TERMS $1.00 PER YEAR PAYABLE IN ADVANCE

J. Sutcliffe & Sons.

Half the pleasure of Christmas lies in the getting ready - in anticipation of the joys to be added to the recipients of our thoughtfulness. For these surprises

Men's Extra Quelity Kid lined Gloves, assorted tan shades, Very special, 50c pr

Handsome assortment, in all the new shapes, Flowing Ends, Puffs, Four in-hand, Knots, Bows, etc.

Men's Overcoat Scarfs -- we told you about these before. If you want handsome gift for a gentleman see these, one-third less than regular value. An opportunity.

86.00 Dress Patterns for 85.00

Bric-a-brac and many useful presents on centre table, worth your while to see them -they are choice.

J. SUTCLIFFE & SONS.

Thos. Brady

Said One of our Rich Lindsay Men to a well known laboring man recently: "I would give half of my wealth for just half of your appetite." He meant it.

We stand ready to guarantee that every person who buys Groceries here will be blessed with healthy appetites, because our Goods are perfectly fresh, Deleterious changes take place in some lines of Provisions if left too long on the shelves. Our Goods are just out of the wholesaler's hands.

In the lines of Christmas Groceries we have a superior stock and invite the careful inspection of housekeepers, who will find both Goods and prices right. A call solicited.

THOS. BRADY

One Door East of Benson House.

WHATELE BARRANGE BARR

G. A. Little. CHRISTMAS IS COMING.

In great variety Bibles, Poets, Jewel Cases, Toilet Cases, Necktie Cases, Travelling Cases, Photo Frames.

Christmas Cards, Booklets,

Calendars.

Book and Stationery Store

G. P. Muliett

Small

Christmas.

Make your selections now. We will put any article aside for you until you want it. You have a much better choice now than if you wait until the rush.

mosson Upposite the Post Office. J. P. M PF18

-THACHER OF-

VOCAL AND THEORY Is prepared to receive pupils at his residence,

50 CAMBRIDGE-ST.

G. T. R.

FOR CHRISTMAS and NEW YEAR HOLIDAYS, 1898-99

Will issue Return Tickets between All stations in Canada : From all stations in Canada to Detroit and Port Huron. From all stations in Canads, to but not from, Buffalo, Black Rock, Suspension Bridge a d Niagara Falls, N. Y. From Detroit and Pt, Huron to stations in Canada, but not east of Hamilton and Caufield Jct. on lines to Buffalo.

GENERAL PUBLIC: SINGLE FIRST CLASS FARE, going Dac, 24th not later than Dec. 27th, 1898 ; slso on Dec. 31st, Jan. 1st and 2nd, tickets good returning from desti- his dough until he has eight 'cases.' the first time in history that a man nation not later than sav. or , towe. SINGLE FIRST CLASS FARE AND ONE-THIRD going Dec. 23rd, 21th and 25th, returning from des ination not later than Dec. 28th, 1893; also on Dec 30th and 31st and Jan. 1st, good returning from wants her to care fer her. "An," says ful eyes were looking the thanks which destination not later than Jan. 4th, 1899.

Crab. drawin hisself up like a man, the faithful little heart felt towards TEACHERS AND PUPILS on surrender "I'll pay yer wot yer tinks is right Rob's benefactor.

Single Fare and One-Third, going Dec. 10th loidy. "Yes, I'll pay," says Crab, an whose house Nellie lived, that the pay yer right, too." "W'ere yer get child was incurable and that she herpay yer right, too." "Earn it," self did everything possible for her child was incurable and that she herentation of certificate:

| Commence of the commence of t Between all stations in Canada, Single OrdiNARY Face from Dec. 17th to 26th inclusive, good to return from distination not later than Jan. 4th, 1899.

Says de Crab. How says de woman.
Welfare, and I believed her to speak truly. The child's face bore evidence says de Crab." "Husselin' poipers and shinin' shoes," truly. The child's face bore evidence says de Crab." "How much does yer of sweet contentment with her lot, and Tickets and all information from any Agent of want a week ter take me sister an look resignation to her affliction, which after her?" Well, ye see, mister dis should cause the flush of the content with her lot, and resignation to her affliction, which after her?" Well, ye see, mister dis should cause the flush of the content with her lot, and resignation to her affliction, which after her?" Town Agt, "Why," she says, I kin do it fer two case her hypocondriacal sisters whose sole ! A. M. PATON,

A TALE OF CITY LIFE.

