is great excitement in Ottawa. THE NATIONAL CRISIS

When the Hon. Mr. Huntingdon last spring made his charge against the Ministry, of corruption and criminal practices at elections, many believed he simply meant the injury of the Conservatives and the good of the Reformers respectively. The great mass of the moderate men on both sides no very serious impressions regarding the culpability of the Ottawa Ministry. But when the suspicious delays began to crop provider. out, when these were followed by undue and extraordinary haste in the disallowance of the Oaths Bill, loyal men on both sides began to fear that something really was wrong, that there was something more than mere Globe venom in all the rumours affeat. Then came the revelations of McMullen, whose evidence throughout bears a prima facie indication of fact about it even to the minds of those who despise the cause and intent of the Temperance petition presented disclosures mark an epoch in our history, cen, A. #### COUNCIL MEETING.

The regular monthly meeting of the Village Council took place on Wednesday of last week. All the members were present. The first question discussed was in reference to the contract for opening up Mississaga Street. Mr. Kean said he understood that Messrs. Bailey and Booth, Editor of THE EXPOSITOR: with himself, had received power and ordered to have the work done. The Reeve said he never understood it in that way, and thought it should have been done properly at first. Mr. Eailey agreed with Mr. Kean that they were to let the job. Accounts of A. Tait, 837.83; J. Franklin, $40.00; Geo. Lewis, $13.55; Packet
