P. MURRAY

THE EXPOSITOR.

OB DEPARTMENT. All orders for Job Printing executed in superior style and at moderate prices. Work done, for cash, when promised or no charge.

ADVERTISING RATES:
oches 2 olumn 3 olumn 5	00	$2 50 5 00 7 50 12 00	6mos 84 00 7 00 12 00 25 00 35 60	$6 00 10 00 20 00 35 00

VOLUME IV., NO. 168.

t bis

made a use

g, in and

and nish

nion

S!

1 4

ORILLIA, ONT., CANADA, THURSDAY, JANUARY 23, 1873.

Professional Cards.

FRANK EVANS, BARRISTER, AT-TORNEY-AT-LAW, Solicitor in Chaneary, Conveyancer, Notary Public, Commis-MONEY TO LEND. OFFICE-Next door to the "Orillia House, or at his residence, after office hours.

DDGAR, FENTON & CORBOULD, Barristers and Attorneys-at-Law, Solicibers in Chancery, Conveyancers, &c. OFFER-In Masonie Buildings, Mississaga St.,

J. D. EDGAR F. FENTON, G. E. CORBOULD.

CAMUELS. ROBINSON, SOLICITOR, and Notary Public for the Dominion Bank. Orillia. Conveyancer, &c. Money Lent.-Commissioner for taking Affidavits. OFFICE Over new Dominion Bank, Orillia

J. ALPORT, Accountant, Arbitra-1. tor, Valuator, Land, Insurance and General Agent, Orillia, Ont. Orricz-Masonic Buildings.

N.B.-Rents and debts collected. Orillia, June 5th, 1872.

TR. WM. BROWN, Provincial Land YI Surveyor, and Mr. Arthur G. Robinson. formerly Government Civil Engineer and Architect, have opened an office at Orillia, All orders to be left at S. S. Robinson's Law

TRED. J. R. GRANT, CONVEY-ANCER, &c., &c. Valuator for the Canada Permanent Building Society, Orillia, Ont.

W. ARMSTRONG, (Successor to A. Fowlie. P. L. S.) Provincial Land Surveyor, Draughtsman Civil Engineer and Architect, Valuator, Land and General Agent. Maps compiled. Disput-ed Lines carefully adjusted. OFFICE-Next door to the "Orillia House." formerly occupied by A. Fowlie. All Orders by mail will receive prompt atten-tion.—Address, Box 57, ORILLIA, P. O. 125.

1) J. OUGH, M. D., L. Member of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ont., (Graduate of Victoria University,) Physician, Surgeon, and Accoucheur, Beaverton, Ont. Office-Beaverton Dispensary.

H. LAWRENCE,

VETERINARY SURGEON, DEGS to inform the inhabitants of Oril-D lia and vicinity, that he has settled in Orillia, for the practice of his profession, and that he will be happy at all times to attend to 2:20 p.m., connecting with the G. T. R., East any case for which his services may be required. Orillia, Aug. 10th, 1871.

MARD. C. H. BOSANKO, L. D. S., visits Orillia regularly on the 16th, 17th and 18th of each month. Good sets of Teeth at $15.00. Office, at Dr. Sanderson's. N.B.-A good opening for a student.

Business Eards.

Stables! MATCHEDASH STREET.

WM. JACKSON, - PROPRIETOR.

Barrie, July 23rd, 1872.

HORSES

AND GOOD CONVEYANCES. Bequiire at any of the Hetels.

ORILLIA TANNERY

WEST ST., ORILLIA. LEATHER OF ALL KINDS.

SHOEMAKERS' FINDINGS, &c., ALWAYS ON HAND. Cash paid for Hides, Kip and Calf Skins, and

200 Cords Hemlock Bark wanted imme diately, for which the highest price in cash will S. WAINWRIGHT,

Proprietor TO EVERY FARMER

O. H. LYON.

Agent for the Oakville Nurseries, will be at Mr. J. D. O'BRIEN'S STORE, every Saturday, to receive orders for &c., &c.

Be sure to sall and give him your Orillia, Dec. 3rd, 1872.

