The Times has quite an article about removing the Post Office, which, I think, ought to be attended to at once. There being no post master in the Village, every Tom, Dick and Harry is allowed to go to their boxes and take their papers out, although notice has been given not to do so. I saw, even last week, whilst in the store, a party go in and take his paper, and the next day another of his neighbours attempted to do the same, when the supposed P.M. shut his door against him and bolted it, as much as to say "you are not good enough for me." When favor is shown, no wonder things are lost. As for Mr. Gow making a speculation of money affairs out of it, that is out of the question, or else J. T. Kirkpatrick would have had it long, long ago. Neither his offers of cash, his repeated telegraphing, or his messengers of peace to Bracebridge, could, or will, make any impression on Mr. Gow; so that

Port Hope is beautifully situated on the slope of a rising ground up from Lake Ontario, with a beautiful background of small pines and other trees. Some parts of the town are compactly built with splendid buildings that would be a credit even to a city -indeed it may yet be a city at no very distant day, being the terminus of a Railroad that is even now doing a very good business, and its prospective business most encouraging. That road brings we may say millions of dollars the Celborne Street Steam Mill. into the country, by timber, lumber &c .. giving employment to a great number of people summer and winter. The Port Hope harbour is a great credit as well as a great benefit to that place. Lindsay apsaw-mills, steamers, lumber scows, &c.

As we stopped at a village between Lindsay and Port Hope for wood and water at night, we were cheered up by a discourse of sweet instrumental music. The greater portion of the land from Lindsay to Port Hope is somewhat hilly, but good land, and ought to give good Fall Rugby, June 10, 1873. Wheat if kept sufficiently rich to resist the fr st.
