LOCAL NEWS-LETTERS

OAK WOOD.

[Correspondence of THE POST.]

WEATHER.—The weather was very beautiful last week, but we are having lots of snow now. Things look as if we are going to have sleighing for Christmas.

PERSONAL.—We are glad to see Mr. Noble Tait out again after a recent accident.

GONE.—The many friends of Mrs. Henry Bateman and family are sorry to hear they have moved to Dakota, where her husband has resided for the past year.

OMEMEE.

[Correspondence of THE POST.]

POULTRY.—The great demand for poultry about Thanksgiving day, which was for the European trade, and of which there was such a large delivery, will have a tendency towards making a scarcity for the holiday trade.

NEW TEACHER.—The school board advertised in the Globe for a teacher for the second department in the public school. There were over one hundred applicants. The unfortunate victim selected is a Miss McMillan, who is attending the model school in Toronto. Had the "ad." read, a servant wanted, there would not have been quarter the applications, and the remuneration is not much greater.

BIBLE SOCIETY.—The bible society meeting was held in the Presbyterian church last Tuesday evening. The attendance of the numerous young people's societies was not noticeable, and that of church members was also very slim. Rev. D. A. Shaw, M.A., of Bowmanville, agent of the society, gave an excellent address, which was highly appreciated by those who were ortunate enough to be present. The local ministers, Revs. Hill and McCann, took part in the meeting. The chair was occupied by Dr. Thompson, and the officers of last year were re elected for another term.

REAL ESTATE DEAL.—The Thos. Stephenson farms, on the west side of the boundary line between Ops and Emily, formerly known as the John and Abner Cunningham farms, were recently sold to George Thorne, of Cavan, the consideration being $5,000. This was always regarded as one of the finest properties in this part of the country. It contains 256 acres, and about the time the N.P. was inaugurated to save the country from bankruptcy the late owner refused $16,000 cash for the same property.

PERSONAL.—Thos. Stephenson, Wm. Neill and others are attending court at Lindsay this week.....W. H. Curry is in Toronto.....Isaac Graham, station agent, has got leave of absence for a few months in order to recuperate his former good health. Mr. Pickett is supplying his place.

CHRISTMAS.—There is not much display being made for the holiday trade this year. Intending purchasers will do their buying in Lindsay.

FLEETWOOD.

[Special to THE POST.]

CHEESE FACTORY.—The patrons of Fleetwood cheese factory met on 27th November to wind up the business of the season, when the secretary read the following report:

Total lbs. of milk for the season	1,315,736 lbs.
Total lbs of cheese	122 499 lbs.
Total proceeds of the season	$10,091.04
Average price per 100 lbs	.53
No. of lbs. of milk for one lb. of cheese	10 74-100

Wm. Hannah, president; J. A. Wood, cheese-maker.

SUNDERLAND.

[Correspondence of THE POST]

CHURCH NOTES.—Rev. Dr. Carman will preach in the town hall, Sunderland, on Sunday evening, 13th inst. There will be service in some of the other churches that evening. A large attendance is expected: the name of Dr. Carman will draw a large crowd.....Rev. Mr. Bridgeman (Baptist) has moved to Toronto. He comes to Sunderland on Saturday and preaches at three different stations, and returns to Toronto on Monday a.m.

ACCIDENT.—We hear that Mr. Allen Turner got his hand badly torn the other day; he was helping to put down a curb in a well and somehow the hook got loose and caught in his hand and tore the flesh from the wrist down.

LECTURE.—Rev. Mr. McLaren lectured in the Presbyterian church on the sufferings of the Armenians under Turkish rule. There was a fair attendance.

NOTES.—We hear that Miss Nellie Welsh is much better.....A large number of our citizens took advantage of the single fare to visit their friends in various parts. We are glad to be able to state they one and all returned well pleased with their trip.

The Sunday-school churches were all fairly attended on Sunday.

GOBOCONK.

[Correspondence of THE POST.]