THE ONTARIO TEMPLAR.

Subscription, one Dellar a year.

Office, Louisa Street, Toronte. OPECIMENS SENT FREE ON APPLI-CATION. Temperance men are requested to aid in extending the circulation and useful ness of this paper. The "Ontario Templar" is filled with useful and interesting items to Templars and temperance people generally, and should be liberally supported by all who wish good success to the stal abstinence cause .- "Temple of Honor."

ORILLIA SAUSAGE FACTORY T. MAUNDRELL, - Proprietor, Is prepared to supply all orders, wholesale or retail, on the shortest notice.

Remember his old, stand next door to Berry's Oyster Saloon, Peter St., Orillia, Dan. 465, 1689.

As he has the largest facilities for manufac-

SILVER CREEK MILL! NORTH ORILLYA.

LUMBER AND SCANTLING FOR SALE. BENNER & SONS May 3th, 1872.

THE Montreal Telegraph Co., Vicker's Express Co.,

Provincial Insurance Co., And General Agency,

REMOVED .

To the building lately occupied by the DOMINION BANK, CORNER OF Mississaga and Peter Streets, where every attention will be paid to business entrusted to

J. WHITE, Orillia, Dec. 19, 1872.

DOMINION BANK. Corner of Mississaga and Peter Streets.

OLD and American Currency, drafts on New York, Bills of Exchange, and

United States currency, bought and sold, Drafts issued on all points in Canada. Interest will be allowed, at the rate of four per cent. per annum, on Special Deposits remaining three months. Special arrangements can be made for moneys remaining over that time.

A SAVINGS BANK DEPARTMENT has been opened, for the accommodation of mechanics and parties wishing to deposit small amounts. Deposits taken in this Department of one dollar and upwards, upon which interest will be allowed, payable half yearly. Office hours, 10 a.m. till 3 p.m. Saturdays, 10 a.m. till 1 p.m. H. S. SCADDING, 161-tf.

MIDLAND RAILWAY. The customary

WINTER ALTERATION! of the time table of the Midland Railway is now in force, the Express leaving Beaverton for Port Hope, Lindsay and Peterborough, at

10th of December. on special application, freight will be brought through from

PORT HOPE TO ORILLIA!

On and after the 1st of January, 1873, TRAINS WILL RUN REGULARLY between Orillia and Port Hope and Peterboro', connecting with the Nipissing, at Woodville, to and from Toronto, and the G-T. R. East and West, when a fresh time table will be announced. D. E. BOULTON,

GEO. WAINMAN.

(Successor to T. Boyd,)

Shaving, Hair-Dressing, AND SHAMPOOING SALOON. Mississaga St., Orillia, a few doors east of the "Albion Hotel."

DOOMS fitted up in first-class style, and every attention paid to the comfert of customers. Having had a long experience in his business, and secured the services of a that it is discouraging to have a boy swal- tress home. He was disappointed, it was come with me, and hand out your money occupancy of the dwellings built centuries family must put all the furniture into the

GEORGE WAINMAN. Orillia, December 17th, 1872,

THE ORILLIA

Shaving and Hair Cutting Saleon (Established 1870.)

HAIRDRESSER.

Near the new Dominion Bank, Mississaga St.,

GIVE HIM A CALL, If you want a good Shave. Hair Cut, or Sham-Fruit and Ornamental Trees, Shrubs, poo, &c., with Cleanliness, Comfort and Dispatch. A very large assortment of Pipes, Razors, Combs, Brushes; &c., &c., kept in stock.

Pomades, Oils, &c., prepared by GEORGE MEAD

NEW

Publisher., BOOT AND SHOE SHOI

MISSISSAGA ST., ORILLIA.

THE subscriber wishes to inform the inhabitants of Orillia and the public generally that he has opened a New Boot and Shoe Shop, was ready to help and encourage him. and hopes by strict attention to business, using | Sisters, do all you can to make the home nothing but the best material, and employing such a cheerful, delightful place, and your-

age. "Brither Scots" should give him a call. A. RALSTON MORONTO

CUSTOM turing sausages north of Toronto, country Boot & Shoe Store

PETER ST., ORILLIA.

