

The Express

ORILLIA, ONT., CANADA, THURSDAY, MAY 29, 1873.

VOLUME IV, NO. 136.

TERMS: $1 PER ANNUM

Professional Cards.
FRANK EVANS, BARRISTER AT-LAW.
Solicitor, Conveyancer, Notary Public, Commissioner for taking Affidavits, &c.
MONEY TO LEND.
OFFICE—Next door to the "Orillia House," or at his residence, after office hours.

J. D. EDGAR, F. FENTON, G. E. CORBOULD.
BARRISTERS AND ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, Solicitors in Chancery, Conveyancers, &c.
Office—In Masonic Buildings, Mississauga St., Orillia.

SAMUEL S. ROBINSON, SOLICITOR,
and Notary Public for the Dominion Bank, Orillia. Conveyancer, &c. Money Lender. Commissioner for taking Affidavits, &c.
Office—Over new Dominion Bank, Orillia.

A. J. ALPORT, Accountant, Arbitrator, Valuator, Loan, Insurance and General Agent, Orillia, Ont.
Office—Masonic Buildings.

M. W. BROWN, Provincial Land Surveyor, and Mr. Arthur G. Robinson, formerly Government Civil Engineer, and formerly Agent, have opened an office at Orillia, Ontario.
All orders to be left at S. S. Robinson's Law Office.

F. W. ARMSTRONG, (Successor to A. Fowle, P. L. S.)
Provincial Land Surveyor, Draughtsman, Civil Engineer, and Architect. Maps compiled, Disputes and General Agency adjusted.
Office—Next door to the "Orillia House," formerly occupied by A. Fowle.

W. H. LAWRENCE, VETERINARY SURGEON.
BEGS to inform the inhabitants of Orillia and vicinity, that he has settled in Orillia, for the practice of his profession, and that he will be happy at all times to attend to any case for which his services may be required.
Orillia, Aug. 10th, 1871.

CARD.
C. H. BOSANKO, L. D. S.,
sets Orillia regularly on the 16th, 17th and 18th of each month.
Good sets of Teeth at $16.00.
Office, at Dr. Sanderson's.
N.B.—A good opening for a student.
Barrie, July 23rd, 1872.

Business Cards.
ORILLIA Livery Stables!
MATCHEDASH STREET.

WM. JACKSON, PROPRIETOR.
FAST HORSES
AND GOOD CONVEYANCES.
Enquire at any of the Hotels.

ORILLIA TANNERY!
WEST ST., ORILLIA.
LEATHER OF ALL KINDS,
SHOEMAKERS' FINDINGS, &c.,
ALWAYS ON HAND.
Cash paid for Hides, Kip and Calf Skins, and Sallow.

S. WAINWRIGHT, Proprietor.
STEAMBOAT & STAGE HOUSE,
GRAVENHURST.
DOUGLAS BROWN, PROPRIETOR.

BEAVERTON BRICK AND TILE YARD
The Subscriber is prepared to furnish any quantity of White and Red Brick, and any size of tile, at low prices. Orders by Mail will receive prompt attention.
GEORGE DRAKE,
20th May, 1872. Beaverton, P.O.

WYLD & DARLING, IMPORTERS AND WHOLESALE DEALERS IN
Cloths, Tweeds, Tailor's Trimmings, Gentlemen's Furnishings, &c.
13 Front St. West, (Late the "Iron Block.") TORONTO, ONT.

By Royal Authority!
A. S. GALBRAITH, AUCTIONEER.
OFFICE—House of all Nations. 171-1/2.

TORONTO CUSTOM Boot & Shoe Store!
PETER ST., ORILLIA.
JAS. SHANAHAN, PROPRIETOR.
Superior workmanship done at the lowest possible prices for cash.

WHITE LEAD!
We again call the attention of storekeepers, and the public generally, to our celebrated brand of this article.
REMEMBER that the best is always the cheapest, as it will cover more ground and wear the longest. The sure way to success.
Lyman's Brass Label Brand!
which for years has held the lead, and is so well known in Orillia as to require no recommendation from us.

For Sale in Orillia!
and vicinity, by all respectable Dealers. Wholesale, and to dealers only, by
LYMAN, SROTHERS & CO.,
181-Ga. Toronto.