THANKSGIVING DAY.—On account of the inclemency of the weather our club hunt did not come off, but on the spur of the moment A. B. plotted another scheme which just caught the cracks eyes by having ten turkeys shot for during the afternoon. The winning contestants were Pete, Ned, Joe, Wm., Alex. Odds were even up, Pete winning three and carrying off all honors.

SHOOTING MATCH.—A. B. intends holding his seventh annual shooting match on Christmas day. Shooting will commence sharp at 10 o'clock, when a limited number of turkeys and geese will be shot for. Don't forget the date.

JOTTINGS.—Hard times is all the cry—even worse then ever before; Laurier has done nothing for us yet. We would accept a skating rink, if nothing else, to put in the dreary winter which is now upon us. .....Wood cutting is the topic of the day.

HOUSE OF ALL NATIONS.—Cheap cash reduction sale now on; a call will convince you. See A. B.'s children's shoes, 25c; men's wool caps, 25c; men's suits, only $5; choice lot of Christmas goods away down. Oh, by the way, call and get a pair of our 35c corsets.—44w 1. EYE OPENER.

CANNINGTON.

[Correspondence of THE POST]

THE ENTERTAINMENT given by the Methodist church on Monday evening last was good, and the lecture delivered at same time and place by Conductor Snider was very entertaining. The conductor is a whole entertainment in himself, his lecture is interesting and instructive to people of all classes and creeds. His sermons both morning and evening on Sunday were worth hearing. Receipts from entertainment and lecture, $131.

SHIPMENTS.—Messrs. Smith and McLean shipped two cars of oats this week to London, England, and Mr. Sproule one car to Kingston, Jamaica. Messrs. Beall and Taylor have shipped two cars of stock to Toronto this week, and Mr. Beall one car.

RETURNED.—The genial face of James Cowan is again amongst us, he having returned last week from London, England, where he had been with a cargo of horses. Jim reports markets good for horses across the pond.

PERSONAL.—Mr. H. Wilson is laid up with a bad cold. We hope soon to see him around again.....Mr. Chas. Sproule, who has been seriously ill for the past two weeks, is slightly improving.

NOTES.—Business rather quiet, but hope to see it pick up soon. The Christmas trade will no doubt produce a stir.

COLDWATER.

[Correspondence of THE POST.]

THE WEATHER.—Although we have had about 16 inches of snow during the past ten days, it has now nearly all gone, and with it sleighing, leaving the roads in as bad a condition as when we have it rainy.

VISITORS.—Mr. Stinson, of Minden, who has been staying a week or so with his daughter, Mrs D. C. Sinclair, left for his home last Friday.....Miss Annie Sheppard, who has been to Toronto visiting her relative, Miss Robinson, has returned home bringing the latter to be her guest for a week or two.....Mrs. Curry, who has been staying a week or two with her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Sheppard, has returned home to Omemee.

GRAIN.—Wheat brings 85c to 87c at the mill, but oats, peas, etc., are quoted low.

HEALTH.—This district is generally free from disease, causing our doctors to not complain too much of hard work.

BUSINESS is generally very good, the merchants being satisfied by their weekly returns.

GAME.—The hunting season passed away rather quieter than usual. Grumbling was very plentiful, at having to pay license fees for such a small quantity of deer secured. Inspector Willmott was here last week going over a list of complaints from game wardens, and deciding that he did not find any person very necessary to prosecute.

SKATING.—So far there has not been anything done but getting the rink ready for freezing. The hockey club was organized on Monday evening.

LITTLE BRITAIN.

[Correspondence of THE POST.]

ACCIDENT.—While Mr. and Mrs. John Wallis, of this village, were leaving Lindsay on Saturday night, and when opposite Mr. Wm. Robson's store, the hind axle of their buggy broke. Mr. W. was thrown into the top, all in a heap, while his wife was thrown out of the vehicle, happily escaping with a few scratches and bruises. The horse happened to be jogging at a slow rate, or the accident might have had a more serious termination. Like many other things in this life, "it might have been worse."