JAS. SHANAHAN, - PROPRIETOR. Superior workmanship done at the lewest possible prices for cash. J. SHANAHAN.

Che Some Fireside.

ACROSTIC

Dying! yes, the year is dving. Ever onward Time is flying; Coursing down life's rapid tide, Every year we onward glide; Months and years are quickly pass'd By and by will come our last: Ever may we watch and pray, Ready for the final day.

OUR DAILY BREAD

Contributed to THE EXPOSITOR, by J. Lawson JANUARY 15. What wilt thou that I shall do unto thee ?-Luke, XIII., 41. Open my eyes that I may see My wretchedness and misery; Saviour, to me this blessing give, That I may look to Thee and live. JANUARY 16.

According to your faith be it unto you. -Mat. IX., 29; Have faith in God and thou shalt see For never will He hide His face From them that trust His saving grace. attending court, which was in session in JANUARY 17. Watch and pray that ye enter not into temptation. - Matt., xxvI., 41. Help me, O Lord, to watch and pray, Against all sin to guard, That I may serve Thee every day, Till called to my reward: JANUARY 18.

I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me. -Phil., Iv., 13. Though helpless, weak and vile I am, And nothing good can do, I trust alone in Jesu's name.

And thus my strength renew; In Him I find sustaining grace, And thus do all things to His praise. JANUARY 19. I myself will awake early .- Psalms,

And now, while from my bed of sleep Irise, And bow to pay my morning sacrifice, Lord, take away each worldly thought and

That I may worship Thee in secret prayer;

And may Thy Holy Spirit's aid be given, That I in spirit may commune with Heaven. JANKABY 2001; Not slothful in spirit; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord. -Romans, xn., 11. May I with hands and heart, O Lord,

My duty every day fulfill-And thus obey Thy Holy Word, And do my blessed Master's will. JANUARY 21. Resist the devil, and he will flee from on. -James, 1v., 7.

With prayer resist the devil. And he will from you flee, For nothing that is evil With prayer keeps company.

Those Brothers. little, perhaps that is too moderate a word; great deal, for I know very well how tor- after, and be with you about ten.' menting boys are oftentimes, and how they put one's patience to the severest leave Trust here with us, and I shall feel | knife again. proofs. But, after all, there is nothing easier.' and helping themselves to whatever there | mal's head, and said: with his mouth full of meat and potatoes, as his master bade him. did not half wash himself besides, grow by some of the neighbouring servants. tleman of the ... all. I don't know as there | ing the road, when the nurse calledis any reason why boys should not be as tractable and controlable as girls, but as | we will give the chickens theirs. a class they are not; and we must accept evenings without always accounting for | child, still eagerly watching the road. themselves, which their sisters would not think of doing or be allowed to do if they did think of it; and they won't get up in and ought not to be so. But I don'tknow any other way for sisters to help the matter than by uniform kindness and forbearance. If possible, never find fault with them, and let the sisters never miss a chance for commendation. It is surprising how a little judicious praise will set a boy thinking of his short comings, and planning how he may deserve more, Don't look at them when they are eating. It is very comforting to remember that boys do learn to eat properly when they have topped growing, and all the fault-finding in the world does not hasten the matter. I don't believe there is a boy in the world who would not be susceptible to the refin-come repulsive, - Christian Union. DURING one of his African campaigns, the late French Marshall Pelissier, whose passionate temper was well known to every on one occasion as as to strike his aide-de- or when I am ready to retire." camp with his riding-whip for wrongly "It was a glorious night; the moon flew home." executing his orders. Without a mo- shining se brightly that it was almost as ment's hesitation the young officer drew light as noonday. And as they sat on the first felt so ? asked Mary.

selves so good natured and obliging, that now seek amusement will lose their attraction, and a coarse, loud, fast girl be-many of the places where your brothers

A BRAVE LITTLE WOMAN. As the hall door closed, after the departure of a visitor of Mrs. Graham's, Nettie there is a dark hair in her head; and she has such an abundance of it, too!"

