

MISCELLANEOUS.

A Poorhouse and Hospital are to be established in the County of Wellington, somewhere between Flora and Fergus.

The printing office of the Courrier du Canada, at Quebec, was burned to the ground Monday night, with its contents.

The Messrs. Brosson, proprietors of the paper, though experiencing an almost ruinous loss, succeeded in getting the Courrier out not an hour behind the regular time of publication. This is a feat which has seldom been surpassed.

RAILWAY MEETING.—We are glad to learn that a meeting of gentlemen interested in the line of railway from some point on the Midland Railway to Babeyagon on the country north of it, took place on Thursday last, when matters of interest connected with the scheme were discussed.

DEATH OF MR. D. BRAND.—On Thursday morning last the household of Mr. Daniel Brand became alarmed at his non-appearance at breakfast at the usual time, and upon entering his room found him lying, with his clothes on, dead upon his bed, which had not been slept in during the night.

NORTHERN EXTENSION RAILWAYS COMPANY.—Pursuant to the provisions of the Act passed last session, the proprietors of the Toronto, Simcoe and Muskoka Junction Railway, and of the North Grey Railway, met yesterday as an amalgamated company, under the above title.