PERSONAL.—Miss Emma Shaver, daughter of our popular deputy-reeve, has returned from an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. Skuce, of Mount Horeb..... Miss M. Glenny returned from the city on Saturday last.....Mr. and Mrs. Henry Robertson, of Woodville, visited Little Britain on Sunday week. They have just been united for life, and we extend best wishes for future happiness....Miss Hettie Stratton has returned to the parsonage after spending a five-months' holiday at Kingston, Selby and other points. We welcome her home again.....Mr. Thos. Wallis visited his daughter, Mrs. R. Oliver, of Verulam, last week.

SERVICES.—Rev. Mr. Stratton preached a sermon on "Water Miracles" on Sabbath morning. It was a song service, and the choir did well, as usual....Rev. Mr. Delve preached in the evening on "The Cross."

SOCIAL.—A basket social is being held at Pleasant Point on Friday evening. Many good things are expected. Revs. Elliott, Seagrave; McLeod, Sonya; and McCauley, Oakwood, are expected. Good literary program to be rendered.

NOTES.—Our mail went astray on Saturday, Oakwood and Britain exchanging, to the chagrin of some and amusement of others.....Our usually quiet village is now alive and booming with business.... Some are looking for sleighing, some for wheeling, but all for fine weather.

GRAND CONCERT.—On Christmas night the annual concert under the auspices of the Little Britain E.L.C.E. will be held in the Methodist church. The star attraction of the evening will be Major Galloway, of Kingston, who stands without a peer as a sloger in Ontario. A good treat is promised to all who hear him. A prominent feature of the entertainment will be a fan drill by a class of 20 young ladies; and still another feature, a calisthenic exhibition by 7 boys. Miss Stratton will favor the audience with some choice literary selections. Mrs. Carnovsky, organist of the first Methodist church, Kingston, will be present as accompanist, and will render instrumental music. Local talent will also assist, and a good intellectual feast may be looked for with certainty.

LORNEVILLE.

[Correspondence of THE POST.]

OFFICIAL VISIT.—Inspector Irwin was here on Tuesday of last week inspecting the Lorneville weigh scales.

PERSONAL.—Miss Katie McCuaig, who has been visiting friends in Lorneville for some time past, has returned to Kirkfield.

DUNSFORD.

[Correspondence of THE POST.]

SUDDEN ILLNESS.—As Mr. David Henderson, of Burnt River, was proceeding to Lindsay he was prostrated with an attack of inflammation of the bowels, and was forced to remain with Mr. Germyn, at Dunsford. We are pleased to say he is convalescent and expects to return home this week.

ORANGE OFFICERS.—At the December meeting of L. O. L. No. 96, Dunsford, the following office bearers were elected: W. M., Bro. John Kennedy; D. M., Bro. H. McCallum; chap., Bro. E. Woollard; rec. sec., Bro. W. Patrick; fin. sec., Bro. J.; sheriff; treas., Bro. Jas. English; D. of C., Bro. R. Warren; lecturer, Bro. J. Elliott; com., Bros. Bell, R. White, W. Smith, A. Elliott, T. Wallace.

KINMOUNT.

[Correspondence of THE POST.]

RUNAWAY.—Dunsford Murray's team of horses had their fright last Tuesday. As they passed Mr. Brown's house they were observed going at a rapid rate, and when they reached Mr. Lawrie's no one was there.

ILLNESS.—Mr. Procter is seriously ill, and slight hopes are held out for his recovery.

SUDDEN ATTACK.—Mr. David Henderson, who lives about three miles south of here, was on the road to Lindsay with a team of horses that he was to deliver at that place, and was taken suddenly ill at Dunsford with inflammation of the bowels. We are glad to state that he is improving.

FIRE SOCIAL.—The Epworth League held a pie social on Tuesday evening.

ENTERTAINMENT.—Do not forget the entertainment in the Forester's hall on Friday, 11th inst, given by the public school children, as it will be worthy of patronage. Come everybody and show the children that their efforts to get up a good program are properly appreciated.

