastor, preached on Sunday night last a very profitable sermon to a good congregation.

LOAFERS.—The other day, while reading an American trade journal, I came across a bit of advice that should be pondered isiness man in this and every other village. Here it is: "Better for a grocer, dry goods dealer, druggist, tobacconist, or any other business man, to offend a whole coterie of loungers than to spoil his trade by incommoding parsons who mean business. No one likes to place small orders when a lot of idle persons are listening, ready to make comments on them and their purchases as soon as their backs are turned."

OBIT.—Dhe sudden death of Mr Norman N. McDonald has cast a gloom of sadness over the people of this vicinity; his four sons being prominent men on the canal at this point no doubt made the people here much better acquainted with him than would otherwise have been the case, as Mr. McDonald has only been here a short time. He was born in the county of Glengarry on March 12th, 1815, and lived thera the larger part of his life, only moving away some two years ago. His death was all the more sad on account of his wife being on a visit to her old home, and as make the long journey to the funeral. The remains were interred in the Roman Catholic cemetery at Victoria Road. The people in general showed great respect and sympathy for the family, over forty rigs being at the funeral. The widowed mother and family have our deepest sympathy.

IRONDALE.

IRON MINING -Work at the iron mines is not progressing very fast, and the rumor is gaining strength that it will shortly be relinquished. On the other hand, it is reported that Mr. S. Thompson, an old employee of the I. B. & O. R. R. Company, is to take charge and strip off the top of the mine on the Checkley estate. Meanwhile papa's face is like that of the Sphinx-inscrutable.

HIGH ERRICHT RATES.-Great indignation is expressed at the action of the I. B. & O. R. R. Co. in raising the freight rates, as by so doing buyers are cut off from dealing here, the rates being so excessively high now that they cannot compete with the local buyer, who is offering the munificent sum of $1.15 per cord, and take it out in trade—when you get the chance! Meanwhile our neighbors in Glamorgan are taking action (which it would be premature to disclose just now), in the mat-ter. As it is, all business in wood is dull, and this, combined with the fact that there is no lumber firm operating here, prevents money from circulating.

EXCITEMENT.—School matters are loom ing up largely, and with municipal politics are distracting the attention of the ratepayers from Ontario and Dominion

SHOULD BE STOPPED .- Do any of our Lindsay readers wish to see one of the finest pyrotechnic exhibits that has ever been displayed free! Let him come to Irondale or its vicinity in the evening as the trsin comes puffing in, and he will appreciate to the full the whole-souled and generous spirit in thus providing an entertainment for the resident public all along the line. Of course if a house or barn or so, with its contents, gets burned, it does not matter. I doubt if it ever enters inte the brain of our railway Napoleons, who dance while the people pay the piper.

Is this always to be so—capital backed by the law to rule, while labor—but I had better stay my pan, or you will think me

Robert Burke, of Haliburton, spent last Sabbath at Mr. A. Casey's. His uncle, Mr. Burke, of the North-west territory, is renewing old acquaintances in this section. Mr. Burke left here some years ago, and by dint of perseverance and hard toll has made a good home for himself and family. He reports having 4,000 bushels of wheat stored when he left, which was likely to be sold at $1 per bushel.

LOTS OF VIM. - Our brave major is worth of the title, as he brooks no danger, Though the roads be rough and the distance far, the prize in view is worth all the effort of a Sunderland trip. Success to you, major.

LEAVING.-We are sorry to lose our dress-maker, Mrs. Swain, as she is a good one. She has however, decided to go to Toronto for a year and keep house for her brother, who is an under-graduate at Victoria university. A COMING EVENT.-Rumor says one of our young men is soon to capture a fair damsel from your town. We are not disposed to sing "Don't go, Tommy, don't go'—for we rather think well of the coming acquisition to our hamlet. A GOOD CITIZEN GOING. - We are losing highly esteemed citizen in the person of CHURCH NOTES.—Mr. Hannah, of Ux. bridge, will occupy the Presbyterian pulpit next Sunday afternoon, as Mr. Cameron is to preach the anniversary sermons in Uxbridge.... The opening of the new Methodisc church here is to take place of the new Metho chorus, which called for an encore. Mr. Delve, junior preacher here, gave a temperance solo, which took the house by storm, and brought him back for a duett with Miss Stratton, which was equally as good. The literary part consisted of recitations by Miss Stratton, who always delights her audiences. A short talk by Mr. Dalve, and an able address by Rev. Mr. Stratton on the subject "Our Country's Need" followed. Mr. W. Suggitt ably fill-

BROS. TO THE RESCUE OF THE POOR MAN

With bigger and better values than ever were known in the Annals of the Clothing Trade of the country. ---Fear not, for we'll stand by you-

Good people of Lindsay, here we are on the threshold of Winter just opening up in earnest the Fall Trade of Fine Ready-Made Clothing, Hats and Caps and Gents' Furnishings. This is the Fifth Fall here for us, and as we look back how proud we feel of the success that has crowned our efforts in revolutionizing the Clothing Trade of the County. GOUGH BROS. in their fight against High Prices won in a canter, won in the first round, won because right always will win. Now don't go away imbued with the idea that we are satisfied with laurels won and contented to lie on our oars, so to speak-No, No-we're not built that way. When we started this business we stated candidly that we were after the whole trade of the community. Well, we got our share, our envious competitors think -yes, know that we got some of their share, but old-fashioned i leas aren't gotten rid of in a day, and they can't see that the true secret of our success is not getting as much as you can from your customers, but giving as much as you possibly can do for the money. The good old "golden rule" is a good friend to stand by whether in business or otherwise. In it is contained the very essence of our business methods. We've got the only complete stock of Clothing in Lindsay, and with Clothing associate everything that men wear. We're not green at our business, for to-day GOUGH BROS stand alone and supreme as the most successful Clothiers in Canada. Far and near our name has spread, until there's not a place within one hundred miles where the name of GOUGH is not known, and the people who know swell the voice of the multitude with our ancient battle-cry "Always Good at Gough's."