WRITTEN F. R THE LINDSAY POST

Night was drawing her great dark mantle over the city, and the crowds of tired and weary toilers were hurrying home from their labors in the than he in reality was. This gamin was known to the familiars in Newsboys' Alley as "as Crab" on account of his diminutive size, and the weazened exfor Christman pression of his countenance. The juvenile news dealers of city had a certain amount of respect,aye with some, even reverence,-for prices. - to their little fellow "newsy," and were you fortunate enough to grow confidential with one of them you might learn the following history of "Crab's"

"RING OUT, YE MERRY BELLS!"

DING out, ye merry bells! Welcome, bright icicles!

Welcome him back from the snow peak and plain,

Think, then, ye rich, whilst your tables are spread,

Wealth has its duties now, Christians you will allow,

Think of those wretched ones, Poverty's stricken sons,

Ring out, ye merry bells ! ring till your music swells

Out o'er the mountain, and far on the Main :

Ring till those cheerless ones eatch up your merry tones,

Singing, "Come Christmas, again and again,"

Could be de the state of the st kid is only eight years old, ye see, I say-no! happy Crab!-happier far mister. Say, aint I gettin' nothin' fer than the chronicler of your history.

standing here spieling ter yer like dis! | Supper over, he pushed his chair back tellin' yer, de Crab's fader was wan of his voice shook with emotion, "Say, him up an' dey trows him into de booby . " Dat I'm goin'to buy dese tings outen lyns is de razzles-de snakes - de sat Nellie. I gazed at the child, lost ups and croaks. Well, de cops buries senses by a voice which I heard saying nor fadders. Dey wuz dere for a good ter yer. Say, talk about McKinly and cent, an' one fine day, wen' nobody compared with this guy-he's a prince, aint no pipe, neider. I think yere a one who is good to him is good to me

Alley, and de gang takes a shine ter lady teacher before the gaze of the him, an' nex' day dey gives him a out- whole class. The child-a tot of six fit, poipers and blacking kit, and starts | years of age-speaking to me and look-aint a mug on de corners as kin hussel ing more a young woman three or four poipers like de Crab. I'm pretty smooth times her age that a tiny tot of six meself, but Crab has me beaten ten painful summers-I was tongue-bound ways from de deuce. Dats faro talk, ye and could find no words to express ter know, and tells her he wants ter words of a child-I felt giddy and bash-fer her keep." "You'll pay,' says de | 1 learned from the good woman in

On arising he wanted to run away to Nellie, but I detained him and told him I was going out to see Nellie with him. He could scarcely believe it, but We boarded a south-bound car an soon arrived at Thirteenth street. Crab darted into a store and, peering in some sweetmeats, I went in and offered to pay, but he waved me aside with the gesture of a queen and informed me

ing at me, with words and look becom-myself other than a stumbling 'oh, was overwhelmed with joy.

have turkey and stuff for him ter eat (an honest to gosh, mister, dey hardly ever had a ting on account of de way the old man boozed every cent away), he ran at de Crab's mudder, an' after trowing de baby (Nellie, you know) on de floor, he beat her mudder

Nellie's two little ankles were broke.

Say, Hully Chee! I'd like to had a crack at dat ole greezer! I'd ha' stove in a couple of his slats, all right all right.

him in bizness for hisself. Say, dere

Well, de cops comes along and wakes death wid a stove poker. Poor

Weeping whilst children are asking for bread.

Blithe as a child at play, keeping his holiday,

Welcome, old holly-crowned Christmas again !

a week, but I dont tink yer could pay and only object in life is to slowly pois-dat much." "Hully chee" says Crab, on themselves trying every new cure-"two case! I kin give yer t'ree weeks all which happens to mention the spec-now ahead, and it will be a cinch ter ial ills, pains or aches, which exist only pay dat amount." So he gives de woman six cold plunks fer Neilie's keep (wat yer say—"Jarnal?" here yer go—tanks). Well, de woman an Crab goes out and de loidy makes a spiel as how ter take little Nellie ter her house and or since have I spent such a pleasant know us kids dont eat no supper!" was his. panied me to a large restaurant, but to visit him and Nellie again.

wot can't git back at yer?" "I am not dear old America I was sitting last people whose yearly incomes do not at the foot of the throne, and would appearance of being a great deal older fooling. Crab. I am in earnest; evening thinking over the events of reach a certain amount; when city have melted the heart of one even more come along and we will have a feast." the past two years, when suddenly More stupefied than ever he accom- thought of Crab, and made up my mind other to afford the most pleasant re- of Fame. Joan of Arc, Helen of Troy, us kids eat-wot'll dem swell guys in the bright urchin of two years ago. give you de horse laugh" ."Let them laugh, my boy," I rep lied, "I don't care laugh, my boy," I rep lied, "I don't care strong man though I look, I laid down and besides, no one will laugh at us."