KIRKFIELD.

[Correspondence of THE POST.]

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—A very serious accident befell one of our villagers last Tuesday while working on the T. V. canal. Mr. John Richardson was rolling a large log, when the cant hook slipped and the log rolled over on him, throwing him violently to the ground and badly breaking his leg. Through some mismanagement he lay exposed to the severity of the weather for some few hours before he was removed to his home here. The break is a very bad one, though Mr. Richardson at present suffers much more from the effects of a severe cold caught while lying exposed to the weather. He lies in a rather critical condition, but we hope that he may speedily recover. Dr. Ross, of our village, is in attendance.

VISIT.—Mrs. D. McDonald, of British Columbia, but formerly of our village, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Merry. Mrs. McDonald has been absent about eight years. It is needless to say that she received a very hearty welcome from all her old friends and acquaintances.

VISITORS.—Mr. John A. Barron and Mr. Geo. McHugh, M.P., of Lindsay, remained over night in our village last Friday. It set some of the tories guessing.

MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.—Municipal matters, which have been rather quiet here, are now beginning to awaken. Among the many seeking the office of commissioner for the county we hear mentioned the names of Wm. Cameron, Mr. Manning, Arch. McFarlane, Dr. Wood; for reeve we believe Mr. Chas. McDonald and Mr. Wm. McKee are in the field; and Mr. Colin N. McDonald and Mr. Westlake for deputy. No doubt in another couple of weeks canvassing will be in full swing.

NEW HOUSE.—Mr. John King has nearly completed his new house. Mr. R. Mosgrove will, we believe, take possession about Christmas. We welcome Mr. Mosgrove to our part of the village.

CHRISTMAS TOYS.—Mr. M. Perry, our enterprising merchant, has received a large number of Christmas toys. Call and choose before they are all gone.

FOR LEGISLATIVE HONORS.—A number of our local papers are mentioning the name of our energetic and popular merchant, Mr. A. C. McKenzie, as the probable conservative candidate for West Victoria at the next general election. We think, however, that Mr. McKenzie is too shrewd a business man to enter into a contest where there is not the slightest hope of a conservative being elected, and we would be very much surprised were he to accept such a forlorn hope as to attempt to carry West Victoria in the conservative cause.

[From another correspondent.]

ACCIDENT.—Mr. J. Richardson got his leg broke below the knee while removing a derrick on the canal last week. He was unconscious for two days and has been more or less delirious ever since. We hope, under the skillful treatment of Dr. Ross, that his recovery may be rapid.

PERSONAL.—We are sorry to learn of the illness of our G. T. R. agent, Mr. D. A. Scott. Dr. Wood is in attendance..... Mr. Wm. Mullen, of Collingwood, is relieving at the station on account of Mr. Scott being ill.

HYMENEAL.—We are to have three weddings to-morrow. Particulars next week.

[From an occasional correspondent.]

PERSONAL.—Mrs. Underwood, of Oshawa, has been visiting her daughter, Miss Hattie Underwood.....Our old friend, W. King, has arrived back from Orillia. Glad to see you back, Billy.....Miss Etta McKenzie, of Toronto, returned to her home there after a month's visit with friends here. Etta will be much missed, as she is a general favorite.....Miss M. McFadyen spent Sunday with her mother here.....Mr. John King returned home Monday night from visiting friends in Toronto. Mr. Wm. Dennon, contractor, paid his wife, Mrs. Dennon, a visit last week. Mrs. Dennon, having returned from a trip to Detroit, Cleveland and other places. They report having a very pleasant time.....Misses Fanny and Nellie Bell have just returned from a visit to their sister, who is attending Woodstock College.....Miss Hamilton, of Toronto, is the guest of Allandale, is visiting Mrs. D. A. Scott.

PERSONAL.—There is quite an improvement in the Presbyterian choir since Mr. Strickland has taken the leadership. We understand he used to be choir master in Peterboro.