For THE EXPOSITER.

tell me all you can about her. Isn't she "As Trust, with continued growls, outlaw.

His saving power made known in thee; of her married life. Her husband being a lawyer, was necessarily much from home, the town oi-, fifteen miles from their home. Always going with him to the gate, and with a bright smile bidding him good-bye, Mary would watch her hus and ride off, to be absent two or three days, as his business was more or less pressing

"One memorable morning in the menth of August, Mary, with her babe in her arms, and another three year old clinging to her hand, followed to bid her husband good-bye. As she raised her face to hin, and put up her lips to give and receive his lety, and he asked: "What is it, dear? Something to say, and are not quite sure that it is not childrying you-that s, making you feel uneary | Shall I get the food? Mary answered, or sorry about leaving us, if I speak But, feigning a calmness in order to delay his ing this time than ever before,' she an- some relief swered, her eyes filling with tears. " Why, you are nervous, sure enough. What is the cause ? Tell me; love.' "'Oh, it is very foolish, no doubt. But last night, you know, we heard that Watt Wolf had escaped.

sure he will not linger in this neighourhood. He is probably out of the State ". Harry, you have forgotten he has vowed vengeance on every one who had anything to do with his conviction, and particularly you,' said Mary, in a tremu-"Ha, ha, ha! Why, little woman, for that very reason he will steer far away from here, thinking he would be expected. time, Cassie's speech returned. She got established between brother and sister, years. -St. John Telegraph. Rest easy. I'll come back to-night, as up, and approaching, said :you feel anxious.'

ence they might have over their brothers | thing. It is for you I am so frightened. by exercising a little self-control. I say a Do not come unless you can get off early.

gained by finding fault with them, for the "'All right! Here, Trust!' he called to next day after we have scolded and lec-tured them for prowling about the house he placed his wife's hand on the noble ani-out so. And you know that your husband in Amsterdam. Building ground is scarce, be preparing a meal, a malevolent hand lays beside him a dead dog or cat, he will im-thing again. I grant that it is provoking low! But Mary, I assure you, you have vants will be coming soon. Now look period of the Republic's zenith of pros- a gypsey feels his death pangs begin, he to have all the doors left open, and the no cause for alarm. Now, good bye.' atme, ladies! Watt Wolf!-bloody Watt, perity is not to be renewed often; thus asks to be carried into the open air; for if tracks of mud on the floor and carpet, and "Trust reluctantly followed his mis- at your service! Now, madam, you will generation in the it happens that he dies in his home, his a first-class hand, the subscriber guarantees low his food without chewing, show all very evident. But he was ever true to and jewellery. I'll get that before going ago. A family must therefore emigrate street-before they can carry out the corpse. he has in his mouth while eating, drink his name, and Mary felt that he would do further,' said the fiend, approaching and put in his food with his knife, or any way "The manifold duties of the day soon to get it in; it is discouraging, especially diverted her thoughts, and she grew busy if the boy is getting on in years, and quite and cheerful again. And so, forgetting the knlfe. And Cassie sprang to her side, disgusting to his more refined and delicate | the fears of the morning, she gave all the sister. But it is not positively wicked, servantr, wi'h the exception of one-the and I have known such a boy, a boy who | nurse-permission to attend a party given to be a great and geod man, and behave "The babe was sleeping sweetly, and as well among civilized people as any gen- little Harry sitting on the piazza, watch-"Come, Harry, get your supper; and

