ORILLIA, 12th JUNE, 1873.

EXECUTION OF CARTRUTHERS. Yesterday the first execution in this County took place, in Barrie. The particulars of the crime for which the unfortunate man Cartruthers suffered the extreme penalty of the law must still be fresh in the memory of the majority of our readers. He murdered his wife in a most brutal manner, while under the influence of that ever-active agent of the devil, WINE.

(By Special Telegram.) BARRIE, 11th June.—Cartruthers was hanged for the murder of his wife at seven o'clock this morning. The execution was strictly private, the tolling of the bell being the only intimation those outside received of the sad duty being performed by the officers of Justice within the goal walls. The prisoner walked to the scaffold with a firm step, and unconcerned manner. He did not struggle long, life being apparently extinct in eight minutes from the fall of the drop. There was a large crowd on the neighbouring high ground, and other positions of vantage, but very few of them could obtain even a glimpse of what was going on in the goal yard.

THE Court of Appeal has given Stokes a new trial, on the ground that certain evidence was kept back from the jury.

THE Conference of the New-Conversion Methodist Church, at present in session at Danville, adopted a report recommending union with the Wesleyan Church.

ALEXANDRA PALACE, on Muswell Hill, at the north of London, was destroyed by fire last Monday. This magnificent structure was only completed last formally opened a few weeks since.

AN exchange says that at last we are promised a release from the annoying potato bug. It has been discovered that the bugs are being slowly but surely killed by parasites. These little insects literally cover the bugs, and fairly eat them up.

A CONFLAGRATION broke out in a timber yard in Dublin on Monday, and a large crowd, bent upon robbery, attacked the firemen and a detachment of soldiers who were present to preserve order. The troops charged the mob and wounded many of the thieves.

THE much vaunted "moderation" that drinkers always make such parade about is the greatest for temperance links to contentedness. Drunkenness cannot be produced without moderate drinking, and drunkenness will never be stopped while moderate drinking continues. And yet thousands contend that "true temperance" means drinking in moderation.

SEVERAL of the Modoc prisoners, warriors and women, were taken down from their escort, and shot down in cold blood, it is supposed by the Oregon volunteers. The party papers denounce the massacre in unmeasured terms. It is little wonder that untutored savages who have to deal with these Americans are goaded by the cruelty and cheatery imposed upon them, to occasional acts of shocking retaliation.

DESPITE all the evils resulting from the mismanagement of affairs by the Dominion Government, Manitoba is progressing favorably, and its future grows brighter each day. Its period of rapid growth and prosperity is close at hand; and we hope those in the older provinces who are anxious for a change will turn their attention to our own North Western Province rather than to the last favored, but better puff'd, Western States.

SEASONABLE.—We have reached the sunny days of June. Months of cold and storm have passed over us, cold rains have saturated us, and gloomy skies hung over us with scarce ever a silver lining to any cloud since last October. We have cloud since last October. We have cloud since last October. We have cloud since last October.

PICKING POTATO BUGS forms part of the regular morning duties of our gardeners. There appears to be considerable complaint of the potato bug, but he is trifling with the largest average quantity of the pests.

CANNOT some arrangement be made to have a sprinkler for our streets this summer? The cost of keeping one running during dusty days would be but trifling, and it would divide among the many firms in town.

ONE of the greatest inconveniences to the traveler is the "guide books" which are made up of scraps and scraps, and are so full of errors and omissions, that they are almost worthless. It is a pity that the publishers of these books do not employ more competent writers.

THAT dread scourge cholera is expected to visit our shores this summer, and we hope for the health, as well as the cleanliness of the town, that our people will let some of their energy go into the direction of cleaning up yards, streets and alleys, "as early as convenient."

LOCAL MATTERS.

ORO Council meets to-morrow. Our own street has and linen coats. Pro-nic parties can now be indulged in. Will Orillia celebrate Dominion Day? Be sure and attend the lecture this evening.

The money for improving the streets is being frittered away, and nothing done about those much needed sidewalks.

THE joint committee of the Good Templars and Sons of Temperance will meet at the Templars' Hall, next Monday evening.

It is said to see so many idle boys about the streets. Boys who grow up without schooling will never amount to anything in their lives.

Do not spend all your time in watching your neighbors. Every man should be satisfied enough to devote a few hours to his own business.

FAREWELL SERMON.—The Rev. Joshua Dyke will preach farewell sermons, in the Temperance Hall, next Sunday, at 11 a. m. and 6 p. m.

The members of the Orillia Brass Band tender their thanks to the merchants of this town for a liberal donation to the Band Fund last Saturday evening.

John Gray, of Orillia, who preached from the twenty-fifth Psalm, fourth verse, "Shew me Thy way, O Lord, and all Thy paths shall be straight." His position of the divine law, and the duties of repentance and prayer, formed an excellent discourse.

THERE is probably no species of mischief more unjustifiable than the injury done to our trees by the potato bug. We were told yesterday several fine trees being girdled, by some of our boys, and that they were doing so to get the potato bug, and that they were doing so to get the potato bug, and that they were doing so to get the potato bug.

THE DUST has been the most prevailing item in this town the past week. The shops, dwellings, clothing, and everything else, is covered with a fine dust, and it is said to be the cause of many of the ailments of the people.

A CORRECTION.—Mr. Humphries states that he is in error in saying that the "renewal stand" at the station, is the property of the company. It is the property of the company, and it is the property of the company, and it is the property of the company.