ACCIDENTS.—Mr. A. C. McKenzie, our popular merchant, had his leg badly hurt getting out of his buggy. We hope his recovery may be speedy.....Mr. John Richardson, while working around one of the derricks on the canal, had his leg broken just above the ankle. Dr. J. F. Ross is in attendance.

SLIPPERY GOODS.—Mr. Joseph V. Staples has a fine lot of cutters in this week.

WELCOME VISITOR.—Mr. H. B. McLean, the hustling respresentative for THE POST, spent Tuesday of last week here. Hugh has made many friends in this part of the country, and is always as welcome a visitor as is the newspaper he does business for. He left by the evening train for Cobocconk. Call again, Hugh.

MR. EDITOR,—I notice whenever church notes, obituaries, etc., are reported from this quarter of the country, some partial correspondent takes care to hush up the good things that might interest the readers of our local bits of news. Last week I saw an account in one of our local papers of the death of Norman McDonald, an old resident of Glengarry, who was visiting his four sons—prominent men on the canal—and who was interred in the R. C. cemetery on Monday, Nov. 30th. The correspondent wrote as if the funeral proceeded directly from the house to the cemetery. This is not the way funerals are conducted here. It proceeded to the Church of Our Lady, at Victoria Road, where requiem mass was sung by the pastor and a select choir procured for the occasion. This was followed by one of the most earnest and eloquent sermons ever delivered in the Church of Our Lady. The rev. gentleman, who is at all times a pleasing and able speaker, riveted the attention of a church full of all creeds and nationalities. In fact a pin might be heard falling as he portrayed in glowing language the pre-eminence of the sacrifice of the new law over all the sacrifices of the old law, or Jewish dispensation, which he said the scriptures characterized as "empty and beggarly affairs." Perhaps the most interesting part of the discourse was the clear, logical and intelligent way in which he handled and explained the word "transubstantiation," which simply meant the change of one substance into another, and which change is seen in the woods, in the grass, and in nature every day. The bread we eat, does it not become our flesh and blood? It was contended that sacrifice was the very essence of religion from the beginning of the world, and that the sacrifice of the mass, which Christ instituted on the eve of Good Friday, was to last to the consummation of time. As the large funeral wended its way to the cemetery remarks in the churchyard could be heard as follows: "That was a good speech." "How did that sermon catch you?" "The best I ever heard," etc. It may be remarked that Mr. Norman McDonald had reached the patriarchial age of four score and two years.—Yours,

SPECTATOR.

Winter's Knocking at Your Door

GOUGH BROS. TO THE RESCUE OF THE POOR MAN

With bigger and better values than ever were known in the Annals of the Clothing Trade of the country.

—Fear not, for we'll stand by you—

Good people of Lindsay, here we are on the threshold of Winter just opening up in earnest the Fall Trade of Fine Ready-Made Clothing, Hats and Caps and Gents' Furnishings. This is the Fifth Fall here for us, and as we look back how proud we feel of the success that has crowned our efforts in revolutionizing the Clothing Trade of the County. GOUGH BROS. in their fight against High Prices won in a canter, won in the first round, won because right always will win. Now don't go away imbued with the idea that we are satisfied with laurels won and contented to lie on our oars, so to speak—No, No—we're not built that way. When we started this business we stated candidly that we were after the whole trade of the community. Well, we got our share, our envious competitors think —yes, know that we got some of their share, but old-fashioned ideas aren't gotten rid of in a day, and they can't see that the true secret of our success is not getting as much as you can from your customers, but giving as much as you possibly can do for the money. The good old "golden rule" is a good friend to stand by whether in business or otherwise. In it is contained the very essence of our business methods. We've got the only complete stock of Clothing in Lindsay, and with Clothing associate everything that men wear. We're not green at our business, for to-day GOUGH BROS stand alone and supreme as the most successful Clothiers in Canada. Far and near our name has spread, until there's not a place within one hundred miles where the name of GOUGH is not known, and the people who know swell the voice of the multitude with our ancient battle-cry "Always Good at Gough's."
