THE INSOLVENT ACT OF 1869.

THE INSOLVENT ACT OF 1869. AND AMENDMENTS THEREON. In the matter of G. W. WILSON, of Orillia, in the County of Simcoe, and Province of Ontario, Trader, An Insolvent.

THE 'Little Giant'

THE 'Little Giant'. THE Insolvent has made an assignment of his estate to me, and the creditors are requested to meet at his place of business, in Orillia, on FRIDAY, the ELEVENTH day of JULY, next, at one o'clock, p.m., to receive statements of his affairs and to appoint an assignee.

Desperate Havoc

Desperate Havoc. FROM all accounts the hay crop is going to be very light. It stands partly in hand to be very careful in gathering this crop, as present appearances indicate a high price next spring.

THE UNION HARDWARE STORE!

THE UNION HARDWARE STORE! ONE who has tried it says that old potatoes cut in small pieces and scattered over the ground will concentrate the potato bugs in immense numbers, when they may be effectually destroyed by simply going for them with a view to this end.

Down Prices

Down Prices. MRS. PUTNAM, wife of A. D. Putnam, who was murdered by Foster in a street-car, has secured a verdict for $5,000 against the street Railway Company of New York, for the refusal of the conductor to put Foster off the car when requested to do so.

Fearful Slaughter,

Fearful Slaughter. THE Tabard Inn, the famous old English pilgrim at which the Canterbury pilgrims assembled in the time of Chaucer, was sold by public auction on the 19th of June. The sale included the Tabard Inn and Inan yard, with several more houses, in all 29,000 square feet of ground, in sight of London Bridge.

Opposition.

Opposition. A MONSTER WHISTLE.—Thesley townpeople of St. Thomas are aroused from their slumbers every week day morning at 6 o'clock by a two-minute blast from the great whistle at the Canada Southern Car Shops. This whistle is twenty-five inches high and seven inches in diameter, and can be heard distinctly at a distance of fourteen miles. So says the Home Journal.

HE WING HIS WAY—

HE WING HIS WAY.—THE Rev. Father Kennedy, of Penetanguishene, whose death was announced a few days ago, was drowned in the Georgian Bay on Wednesday last, whilst trying to save the life of a boy who had fallen overboard from his yacht. After a few struggles, both sank. The Rev. gentleman had to attend several missions attached to saw mills around the Bay.—Mail.

TO SUCCESS

TO SUCCESS. IF potatoes are shrivelled, in the spring and early summer they are apt to be, lay them in cold water a while before cooking, avoiding unnecessary cutting or breaking of the skin. This will restore much of their plumpness. The water in which they are to be cooked should contain a little salt, should be boiling when first put in, and kept so till done, when they should be taken directly up.

Look For

Look For. A CIRCULAR from the British Columbia agency in London, Eng., says that some samples of grain forwarded from the Province have been priced, and that the wheat is worth 1s. to 2s. more per quarter than California, that the oats compare favourably with the best Scotch, that the peas and barley were 10s. per quarter better than those from Eastern Canada, and the hops are very good, worth 5d. per lb. more than the best Eastern Canada.

ORILLIA, 3rd JULY, 1873.

RECEPTION OF IMMIGRANTS.

ORILLIA, 3rd JULY, 1873. RECEPTION OF IMMIGRANTS. Orillia should have an immigration Society, or some one whose duty it would be to look after immigrants who come here, and see that their immediate wants are provided for.