I he ded institution, with adjacent lands, across the border; and last but not least, fair Canada, who made a strong and profitable employment, health and claim for "Our Lady of the Snows." my paper and cried like a child. This recreation, that a city or town cannot The Goddess of Fame after reviewing Well, after coaxing him thus I finally was the item: "As No. 1 Battalion of otherwise give .- Yours truly, the Fire Department was responding to a 4-11 alarm from the box at Jack son and Moore streets last evening, a newsboy-Robert Alpin by name, but better known to the habitues of Newsboys alley as "Crab"-tried to pass in front of the flying horses hitched to the fire engine. He was knocked down and run over by the ponderous machine and when picked up life was extinct The remains were taken to Gilston's morgue to await the corner's inquest

Poor Crab! Poor little chap! Such was his end, and truly a sad end. He had sold his papers and was tearing body; don't forget the dates -dw away to see his little Nellie when run down and killed. Doubtless the poor little chap's mind was filled with thoughts of the little sister waiting for him, and in crossing the road he did not notice the approaching engine.
Poor Crab! So ended a short life. To those who hurried by him each evening his papers, but to one tender, faithful little heart, it was a death blow. All the sweetness and hope in her young life had gone forth when they told her of "Rob's" sudden demise, and as she nestled in my arms that night she told me she, too, wanted to die, so that she might be with Rob once more. I comlife from his first appearance in News- got him in to a table and the poor forted the little sufferer as best I boys' Alley to the time of recounting. urchin was simply dazzled at the splen-My informant told me that "Dat Crab | dour of the service and the richness | protector for life, and as I perform my wus wan of de bes' kids wot ever hus- of the repast set before us. However, self-imposed duty and render my stewseled a poiper or shined a shoe." On he soon found his appetite, and to have ardship may an all-watchful and allasking further details I was given this seen him devour course after course seeing Providence reward or condemn asking further details I was given this as it was set before him would do you me. The newspaper publishers buried like dis-Crab's a right guy and dare good and would bring to the eyes of a the body, and over the grave erected a aint no wan as says different. He's got stone man almost a "mist which rises tombstone in the form of a broken aint no wan as says different. He sgot at the families of the latter of the form of a broken shall be a little lame sister wot had bof her ankles busted wen she was a kid so's she can't walk a step now. De Crab fancy as I saw you then two years she can't walk a step now. De Crab fancy as I saw you then two years to mistories in the form of a broken shaft, engraved as follows: "Robert Alpin, Died December 24th, 189—, aged 10 years. Erected by his fellow News-hussles de daily poipers and shines ago to-night, with eyes aglow with shoes to make enough dough to keep pleasure and hands working rapidly Nellie, (dat's his sister's name), and de from plate to mouth. Poor Crab i did Chicago, Nov. 2nd, 1898.

Wot! a dime! Thanks-I tought yer and was about to say some grateful looked like a swell de minute I lamped word when suddenly his eyes yer in the doorway. Well, as I was | filled with tears and he said, while The frost is on the window pane, dem old geezers dat was always soaked | Mister, I wish to gosh Nellie had been The frost gleams on the trees : wit booze, and wan night he came home | here to get some of this feed." Here We children talk of frozen rains wit a bigger load than usual an' be- was my chance, and on drawing him And reins that never freezecause he tought Crab's mudder should out with a question as to Nellie, he told And we give a mighty cheerfriend had earlier in the evening.

Then list for the tread of the fur-clad Of the Man who drives the Deer.

He lives away in the great Snowland, In regions across the seas: In regions ruled by the Fur-Clad Hands Yet his Deer they never freeze,through a window, I saw him buying They never, never freeze, my sweet, In that land so cold and drear, And he never cries for the want of heat The Man who drives the Deer.

hatch, but, yer see, he'd had so much ter | me own coin." I purchased a goodly He visits the children away up there At his home, in Christmastide, drink all his life dat he goes off inter the 'Brooklynboys'-wot, yer don't know wot de Brooklyns is? Well yer Romer's - Nellie's home. Arriving the air

He crosses the ocean widea 'lobster' sure, (in disgust at my ignor- there, we entered a modest little cot- the crosses the ocean wide, ance of his expression) why der Brok- tage, and there, propped up in a chair. The ocean wide, so wide, my sweet, tage, and there, propped up in a chair. In the night with never a fear, blues - de delerious tremenduous- in admiration of the leauty of her sweet For music a patter of tiny feet-The Man who drives the Deer.