" No; Harry's looking for papa. Harthe fact and govern our deportment to- ry wants papa to come. Something hurt you say? Quick. ward them accordingly. They will be out | mamma if papa don't come! answered the "Little Harry had heard the conversation of the morning and it had evidently the morning when they ought to; like When his mother heard his reply all the made a deep impression on his mind enough they are lazy, and perhaps they alarm she had felt came back with resmoke and won't study. It is an unplea- doubled force, and she began to regret sant state of things to say the least of it, that she had not urged her husband to get excused from his engagement, and return home early in the evening. "Little Harry continued calling for his papa,' and Mary grew every moment more miserable. Suddenly a wild thought entered her mind. "Oh, why could not her husband hear the call? Perhaps be might. The infant's borne on the breeze to his ear, would surely bring him home. Glancing at the clock, she saw it was just seven. If he would only start just now, he would reach home by nine, she thought.' "Call papa, Harry, and mother will ask God to send him home to us,' she said. And as little Harry's lisping tones floated out on the night wind, his mother's fervent prayer ascended to heaven. "Thou who knowest all things, direct him. Send him home to us, or stay his footsteps, whichever seems best in Thy sight,' she prayed. "Still watching and waiting, little Harry sat until his eyes grew weary, and mur-muring, 'papa coming!' his head drooped and he sank to sleep on the door-step. "Gently taking him up and placing him on the scfa, Mary said to the nurse: " Do not disturb him. We will wake one of his soldiers, so far forgot himself and undress him when his father comes, calling on me. And, Sport, too, seemed you what you ask."

ing with a very fine water-melon, and when a low growl from Trust caused both presentiments; but on faith and prayer count of all the new vessels registered at Mary and the nurse to look anxiously she did. It was quite natural for her to the Port of St. John for the year ending they beheld emerging from behind a clus- God's answer to her prayer." ter of lilac bushes a huge dark figure. "And was the dreadful m

"Furiously Trust barked then. And when the man, with quick and noiseless "Yes, Nettie; it does look odd, for one step, approached the house, the faithful And after some of the men returned, he shows the tonnage of new vessels registered so young—she is a little over thirty—to creature, with a bound, reached and went with them to hunt the faithful crea- here to have been 26,612 in 1870, and 27,-

"Trust, off, off, sir! Here! here! cried to the ground the terrible outlaw, almost cent over the year before. Some of these the work of longer years; aye, probably Mary. Terrified though she was, her the snows of seventy winters would not thoughts were swift and bright. Another "He was taken back to jail and aftera tiny woman? I've seen girls of twelve drew off and stationed himself behind his mistress, the dreaded man approached. How you rattle on, Nettie! Now keep quiet, and I will tell you all I know about appalled. There was no mistaking the before was of a raven hue, as you have and will be engaged in trading to and from them, and askedduce myself?

conceal her terror, and answered-"'I never saw you before, I suppose though, you are hungry, and want something to eat.' "Hungry! Yes, by ---, I am, and thirsty too!" And under his breath he muttered, 'Thirsty for revenge!' "I will get you something to eat Mary said starting to go in the house. "No; you are going to give the alarm. parting kiss, he for the first time noticed Oh, no, I know that you are alone-alone. that the sweet smile was wanting. On her ha! You can go. Your husband is off fair face rested an expression of great anx- for the night, and your servants all across the way to a party. " You are right. But why should be alarmed? I am glad, always, to feed ish, sh? Afraid of being laughed at? the hungry or help the needy. I never injured anyone in my life; and you will

"By one pretext and another she delayed placing the food before him until he demanded it quickly. "While he ate, his keen eyes were continually watching Mary and Cassie. Noticing one of the former's hand's were con-". Well, dear, if he has, you may be cealed, he said :knife! What are you going to do with it !" "Cut some melon. I was about to do it when you came up.' " Put it down now? he said, in a "She laid it on the table beside the "At length he had finished eating, and "'Have a viece of this melon? Can "'No, no, no! I would not have you cut some, please, ma'am?' she asked, I wonder if girls realize what an influ- come through the woods at night for any- turning to Mary, and looking with eyes which told so much then. "Certainly. Take some, and give only call upon him in the evenings."

"You remember my engagement will this man some. But wait; let me cut a As a rule, never do married children live it would hardly be too strong to say a keep me until eight. I will leave directly nice piece for Mr. Southern first," Mary under the same roof with their parents. "No, Harry, remain in town, and for one hope-to get possession of the in the contraction of marriage since they and no one will go out till the next mornthe other's intent.

will not come to eat that. And now I the house itself. Such extravagant exis to eat, they will go and do the same "'Take care of your mistress, old fel- have not much time to spare. The ser- penditures as were common at the third hill, from fear of witchcraft. As soon as putting out his hand to take hold of Mary. treating a step or two back, she held high "'Now, Trust! Brave Trust! Help us!" ', They stood, the three, before him. They would fight to the death, he knew: He must change his movements. Separate them, and then he would conquer. He drew forth a pistol, and pointing it to the pass pleasantly enough. They go outdoors sleeping boy, and said "Unless you do as I bid, I'll give that young one a long sleep. Now, what do "Hark! A sound reaches their ears. Near and nearer it comes!