TINDLE'S
DIETETIC
STABLES
(Opposite the Residence of James Sanson, Esq., Front Street, Orillia.)

GOOD HORSES!
Clean and respectable Vehicles.
HORSE BAZAAR.

THE Subscriber has opened a Bazaar for the purchase and sale of Horses, and will always have a large number of choice Parties wishing to sell or purchase Horses will do well to call and leave their commissions with him. He has also commenced the training of Colts, to which he would invite the attention of stock raisers.
R. TINDLE.

DOMINION BANK.
Corner of Mississauga and Peter Streets.
GOLD and American Currency, drafts on New York, Bills of Exchange, and United States currency, bought and sold. Drafts issued on all points in Canada. Interest will be allowed, at the rate of four per cent. per annum, on Special Deposits remaining three months. Special arrangements can be made for monies remaining over that time.

A SAVINGS BANK DEPARTMENT
has been opened, for the accommodation of mechanics and parties wishing to deposit small amounts. Deposits taken in this Department of one dollar and upwards, upon which interest will be allowed, payable half yearly.
Office hours, 10 a.m. till 3 p.m. Saturdays, 10 a.m. till 1 p.m.
H. S. SCADDING, Agent.
161-1/2.

GEO. WAINMAN,
(Successor to T. Boyd.)
Have given entire satisfaction where they have been used. They possess

Shaving, Hair-Dressing, AND SHAMPOOING SALOON,
Mississauga St., Orillia, a few doors east of the "Albion Hotel."

POOMS fitted up in first-class style, and every attention paid to the comfort of customers. Having had a long experience in his business, and secured the services of a first-class hand, the subscriber guarantees satisfaction.
GEORGE WAINMAN
Orillia, December 17th, 1872.

Orillia Fruit Depot
YOU CAN GET

A GOOD CUP OF TEA OR COFFEE.

DINNER for 15c.,
FROM 11 A. M., TILL 3 P. M.

REMEMBER THE PLACE.
MINTHORN'S BLOCK.

Best Bread in Town
Only 12 cents,
AT

T. DUNLOP'S
In Mr. D. McKinlay's building, on West Street, a few doors south of Colborne Street.

DUNLOP is determined to give his customers the benefit of the fall in the price of Flour, and has put down the full 4 lbs. loaf to 25 cents.
A nice assortment of Cakes, Pastry, and Confectionery suitable for this season, and all seasons.
Orillia, January 1st, 1872.

Montreal Telegraph Co., Vicker's Express Co., Canadian Express Co., And General Agency,
CORNER OF
Mississauga and Peter Streets

Every attention will be paid to business entrusted to
W. L. MILLER, AGENT.
Orillia, May 8, 1872.

KERMOTT'S Dyspepsia Powders!
(PATENTED)
Have been unparalleled in the cure of Dyspepsia, and general disorders of the Stomach and Bowels—persons who have been afflicted for years, and tried the various Physicians that came within their reach, without receiving any benefit, have been entirely cured by taking one Box of these Powders.

TESTIMONIALS!
Have been received from F. Kean, of Orillia; also from the Editor of Newmarket Era, and many others, corroborating the above statements concerning these Powders.

Price 25 Cents.
Enquire for them at the nearest drugists', if not procurable there send for them by post to Barrie.

$1 will Procure 5 Packages.
Prepared and For Sale, Wholesale, by
C. H. KERMOTT, DRUGGIST,
BARRIE, ONT.

KERMOTT'S Mandrake Pills!
Have given entire satisfaction where they have been used. They possess

NO MINERAL POISON
and are entirely vegetable. In obstinate cases of Dyspepsia the Pills should be taken with the Powders, full directions accompanying each box. In doses of one or two, they are alternative, in larger doses Cathartic and Ant-Bilious, always restoring the healthy function of the body. Those who have once used them will not consent to have any other kind whatever.

PRICE—25 CENTS PER BOX!
FOR TESTIMONIALS SEE PAMPHLETS!

Enquire for them at the nearest store where Medicines are kept; or send to Barrie for them. One dollar will procure two boxes of the Pills and three of the Powders.

For Sale by DR. SLAVEN, Orillia.
Prepared and for sale, Wholesale, by
C. H. KERMOTT, Chemist, Barrie, Ont.

