

“Whip Behind”

I leaned from out my two-pair back— The afternoon was mild— A cab passed by, and on its track— A little dirty child.

MISCELLANEOUS.

FREEDOM in sins leads to slavery in sorrow. Why are reporters like thieves?— Because they take notes.

LET every man be occupied, and occupied in the highest employment of which his nature is capable, and die with the consciousness that he has done his best.— Sydney Smith.

BEFORE God and man, before the church and the world, I impeach Intemperance. I charge it with the murder of innumerable souls.

IS a village in Michigan, a man, not a native of the country, built a fine structure, gave to the village a ten-years' lease of the second story, free, and furnished, at his own cost, the nucleus of a library, reading-room, and art-gallery.

SINCE I am in anecdotal humour, I may as well mention a characteristic and creditable incident that occurred to Lord Dufferin before he came to Canada, or thought of becoming a Governor.

OUR EXCHANGES.

THE Bright Side is a good paper for children. Published at Chicago, Illinois, U. S.

“DIED, in Tallbotton, Georgia, U. S., December 25, 1872, of Pure Bad Luck, The Weekly American, cut off in the prime of life.”

MESSRS. ADAM, STEPHENSON & Co., of Toronto, so we learn from the Canadian Monthly, are about to publish Dr. Punshon's lectures and a few admirer-sermons in a handsome volume.

“The Science of Health for January—The first Number of the second volume, and filled with practical suggestions. Only 20cts; or, $2 a year. Address, S. R. Wells, Publisher, 389 Broadway, New York.

WHITNEY'S MUSICAL GUEST always contains not only good music but good reading. With the January number the Guest enters upon its sixth volume, and the publisher announces new and varied attractions. W. W. Whitney, Toledo, Ohio.

THAT favourite home magazine, the New Dominion Monthly, for January, has been received. The staff of contributors is fully maintained, and we hope this year to see its prosperity very much improved.

Mr. GEORGE E. DESBARATS, the enterprising Montreal Publisher has changed the shape and general characteristics of the Hearsthouse, and given it a new title—The Favourite.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE for January, 1873, was early on our table. It contains two pretty steel engravings “Cherry Ripe” and “The Initials on the Tree.”

WITHOUT a rival in its own peculiar sphere, the Phenological Journal occupies the whole field of “the proper study of mankind,” so as not to leave room for even an imitator.

THE Canadian Monthly and National Review enters upon the new year and its third volume with encouraging prospects. It promises to be the most permanent, as it certainly is the best, literary periodical ever issued in Canada.

PRESSURE of other matter has prevented us from noticing sooner the Prospectus of a work about to be issued by Mr. Stanislaus Drapeau, of the Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

It is reported in South Ontario that Mr. Gibbs has received the appointment of Financial Minister, vice Sir Francis Hincks resigned, and that he is preparing for his re-election before making the fact public.

How dangerous to defer those momentous reformations which the conscience is solemnly preaching to the heart. If they are neglected, the difficulty and indisposition are increasing every month; the mind receding, degree after degree, from the warm and hopeful zone, till at last it will enter the arctic circle, and become fixed in relentless and eternal ice.

Prove that our Instruments in the opinion of competent judges are incomparably superior to all others.

Sole Proprietors and Manufacturers of the “ORGANETTE,” Containing Scribner's Patent Qualifying Tubes, acknowledged by all to be the greatest improvement yet introduced.

Their superiority is conceded by other makers from the fact that at Guelph they withdrew from competition, thus acknowledging their inability to compete with them.

Every instrument fully warranted for five years. Send for catalogue containing fifty different styles of instruments.