" What's that ?' demanded the wretch. " 'My husband!' Mary returned, never for an instant removing her eyes from the outlaw. " You lie! he said, straining his ears hoofs coming near, very near. The clang of the yard gate confirmed her joy, and his dismay. "Fool! to have stopped so long! But this-to remember Watt Wolf by!' and he little head of Harry. "An agonizing cry, and Mary fell fainting to the floor, as the fiend rushed through the house and out the back way. Trust sprang after him. And Harry Southern, terrified by the report of the pistol, dashed in to find his wife lying apparently dead

"Cassie, in words scarcely intelligible from terror, made him understand what had happened. Little Harry was unhurt, but awakened by the report of the pistol, which his mother had struck upward at the instant Wolf had pulled the trigger, thus saving the child.

"Restoratives applied, Mary was soon sobbing with joy on her husband's bosom. "He told her that when he started to fulfil his engagement, he was irresistibly drawn homeward. So deeply was he impressed to hasten, that he could not even stop to send an excuse. "For,' he continued, 'I could continto have caught my humour, for he almost "What time was it, Harry, when you

"That was what Harry Southern said placed it, with a large knife before Mary. to his wife, and I will answer you with her "Scarce had she opened the melon, words. She said she knew but little about asked Nettie.

have so bleached her raven locks as we instant, and that sharp steel would reach see them now."

the faithful heart. She must save him while there was any hope, or until the lock of the faithful heart. She must save him instant, and that sharp steel would reach terward executed; having previously confessed his intention of completely desolating while there was any hope, or until the lock as we instant, and that sharp steel would reach the faithful heart. She must save him in every other calling, men by making undue has the been so? What while there was any hope, or until the lock as we instant, and that sharp steel would reach the faithful heart. She must save him in every other calling, men by making undue has the been so? What while there was any hope, or until the lock as we instant, and that sharp steel would reach the faithful heart. She must save him in every other calling, men by making undue has the been so? What while there was any hope, or until the lock as we instant, and that sharp steel would reach the faithful heart. She must save him in every other calling, men by making undue has the lock as we instant, and that sharp steel would reach the faithful heart. She must save him in every other calling, men by making undue has the lock as the lock as we instant and the lock as the loc country was delivered from the terrible involved themselves and others in trouble.

"With a fiendish leer he looked on | "No, not at all. I've heard her husband say to her, 'those silvery locks were portant industry, while the United States "Do you know me? Or shall I intro- a constant reminder of what a brave little press is constantly urging upon Congress wife he had.' And in his eyes, I am sure the necessity of doing something to foster "With a powerful effort Mary tried to she is far more beautiful than ever before that terrible night."

