TIDE | PROFIT IN COLD STORAGE FRUIT. Shipment by Str. Kastaba Shows That New Methods Are Preferable.

London, Nov. 29.—(Telegram cable.)—A cargo of fruit from Canada arrived by the steamer Kastaba to-day. Mr. Crandall, the Canadian Government agent, has made a close study of Canadian fruit shipments, and made many valuable suggestions as to the proper mode of packing, etc. The cargo which arrived to-day by steamer Kastaba was packed and shipped under conditions recommended by Mr. Crandall. The result was in every way satisfatory and encouraging to those who have predicted favorable results from proper methods of transportation. Mr. Crandall's inspection of the shipment makes it very clear that cargoes arriving by a system of cold storage, such as the Kastaba's, will meet with marked preference in the Britpresence of the Governor-General the part ish market.