LONDON & PARIS HOUSE.
WM. PERRET,
Mechanical Watchmaker and Jeweller, has much pleasure in announcing to the public, that he has opened a

New Jewellery Establishment!
in Hammond's Building, where will be found a

LARGE AND WELL-SELECTED STOCK of Gold and Silver Watches, Jewellery of every description, &c.

REPAIRING PROMPTLY DONE!
and

SATISFACTION GIVEN! or

MONEY REFUNDED.
NOTICE.
MIDLAND RAILWAY.
AN examination made of the track of this Railway, from Orillia to Beaverton, makes it imperatively necessary for me to cancel all passenger trains, over that part of the line at present. The utmost exertions will be used to put the track in order, and resume regular passenger trains at the earliest possible moment, of which due notice will be given.

The Company will continue to receive Freight, and give the same as prompt despatch as possible. An extension to this, however, will be made with perishable goods, which the Company can not, at present, receive.
ADOLPH HUGEL, President.
184-1/2m.
Port Hope, May 4, 1873.

SCHOOL TEACHER WANTED FOR
School Section No. 4, Range, with third-class certificate. Address, TRUSTEES, S. S. No. 4, Range, Severn Bridge Post Office, Port Hope, May 4th, 1873.

Pace & Main, MERCHANTS.
A FULL STOCK
—OF—
All Kinds of Goods
DRY GOODS,
GROCERIES,
CROCKERY, GLASSWARE, &c.

Parties in want of bargains can be accommodated by us, as

WE BUY FOR CASH
AND

SELL FOR CASH!
and thus effect a large saving.

Call and see for yourselves that we sell our Goods cheap.

PHILLIPS
HAMMOND'S STORE.
MISSISSAGUA STREET.

D. PHILLIPS
Being about to make

Extensive Alterations!
and additions in his business, has determined to sell his present stock at, and in some cases far below, cost prices.

All in want of bargains in Stores and Tinware, should

CALL EARLY!
Stock Complete!

COOKING STOVES, BOX AND PARLOUR STOVES, and an assortment of Shelf HARDWARE.

Now is your time to buy your Stoves and Stove-pipes, Copper, Tin, Sheet Iron, and Japan Ware, at prices that will astonish you.

A call will satisfy you that he is determined to sell at prices that cannot be beaten.

EVERYTHING done in a superior manner; and every description of work in his line manufactured to order on the shortest notice, and most reasonable terms.

D. PHILLIPS,
Orillia, 26th March, 1873.

NOTICE.
PARTIES having claims against this Company will please forward them, with the proper vouchers, directed to the Secretary of the Company, Joseph Gray, Esq., at the Head Office, Port Hope.

Where the Company has running accounts they are requested to be made up to the end of last month.
ADOLPH HUGEL, President.
184-1/2m.
Port Hope, May 4th, 1873.

TENDERS
Will be received at the Office of the Commissioner of Crown Lands, until Monday, 2nd June, Next,
For the construction of the following Roads in the District of Algoma:
BLACK BAY ROAD.
Leading from the Dawson Road at the Town-Plot of Prince Arthur's Landing, in a north-easterly direction to Black Bay on Lake Superior.

PIGEON RIVER ROAD.
Leading from the Town Plot of Fort William on the Kaministiquia River in a south-westerly direction to Pigeon River, to be built generally upon the line, as located by Hugh Wilson, Esq., P. L. S.

FORT WILLIAM ROAD.
Leading from the above named Dawson Road to the Town Plot of Fort William on the Kaministiquia River about 5 miles.

The first mentioned Road to be built on Departmental Specification No. 1; the second named according to Specification No. 2; and the last named upon a special Specification called No. 3.

The several Specifications can be seen and examined at the following places: The Crown Lands Office, Toronto; Offices of Prince Arthur's Landing, Hudson Bay Company, Fort William; Principal Offices in Collingwood, Barrie, Orillia, Owen Sound, and Strathroy.

Tenders may state either a specific sum per mile, or rates for the different kinds of work described in the Specifications. The Commissioner reserves the right of accepting any or none of the Tenders offered.

R. W. SCOTT, Commissioner.
Department of Crown Lands, Toronto, 8th April, 1872.

ORILLIA Gunsmith Shop!
A TALE OF THE SECOND STUART RISING.
(From Zell's Magazine.)