See? Well, old Alpin gets de Brook- face, upon which was a calm look of lyns an' afore dey has a chance ter, resignation and peace. I was aroused swing him fer murderin' his wife he from my wonder and brought to my He com s in the night with his tiny sled And visits us while we dream, de bot' of dem' and den dey puts Crab | "Nellie, here's de gent wot was so good And the pate moon smiles up overhead And the love-stars laugh and gleam, and Nellie in a Orfling House way out ter me and buys me poipers an' gives on de Sout' side w'ere dere is a whole me a feed like I was Mark Hanna er The love-stars laugh and gleam, my lot more kids wot aint got no mudders some of dem guys, and den comes out aint looking he screws over de fence and hikes down town to de Alley. Wots hikes? Say yer a dead one, an' dat Rob is all I have and I feel that anyburns,-And ah, the children are laughing so, con. man-aint yer? No! On de also." I looked at the child and must square? Well, hikes is a new one for confess I felt like a great big school-

The dream-gods laughing here, while and Crab dont cotton to it wot a dem swells, but deys all real flushies | So we never hear the patter of feet, Nor the Man who drives the Deer.

> At home, or far, or near, In the biting frost, or the burning heat The Man who drives the Deer. And now the frost is on the pane,

> The leaves have left the trees, And the chipmunk eats his stolen grain In his nest, lest he should freeze. In his nest, lest he should freeze, my Well, de Crab is thinking about Nell- that's ail right, Nellie, anyone else ie all de time, ye know, an' he saves all would do it,-it's nothing." This is not And we list, but never hear, The patter of his fur-clad feet-Den he goes up ter a woman as he us- has been abashed and confused by the take Nellie outen de Orfling House an' ful before that child, whose great soul-

The old gray bell in the old gray tower, Is ringing so gladly across the town, And the red, red dawn, like a shaken can still enjoy coasting in the moon-

Oh the light of the sacred morn, Christ was born! Oh the sweet of the winter air.

COMMUNICATIONS.

The House of Refuge. (To the Editor of The Post.)

ter take little Nellie ter her house and look after her, and de guys out at de Orfling House is glad to get rid of her, so de loidy takes her home and looks after her, and de Crab goes out ter see her every night wen he's troo wit his evenin' poipers; de woman lives out on Tirteenth street someweres: Ratal all I know mister, so I must be off! "Poipers!" echoed down the street as he darted away in search of customers for his products

I stood watching Crab for a few minutes, and finally decided to have a chat with the little man. Approaching him with the little man with the

W. M. ROBSON.

(Correspondence of The Posta) mission only 15c and 10c. Come every- proves of the choice of the fair Goddess

CAMBRAY.

(Correspondence to The Post.) Rev. T. Snowden, pastor of the Meth- ary object was charity, and how well odist church, Cambray, announces a it has fulfilled its purpose the crowded union tea meeting of the Cambray cir-cuit of the Methodist church to be given in the basement of the Cambray Methodist church on Monday, Janu-citizens, who have met in cordial reary 2nd. A fine program has been ar- ! !ations and formed closer acquaintances ranged, and the choir will be assisted | than they would have had not such an by C. E. Weeks, of Woodville, and J. event taken place. To the Rev. Mr. P. Cunnings, of Oakwood. Revs. Geo. Macmillan is due the credit of its suc-Brown, of Cannington, and R. H. cess, as it was entirely owing to his un-

PINEDALE. (Correspondence to The Post.) Mr. Waddell, had the misfortune tw weeks ago to break his shoulder blade

THE MAN WHO DRIVES THE DEER

D. Gavin Campbe'l,

That never, never freezs, my sweet,

Where'er that Love-man turns!

walks. De Crab comes along inter de boy who is about to be punished by a Where'er that Love-man turns, my

The Man who drives the Deer. Christmas Bells

Scatters the Christmas glory down.

When it's Christmas, Christmas everywhere.

