THE MUNICIPAL ELECTION POT.

Contents are Simmering, but the Boiling Point has not yet been Reached. Many are the rumors in circulation concerning the men likely to offer their services to the ratepayers as a crew for next year's municipal ship, but it is impossible to state anything definite. For the mayoralty we have heard the names of Messrs. John McSweyn, Dr. Herriman Horse Brushes, Curry Combs James Keith, W. M. Robson and J. H. Sootheran mentioned, and it is just possible that Mr. R. Smyth, the present incumbent, may be induced to remain in the field, as his friends claim that his record would warrant a third term. The name of Mr. F. C. Taylor has also been advanced by some of our live business men, but with small hope of his consenting to run unless asked to do so through the medium of a strongly-signed require

It is generally understood that Reeve Touchburn will be a candidate for his present position, and may possibly have to face his old opponent from the east ward, Capt. Crandell, who is being importuned to offer, but who is content to rest on the laurels gained in the past. One thing seems to be certain—Reeve Touchburn will have opposition from some content. sition from some quarter.

Mr. E P. Gillogly, first deputy reeve, has not yet declared his intentions, but some of his friends say he is in the field to stay, and that he will be content with reelection to his present office. Couns. Horn and Pedlar have both been mentioned for the deputy-reeveships, and may yet be prevailed upon to offer themselves.

The friends of Mr. W. M. Robson, who are connecting his name with the mayor-alty, claim that he has long and ably served the town in the various offices, and is justly entitled to promotion to the chief magistracy. We are not in a position to say what are Mr. Robson's views, but we feel certain he would give way to the Some new men are talked of for councillors, and in the east ward a public meeting will likely be called to talk matters over. In the south ward Couns, Burrows and Baldwin are being approached to offer again, but in the north ward it is said that Coup. Graham wishes to retire. If so, and Coun. Horn or Cour. Pedlar consents Bay your Caristmas goods at the Oak | to run for one of the reeveshipe, there will

LADIES and GENTLEMEN:

Some of our old customers were of the opinion we had left Lindsay when we could not be found in the Old Stand. It is not the case—we are still in Lindsay, and expect to live and die here; we want no better Town or better Country surrounding it. We moved from the old stand to the well-known Dry Goods Store Opposite the Post Office, where Milne & Graham had so successful a business; later on the stand was occupied by P. McArthur & Co. The store has been renovated throughout, making it the best lighted and most up-to-date business premises in Lindsay.

Our Motto was when we started and is to-day: Good Goods, Cash, Small Profits and Quick Returns. One Price to Everybody." The child served as well as the mother. All Goods Guaranteed to be as Represented. We claim to sell the best goods for the least money of any store in Lindsay.

We cordially invite you to call and see for yourself; if Goods and Prices do not suit you, you are not forced to buy.

Our Christmas Goods are choice, seasonable, and useful articles of all kinds.