Dutch Life and Manners

The tyranny of social custom is the basis, as it is the bane, of Dutch life. Every one submits to it, and in his turn exercises it; the rich man in his own manner, the poor one in his. We remember a very characteristic case in point. Custom does not permit riding on horseback in the s reets of Amsterdam-a prohibition which doubtless sprung into existence from the ancient cleanliness of the towns, and which has always remained a tacit assumption if not a recognized fact. A young progressist philosopher endeavoured in our "'No, not that; but I am afraid of wor- not harm anyone who is kind to you. presence to disregard this prohibition. A saddle horse was brought, and he mounted amount registered as built there being it at the door of his father's house. 6,000 tons. King's County furnishes over oh! Harry. I do feel worse about your go- intent, whatever it might be, hoping for Hooting and hisses followed him to the 3,500; Albert Co. over 1,500; Queen's very outside of the city, and the children County nearly 1,000, and York County threw stones and sticks at the animal he 206. These figures will, of themselves. bestrode. On the next following days he serve to show how thoroughly maritime renewed his attempt with true Dutch our province is on the whole, a fact which phlegm, when the people again opposed will be still more strikingly presented him with the same perseverence. Crack- when the statistics of other ports become ers were exploded so often under the available. It should be remembered, too horses feet that the life of the rider was that this industry, great as it is, has grown "What are you hiding there? Ha! a endangered, and no one, neither the police up without having received any special nor public opinion, dared to intervene in | fostering care at the hands of the Legislahis behalf. His own father himself, quite | ture, save as to the admission of articles indifferent to the want of success attending used in shipbuilding. If we can point to his son's rashness, said as much to the such results under such a system, there is little occasion for indulging in gloomy effect that the Dutch people had only exercised their right in resisting innovation. forebodings for the future; enterprise and capital applied judiciously to our great with the family without an express invi- national resources will, doubtless, furnish pushed back his chair. Then, for the first | tation. The same sort of formali y is also | even more favorable statistics in future for they only visit each other on the footing of guests. We were one day praising to a Dutch lady the conservatory of a brother of hers who lived in the same city. "I have never seen it," she said, "as I and hence it is that the fathers of families forms a sufficient bond of security even though years may elapse before the marriage is celebrated. Until then the young people enjoy a freedom of social intercourse which suffices to make the time the side of Werter. Among the higher classes such liberty as this does not produce any evil consequences; with the lower, those which occassionally do result are tolerated and condoned by public opinion. Many good and honest tradesmen share the same dwelling with young women without exciting any reprobation. One may read every day in the newspapers advertisements like this : "Such a one, doing a prosperous business, desires a girl "Yes, it was the clatter of a horse's or young widow to look after the short and his household. If matters should go on well, marriage will follow. We were one day at a tradesman's shop, and said to the fair and buxom girl behind the counter: "Your husband, fired the pistol which he held covering the | madam, undertook to do so and so. "He is not my husband, sir." "Well your brother, miss." "Nor is he my brother, sir." "Well, what is he then my child?" She fixed her large candid blue eves upon us and said : "He is my betrothed, sir." We knew later on that in that circumscribed dwelling of the small shop-keeper type, those two young people > slight screen only .- Zell's Magazine. A TELEGRAM from London states that S. R. Graves, M. P., also died in London shared the same chamber, divided by a

"WHAT is the rent of your little apartment on the seventh floor?" queried a 000, the adoption of fast coaches having man of a Paris landlord, "Two thousand increased the postal revenue in that time francs." "Have you a stable as well ?" "You keep carriage, eh?" was the couner-question. "No, but it would be wantually hear-imagine, of course-Harry ed for a lodging for the ass who should pay you will report yourself under arrest for her mind by many amusing anecdotes.

If in T H B eight days, for carrying your arms in bad And after an hour and more spent so, she exclaimed Nettie. "They both had pre understand the fact by a few legal expe privileges of the strenge!"

and foot passengers should make them of life to have the privilege of an outside understand the fact by a few legal expe privileges of the strenge!"

and foot passengers should make them understand the fact by a few legal expe privileges of the strenge!"

and foot passengers should make them understand the fact by a few legal expe privileges of the strenge!"

and foot passengers should make them understand the fact by a few legal expe place carrying down the tidings of such

Shipbuilding in New Brunswick

TERMS: SI PER ANNUE

We published yesterday a tabulated acexclaimed:—
"Why, mamma, how very odd it is that shout. Nothing, however, could they see.

your friend, who looks so young and pretty, with such an exquisite complexion, and bright langthing eves, should have such should have s "And was the dreadful man caught ?" dustries, but one of the most valuable as well. It appears, moreover, to be steadily "Yes; Harry went out to call Trust. increasing, for while the appended abstract have such hair. Hers is one of those sprung upon the intruder. Another sestrange incidents that you have often heard of, and now have seen, where one hour of light.