Sir,-I was pleased to notice the most convincing proofs of genuine sympathy and unanimity of feeling manifested at the adjourned meeting held on Mon-

HARTLEY-ELDON. The Hartley Methodist church an niversary is coming off next Sunday of the people with -- a power for good and Monday, Dec. 18th and 19th. Rev. or evil, both for time and eternity. W. B. Tucker, B.A. B.D., Manilla, will Queen Victoria, true to her gentle charpreach, on Sunday, at 2.30 and 7 p.m. acter, does not disdain to grace the On Monday night Revs. J. R. Butler scene with her presence. Escorted by and G. Ross, Dalrymple, will speak. a bodyguard of veterans, who have seen Duetts, solos, recitations, etc., will make up an excellent program. Ad- pears, and with well chosen words ap-

Berlins Brenner

Leitch, of Fenelon Falls, will give ad-dresses. Tea with cold meats will be happy climax. served. A large turnout is expected.

but is progressing favorably.

Miss Bertha Sonley, who has been ill for some time, is now convalescent. the Pinedale and Royal Oak schools. The Rev. Mr. Oke, of Goodwood preached here last Sunday. The service is to be especially for the hildren next Sunday. Mr. Robert Brabason intends remodeling his barns next summer.

PALESTINE.

(Correspondence to The Post.) and patrons of the Palestine Cheese Factory will be held in the Palestine Marie Antoniette Miss Steers school house on Tuesday, 27th day Christine Nilsson... ... Miss Ella Gross of Dec., commencing at 1 p.m., for the | Frances Willard .. Miss Mabel Sharpe purpose of settling the financial af- Jeptha's Daughter. Miss M. McAlpine fairs of the business. An opportunity Bridget O'Flannigan ... Miss A. Duffus will be given both to those holding Maggie Mucklepacket (Scotch fish up. If the necessary stock be not sub- Mother Goose, Miss Muffet and Georgie scribed a vote of the shareholders will be taken on an offer to be made by Mr. Wm. Warren, our present cheesemaker, on the purchasing and operating of said business. A full representation of Martha Washington Miss N. Cathro both shareholders and patrons is re- Josiah Allan's Wife ... Mrs. O'Loughin quested as the voice of this meeting will Hypatia Miss Mimms

VICTORIA ROAD. (Correspondence to The Post.) What is the matter with the farmers? No apples in town and it so near Christ-secretary.-w.1

after enjoying an extended visit with Helen Hunt Jackson friends in Jarvis. Magwood who has been under the doc- The mother and children ... Mrs. Koyle tor's care for some time, is recovering Queen Victoria and guards Mrs. C. and we hope will soon be as bright as Do not fail to come and see the Christ- Heralds ...

mas sleigh, which will be one of the many pleasing features of the enter- Pages Masters tainment to be held in the Methodist church on Monday, Dec. 26th. The sleigh will be iaden with good things for the children and other older folk, and a real Santa Claus will be there to distribute the gifts. A good program is being prepared and a lively time is

The S. O. T. met on Wednesday as usual and a very enjoyable evening was spent. The members turned out in recitation, Miss M. Lytle; song, Mr. Knight, and Malcolm McPhadden, were A. Magwood; reading, Miss K. Caver- nominated, but resigned. J. Haggarth; song, Miss Helps. A. C. Graham's toboggan-slide has week, not only by the children, but McQuade, David Walker and Jas. Robalso by a number of our ladies and gentlemen, who are pleased to note

-Reduced fares from all over signed of the day when the dear Lord Canada to Old students' Re union No. 5, Fenelon, Laxton, Digby and J. in Lindsay on Dec. 29th Ask your station agent for standard certificates.-d5.

AT THE ACADEMY ON TUESDAY

A Brilliant Spectacular Event-The Pourtrayed - Large Attendance of

recipients of our thoughtfulness. For these surprises of life and weary tolers were hurrying home from their labors in the
to be found in this store,

