"GOLDEN LION,"

ORILLIA, September, 1872

We are now busy opening out our Fall and Winter Goods, which are, this season, very attractive. Although the advance on Woolen Goods has been great, our buyer has fortunately succeeded in securing some cheap bargains.

The ladies will be delighted with our assortment of DRESS GOODS, SHAWLS, &c.

BOOTS AND SHOES in great variety. Ladies' and Gent's Rubbers.

READY-MADE CLOTHING, &c., now open for inspection.

We draw special attention to our stock of Tweeds for winter suits. Gentlemen looking for RASTROANS, well cut, and well made garments, will, we are sure, be thoroughly satisfied with the Clothing we are now turning out. We speak with confidence when we defy competition in the Tailoring Department.

A day or two see all our new goods and arranged when a visit to the GOLDEN LION by intending purchasers will be quite interesting.

Terms—Cash only.