"Of all the persons in the manor—who were very numerous notwithstanding the owner's decayed fortunes—only one individual's presence displeased me. He was a relation and guest of Baderich, the only one, excepting Gilie, who was not a native of the manor. For I ought to mention here that the house of Hanover, in spite of the slumber of political passions, continued to carry out in the Highlands its system of military recruiting. The exercises which had lasted half a century, had shown that Scotland was an excellent nursery ground for rearing soldiers. But the Englishman, the veritable Englishman, is only warlike in a certain sense, that he is more of a politician than others, that honest John Bull, if he could fight while digesting his dinner in a comfortable arm-chair, with his feet on the fender, he would be courageous between his cigar and his nightcap of punch, but he only likes to travel on his business or for his pleasure. A country where the hunter sets to work gravely to procure the game brought in in a sack cannot furnish soldiers. John Bull, a great commercial lord, gains money while Paddy of Ireland and Sandy of Scotland win their battles. In my youth, few vigorous Highlanders were to be seen in the ranks of the army. The clan recruited only the old men who were of no further use and the children who were not yet grown enough to go out into the world."

Although Hamish Dhu, or Black James, was in the flower of his age, he made no exception to the rule. His presence at the clachan was only momentary, since he had to rejoin his regiment immediately after the conclusion of a certain affair which placed him on a very important footing in the manor of Baderich.

"He was also called the major," because he filled the grade of sergeant-major in the Argyle Highlanders (4th Scotch), who was a man of from thirty to thirty-five years of age, long-legged and solidly built, but terribly ill-favored, and remarkably vulgar in appearance. He sat hugely drunk like a fish, smoked like a furnace, and never addressed the old servants of the house without a whip in his hand. At table he related with his mouth full of deeds of a character calculated to excite the hair on the ends of the ears of his hearers. He was a steady, industrious young man."

LITHOGRAPH STONE.—Whilst on a visit to the newly opened section of country around Cobocoon, last week, we saw large quantities of stone that had been quarried a few miles from the village, and were informed that a large section of the country was abounding in the same. This is found to be a very superior kind of lithograph stone of the purest quality, equal to the best imported from the banks of the Danube, on the continent of Europe. The stone near Cobocoon is now being quarried and cut into proper sizes, and shipped to New York and other ports. This is a fortunate discovery and will prove a mine of wealth to the fortunate possessor. We understand that Mr. White, of Beaverton, is one of the parties engaged in the quarry. In connection with the above, we give the name of the proprietor, who has given the seller not knowing the valuable property he had in his hands, and even the use it could be put to.

MARY'S LAKE MISSION.—A Church of England Sunday School was opened at the residence of A. Sydney Smith, Esq., (Superintendent) in the village of Mary's Lake, on Easter Day. A good staff of Teachers, and about twenty scholars being present. The prospects of the school are most encouraging. A Chopping Bee, for the purpose of clearing the site for the Church of St. Andrew, was held on Easter Tuesday, when twenty-two persons gave their labour and felled the trees. The first of a series of "Penny Readings," in aid of the Church Building Fund, was given at the residence of Mr. Fancett, Mary's Lake, by Chas. Romhall, Esq., of Mary's Lake, the subjects selected being "Enoch Arden," and "Robin Hood." A numerous, attentive and appreciative audience assembled, and the excellent rendering of the subjects by Mr. Romhall, was highly commended.

"Uncle Enoch," I replied, "does not require a fencing-master. The major is not the man for a drawing room. I think he must have offended you by his rude observations."

"What hurt me, Gilie, was to see between you two—who are not only, as I know, brave as lions, but also modest and gentle like all real heroes—a sort of ridiculous little fellow, who I thought had died out along with the old comedies."