LADIES'
LADIES' LADIES'
LADIES'
LAGIoves, 22-feek fastener
Very special, 750-py
Ladies' Black or Colored
Kid Gloves, 22-feek fastener
Very special, 750-py
Ladies' Black or Colored
Kid Gloves, 25-feek fastener
Very special, 750-py
Ladies' Black or Colored
Kid Gloves, two lock fastener, every pair guaranteed
Rid Gloves, two lock fastener, every pair guaranteed Shows and shopp in the most densely crowded of the many great throughfares in the heart summer of the same of the sufferings of the many special for many days tieved an weary tolers were hurrying home from their labors in the tieved an weary tolers afternoon I residue and accomplishing to find that at the intention to open a work of the many special for many days tieved an mean at the color of the life of a purpose of the same proceeded to have aching the text and fall life or colored
kid Gloves, 22-feek fastener
very pair guaranteed
Kid Gloves, two lock fastener, every pair guaranteed Shows and shopp of trom his special to part the sufferings of the many great throughfares in the heart summer of the summary great throughfares in the summary great throughfares in the heart summary great through throughfares and summary great through fare great through the gaily decked windows of the great through throughfares and accomplishing work such as a midel for France, I sent Miss Romer and Shopp and proved but little attraction to entire the noiled was been engaged in the pirrant of the summary great through fares through through through through through t sent for wife or daughter, and good time to bay. Prices to bay are decreased to bay are decrease sorts and necessary institutions for the Harriet Beecher Stowe, Francis Wilat the door he hung back: "Say, mister, I have seen Crab again, but what a comfort and convenience of the people lard, Jeptha's daughter, Miriam and le's go around to Joe's in de Alley were change! What a different Crab than -surely the residents of the county of her daughters; daughters of Scotland, Victoria will feel the influence, Ireland, France, who gave to the world dere tink if dey see you coming in ter On picking up my morning paper al- meet their obligations, and consent that famous artist. Rosa Bonheur; chew with a ragged kid like me; dey'll most the first item which came under cheerfully to establish the above much- daughters from our verile neighbor all the merits of her subjects, very justly placed the crown on the head of the Mother, for not only in the dominions of fame, but in the home the world over, does the mother remain Queen. She it is who shapes the destinies of nations and moulds the hearts and wills active service in her armies, she ap-The costumes were very rich and beautiful, and the whole formed a tableau not soon to be forgotten. This entertainment in the opinion of the writer, has had a power for good im a two-fold sense of the word. Its prim-

Cast of Characters. Goddess of Fame ... Mrs. (Dr.) McAlpine Canada Miss McDonald Queen of Sheba Mrs. Gough Elizabeth Barrett Browning Mrs. J. Parnell Morris

Isabella, Queen of Spain..... Elizabeth, Queen of England... Miss Patterson and Miss Pinkham Grace Darling... Miss Wier have been re-engaged as teachers of Jenny Lind Miss Corkery Barbara Freitchie Miss Prior Helen of Troy Miss Scott Tabitha Primrose Miss Stevenson Portia... ... Miss Kelly Joan of Arc Miss Hillock.

Mary Queen of Scots...Mrs. (Dr.) Clarke A Sister of Charity... ... Miss Annie Watson Harriet Beecher Stowe and Topsy ... E. Armour and Master W. Dingle

Cleopatra Mrs. Sutcliffe A special meeting of the shareholders Mrs. Partington and Ike Miss L. Taylor and Mr. F. Manning

Porgie... Miss Bowes Miss Ray and Master G. Harrington Rosa Bonheur Miss E. Knowlson decide this matter. DON. BROWN. Miriam and her maidens... Miss Silver and Misses Walters, Benson,

Hughes, Henderson, Goodwin, Allen, M. Touchburn, K. Rankin Laura Secord Miss Bowen Fiora McDonald Miss Ligget Florence Nightingale and guards ... Miss C. Robertson and Messrs. C. Henderson and C. Sutherland

Miss Nora Armour has returned A 20th Century Girl ... Mrs. Edwards We are pleased to learn that Mr. H. Mme Patti Miss Russell Stuckert, Col. Deacon Sgt-Major

J. S. Mclean and B. McAlpine Ross Stewart and Wilfred Allen

There Will be Spirited Contests. Following we give the nominations for county council held Monday in the respective divisions: No. 1, Mariposa-William Channon, goodly numbers. A good program was James Glass, George Johnston, Edwin rendered which was as follows: Trio, Mark, W. H. McCrimmon and Frederick Miss Caverly, Miss Magwood and Mar- Shaver. Messrs. David King, William lin Caverly; reading, Miss Magwood; Jordan, William Parkinson, Charles ly; song, Miss Magwood; reading, Mr. No. 2, Lindsay and West Ops-Messrs. Bryans and Graham, by acciamation. No. 3, East Ops, Emily and village of been well patronized during the last Omemee-Messrs. W. C. Switzer, T. H.

> No. 4, Verulam, Bobcaygeon and Somerville - Messrs. John Austin, James Lewis and Morgan Johns; Waren Lithgow was nominated, but re-

A. Ellis, elected by acclamation. No. 6, Eldon-Messrs. Wm. Cameron, A. E. Staback and Dr. Wood.