Creature, with a bound, reached and sprung upon the intruder. Another semons, they found him, badly cut in several places, but still clutching and holding last year, and a little more than 40 per In the main, however, the shipbuilding "The next morning after that fearful New Brunswick is carried on in anything night, when Mary Southern looked in her | but a rash or risky manner. Most of the it."

Ten years ago, in Virginia, where the nearest neighbours lived at least a mile ber, the terror of the State, stood before them!

truth. Watt Wolf, the outlaw, the house breaker and burner, the murderer, the robinever cease worrying over it. Does she equivalent in the shape of imported goods. It is pleasing to be able to congratulate our province on the condition of this imshipbuilding south of the line. It should be remembered, too, that the list we have given includes only those vessels register-ed in St. John, and excludes those in the outlying ports of the province. It will be observed that three large ships and two barques have proceeded, or are about to proceed to England under passes from His Excellency, the Governor-General, Not the least interesting feature observable in the table is the very general way in which shipbuilding is distributed over the province. As might be expected, a very large proportion of the vessels, including more than one-half of all the tonnage registered here, were built in the County of St. John. Even these were by no means confined to one locality however. Westmoreland County comes next to Saint John, the

Gypsey's Fear of Death.

If a funeral procession happens to pass before their house, if 12 o'clock has not yet struck, the family will go out upon the threshold of the door, and say the usual prayers; but if it is afternoon they answered, her heart gaining strength again | Therefore some difficulty arises from them | make haste to shut the doors and windows. must first of all secure a home, and that is ing. The sight of a drop of blood draws "Both held knives then, and both knew not always an easy matter in many of from the gypsey horrible cries, as if he those semi-aquatic towns, more particularly were being assassinated. If, while he is or die out before another can take its place, In short, the dread they have of the dead is such that a corregidor of Cardova, wish-"'Stand back! cried she. And re- look out for a vacancy before marrying ing to rid the city of the gypseys of the their children. In the mean time the be- Sierra Morena, gave orders that they trothal takes place, which, under the guar- should be employed at interments. antee of honor and of Dutch sang froid, "Rather Robbers than grave diggers!" was the cry of the gypseys, and they all returned to their mountains.

> A HALIFAX despatch says Archbishop Connolly has caused a circular to be disand walk alone together, like Charlotte by tributed in all the Roman Catholic Churches exhorting his flock who sell liquor on Sunday to refrain from doing so hereafter.

An amusing anecdote is told of the late Horace Greeley, who was once met at a railway station by a red-face individual who shook him warmly by the hand. "I don't recognize you," said Mr. Greeley. "Why, yes, you must remember how we drank brandy and water together at a cer-tain place." This amused the bystanders, who knew Mr. Greeley's strong temperance principles. "Oh! I see," replied Mr. Greeley drily: "you drank the brandy and I drank the water." On another occasion the philosopher's wit silenced some of his office associates. Mr. Greeley had given an account of a wine dinner, and wrote that the party had indulged in Heidsieck and champagne, these both being names for the same kind of wine. His associates laughed heartily at his mistake, which they pointed out to him. "Did I write it so ?" said he, with a good-natured smile. "Well, I reckon I'm the only man in this office who could have made such a mistake."

THE tirst attempt to carry mails fast was made in England less than a century since. Mr. Palmer persuaded the government of Pitt to let him make the trial of fast the Right Hon. Bulwer Lytton died on coaches between London and Bristol. The Saturday, in the 67th year of his age. Mr. first one started on the 8th August, 1784. Slow to appreciate the talent of discoverers, it was twenty years afterwards that Parliament gave John Palmer's son £50. from £240,000 to a million and a half sterling. The glories of the old mail-coach are not so old therefore as some would think, though in these days unknown to men of middle age. It was whispered by A New York Judge said in a recent died of apoplexy from a speed of ten miles case, when three thousand dollars damages an hour being sustained between Bristol were awarded, "It is as much the duty of and London! Some of these may have his pistol from the holster and fired at the general. It flashed in the pan. Pelissier, who hadrecovered his equanimity, checked him by a gesture, and then said: "Sir, him by a gesture, and the said: "Sir, him by a gest the vehicle to keep out of the way of pe- lived to travel in an express train. De