THE HOME FIRSID.
FOR THE EXPOSITOR.
PART FIRST.
"Farwell, my native land! adieu! Can I love for thee the sabbath? Although I leave thy hallowed shore My mind shall fondly linger. 'Twas thus a widowed mother spoke. As in her soul she felt a hope. To reach a shore with plenty spread, Where the suffering poor are fed. Her native home she fondly loved. A foreign home was to meet above. Was what she sought with anxious heart. By indigence compelled to part. From those which youth had taught to love, A foreign home was to meet above. She shed the burning, scalding tear, As throbb'd alternate hope and fear. 'Twas for her sake she left to roam In hope to find a western home. Their life, their fate she hers was bound; As thoughts of fortune went their round. Her wish in all her thoughts was found. When she in hopeful rapture found. A board as hers with plenty crown'd, And free and happy all around. 'Twas joy to see those blissful ties, Who caused her many anxious sighs. And ever finding a release From the restraint the long had borne, Never poor, dejected or forlorn; But a scene of plenty borne. Should find the charms of social love, When she had found her home above. Then on the past she cease'd to dwell, And hiding its gloom she hid from all. Many a sigh she must endure, That the future did not obscure, For in its darkness she saw Herself a subject to harsh law. From friends she should be severed part, Her scenes she cherished in her heart, To meet the stranger's careless glance Ere she should find a western manse; But hope lent its inspiring aid, And to her peace a tribune paid. EDWARD JOHN.

W. RUSSELL & DAVIDSON, Representing THOS. RUSSELL & SON, By Appointment, "Makers to the Queen." 175-1/2. LONDON AND LIVERPOOL.

THE BLACK WATCH.
A TALE OF THE SECOND STUART RISING.
(From Zell's Magazine.)
"Of all the persons in the manor—who were very numerous notwithstanding the owner's decayed fortunes—only one individual's presence displeased me. He was a relation and guest of Baderich, the only one, excepting Gilie, who was not a native of the manor. For I ought to mention here that the house of Hanover, in spite of the slumber of political passions, continued to carry out in the Highlands its system of military recruiting. The exercises which had lasted half a century, had shown that Scotland was an excellent nursery ground for rearing soldiers. But the Englishman, the veritable Englishman, is only warlike in a certain sense, that he is more of a politician than others, that honest John Bull, if he could fight while digesting his dinner in a comfortable arm-chair, with his feet on the fender, he would be courageous between his cigar and his nightcap of punch, but he only likes to travel on his business or for his pleasure. A country where the hunter sets to work gravely to procure the game brought in in a sack cannot furnish soldiers. John Bull, a great commercial lord, gains money while Paddy of Ireland and Sandy of Scotland win their battles. In my youth, few vigorous Highlanders were to be seen in the ranks of the army. The clan recruited only the old men who were of no further use and the children who were not yet grown enough to go out into the world."

Although Hamish Dhu, or Black James, was in the flower of his age, he made no exception to the rule. His presence at the clachan was only momentary, since he had to rejoin his regiment immediately after the conclusion of a certain affair which placed him on a very important footing in the manor of Baderich.

"He was also called the major," because he filled the grade of sergeant-major in the Argyle Highlanders (4th Scotch), who was a man of from thirty to thirty-five years of age, long-legged and solidly built, but terribly ill-favored, and remarkably vulgar in appearance. He sat hugely drunk like a fish, smoked like a furnace, and never addressed the old servants of the house without a whip in his hand. At table he related with his mouth full of deeds of a character calculated to excite the hair on the ends of the ears of his hearers. He was a steady, industrious young man."

LITHOGRAPH STONE.—Whilst on a visit to the newly opened section of country around Cobocoon, last week, we saw large quantities of stone that had been quarried a few miles from the village, and were informed that a large section of the country was abounding in the same. This is found to be a very superior kind of lithograph stone of the purest quality, equal to the best imported from the banks of the Danube, on the continent of Europe. The stone near Cobocoon is now being quarried and cut into proper sizes, and shipped to New York and other ports. This is a fortunate discovery and will prove a mine of wealth to the fortunate possessor. We understand that Mr. White, of Beaverton, is one of the parties engaged in the quarry. In connection with the above, we give the name of the proprietor, who has given the seller not knowing the valuable property he had in his hands, and even the use it could be put to.

MARY'S LAKE MISSION.—A Church of England Sunday School was opened at the residence of A. Sydney Smith, Esq., (Superintendent) in the village of Mary's Lake, on Easter Day. A good staff of Teachers, and about twenty scholars being present. The prospects of the school are most encouraging. A Chopping Bee, for the purpose of clearing the site for the Church of St. Andrew, was held on Easter Tuesday, when twenty-two persons gave their labour and felled the trees. The first of a series of "Penny Readings," in aid of the Church Building Fund, was given at the residence of Mr. Fancett, Mary's Lake, by Chas. Romhall, Esq., of Mary's Lake, the subjects selected being "Enoch Arden," and "Robin Hood." A numerous, attentive and appreciative audience assembled, and the excellent rendering of the subjects by Mr. Romhall, was highly commended.

"Uncle Enoch," I replied, "does not require a fencing-master. The major is not the man for a drawing room. I think he must have offended you by his rude observations."

"What hurt me, Gilie, was to see between you two—who are not only, as I know, brave as lions, but also modest and gentle like all real heroes—a sort of ridiculous little fellow, who I thought had died out along with the old comedies."

THE HOME FIRSID.
FOR THE EXPOSITOR.
PART FIRST.
"Farwell, my native land! adieu! Can I love for thee the sabbath? Although I leave thy hallowed shore My mind shall fondly linger. 'Twas thus a widowed mother spoke. As in her soul she felt a hope. To reach a shore with plenty spread, Where the suffering poor are fed. Her native home she fondly loved. A foreign home was to meet above. Was what she sought with anxious heart. By indigence compelled to part. From those which youth had taught to love, A foreign home was to meet above. She shed the burning, scalding tear, As throbb'd alternate hope and fear. 'Twas for her sake she left to roam In hope to find a western home. Their life, their fate she hers was bound; As thoughts of fortune went their round. Her wish in all her thoughts was found. When she in hopeful rapture found. A board as hers with plenty crown'd, And free and happy all around. 'Twas joy to see those blissful ties, Who caused her many anxious sighs. And ever finding a release From the restraint the long had borne, Never poor, dejected or forlorn; But a scene of plenty borne. Should find the charms of social love, When she had found her home above. Then on the past she cease'd to dwell, And hiding its gloom she hid from all. Many a sigh she must endure, That the future did not obscure, For in its darkness she saw Herself a subject to harsh law. From friends she should be severed part, Her scenes she cherished in her heart, To meet the stranger's careless glance Ere she should find a western manse; But hope lent its inspiring aid, And to her peace a tribune paid. EDWARD JOHN.

W. RUSSELL & DAVIDSON, Representing THOS. RUSSELL & SON, By Appointment, "Makers to the Queen." 175-1/2. LONDON AND LIVERPOOL.

See how well my wound is getting, my lad, said Gilie. That baln of the doctor's would mend it, but I'd like to see that poor Hamish Dhu, you should see him when he has his claymore in hand.
"I do not know why, but I have no confidence in it," I murmured.
"Gilie looked up with astonishment pictured in his large eyes."
"Have you never heard the story of his duel with Sir William Moore, West? I do not know why, but I have no confidence in it," I murmured.
"Gilie looked up with astonishment pictured in his large eyes."
"Have you never heard the story of his duel with Sir William Moore, West? I do not know why, but I have no confidence in it," I murmured.
"Gilie looked up with astonishment pictured in his large eyes."

See how well my wound is getting, my lad, said Gilie. That baln of the doctor's would mend it, but I'd like to see that poor Hamish Dhu, you should see him when he has his claymore in hand.
"I do not know why, but I have no confidence in it," I murmured.
"Gilie looked up with astonishment pictured in his large eyes."
"Have you never heard the story of his duel with Sir William Moore, West? I do not know why, but I have no confidence in it," I murmured.
"Gilie looked up with astonishment pictured in his large eyes."

See how well my wound is getting, my lad, said Gilie. That baln of the doctor's would mend it, but I'd like to see that poor Hamish Dhu, you should see him when he has his claymore in hand.
"I do not know why, but I have no confidence in it," I murmured.
"Gilie looked up with astonishment pictured in his large eyes."
"Have you never heard the story of his duel with Sir William Moore, West? I do not know why, but I have no confidence in it," I murmured.
"Gilie looked up with astonishment pictured in his large eyes."

See how well my wound is getting, my lad, said Gilie. That baln of the doctor's would mend it, but I'd like to see that poor Hamish Dhu, you should see him when he has his claymore in hand.
"I do not know why, but I have no confidence in it," I murmured.
"Gilie looked up with astonishment pictured in his large eyes."
"Have you never heard the story of his duel with Sir William Moore, West? I do not know why, but I have no confidence in it," I murmured.
"Gilie looked up with astonishment pictured in his large eyes."

See how well my wound is getting, my lad, said Gilie. That baln of the doctor's would mend it, but I'd like to see that poor Hamish Dhu, you should see him when he has his claymore in hand.
"I do not know why, but I have no confidence in it," I murmured.
"Gilie looked up with astonishment pictured in his large eyes."
"Have you never heard the story of his duel with Sir William Moore, West? I do not know why, but I have no confidence in it," I murmured.
"Gilie looked up with astonishment pictured in his large eyes."

See how well my wound is getting, my lad, said Gilie. That baln of the doctor's would mend it, but I'd like to see that poor Hamish Dhu, you should see him when he has his claymore in hand.
"I do not know why, but I have no confidence in it," I murmured.
"Gilie looked up with astonishment pictured in his large eyes."
"Have you never heard the story of his duel with Sir William Moore, West? I do not know why, but I have no confidence in it," I murmured.
"Gilie looked up with astonishment pictured in his large eyes."

See how well my wound is getting, my lad, said Gilie. That baln of the doctor's would mend it, but I'd like to see that poor Hamish Dhu, you should see him when he has his claymore in hand.
"I do not know why, but I have no confidence in it," I murmured.
"Gilie looked up with astonishment pictured in his large eyes."
"Have you never heard the story of his duel with Sir William Moore, West? I do not know why, but I have no confidence in it," I murmured.
"Gilie looked up with astonishment pictured in his large eyes."

See how well my wound is getting, my lad, said Gilie. That baln of the doctor's would mend it, but I'd like to see that poor Hamish Dhu, you should see him when he has his claymore in hand.
"I do not know why, but I have no confidence in it," I murmured.
"Gilie looked up with astonishment pictured in his large eyes."
"Have you never heard the story of his duel with Sir William Moore, West? I do not know why, but I have no confidence in it," I murmured.
"Gilie looked up with astonishment pictured in his large eyes."

See how well my wound is getting, my lad, said Gilie. That baln of the doctor's would mend it, but I'd like to see that poor Hamish Dhu, you should see him when he has his claymore in hand.
"I do not know why, but I have no confidence in it," I murmured.
"Gilie looked up with astonishment pictured in his large eyes."
"Have you never heard the story of his duel with Sir William Moore, West? I do not know why, but I have no confidence in it," I murmured.
"Gilie looked up with astonishment pictured in his large eyes."

See how well my wound is getting, my lad, said Gilie. That baln of the doctor's would mend it, but I'd like to see that poor Hamish Dhu, you should see him when he has his claymore in hand.
"I do not know why, but I have no confidence in it," I murmured.
"Gilie looked up with astonishment pictured in his large eyes."
"Have you never heard the story of his duel with Sir William Moore, West? I do not know why, but I have no confidence in it," I murmured.
"Gilie looked up with astonishment pictured in his large eyes."

See how well my wound is getting, my lad, said Gilie. That baln of the doctor's would mend it, but I'd like to see that poor Hamish Dhu, you should see him when he has his claymore in hand.
"I do not know why, but I have no confidence in it," I murmured.
"Gilie looked up with astonishment pictured in his large eyes."
"Have you never heard the story of his duel with Sir William Moore, West? I do not know why, but I have no confidence in it," I murmured.
"Gilie looked up with astonishment pictured in his large eyes."

See how well my wound is getting, my lad, said Gilie. That baln of the doctor's would mend it, but I'd like to see that poor Hamish Dhu, you should see him when he has his claymore in hand.
"I do not know why, but I have no confidence in it," I murmured.
"Gilie looked up with astonishment pictured in his large eyes."
"Have you never heard the story of his duel with Sir William Moore, West? I do not know why, but I have no confidence in it," I murmured.
"Gilie looked up with astonishment pictured in his large eyes."

See how well my wound is getting, my lad, said Gilie. That baln of the doctor's would mend it, but I'd like to see that poor Hamish Dhu, you should see him when he has his claymore in hand.
"I do not know why, but I have no confidence in it," I murmured.
"Gilie looked up with astonishment pictured in his large eyes."
"Have you never heard the story of his duel with Sir William Moore, West? I do not know why, but I have no confidence in it," I murmured.
"Gilie looked up with astonishment pictured in his large eyes."

See how well my wound is getting, my lad, said Gilie. That baln of the doctor's would mend it, but I'd like to see that poor Hamish Dhu, you should see him when he has his claymore in hand.
"I do not know why, but I have no confidence in it," I murmured.
"