and Notary Public for the Dominion Bank

J. ALPORT, Accountant, Arbitra A. tor, Valuator, Land, Insurance and General Agent, Orillia, Ont. OFFICE-Masonic Buildings. N. B. - Rents and debts collected.

Orillia, June 5th, 1872,

TARANK EVANS, BARRISTER, AT-TORNEY-AT-LAW, Solicitor in Chancery, Conveyancer, Notary Public, Commis-ioner for taking Affidavits, &c. MONEY TO LEND. OFFICE-Next door to the "Orillia House," or at his residence, after office hours.

LIDGAR, FENTON & CORBOULD. Barristers and Attorneys-at-Law, Solici-Orsice -In Masonic Buildings Mississaga St., J. D. EDGAR F. FENTON, G E CORBOULD.

MARD. C. H. BOSANKO, L. D. S., visits Orillia regularly on the 16th, 17th and 18th of each month. Good sets of Teeth at $16.00. Office, at Dr. Sanderson's. N.B.-A good opening for a student.

Barrie, July 23rd, 1872. F W. ARMSTRONG, (Successor to A. Fowlie, P. L. S.) Provincial Land Surveyor, Draughtsman Civil Engineer and Architect, Valuator, Land and General Agent. Maps compiled. Disputed Lines carefully adjusted. OFFICE-Next door to the "Orillia House, formerly occupied by A. Fowlie. All Orders by mail will receive prompt attention. -Address, Box 57, ORILLIA, P. O. 125.

H. LAWRENCE

VETERINARY SURGEON, * EGS to inform the inhabitants of Oril-I lia and vicinity, that he has settled in Orillia, for the practice of his profession, and that he will be happy at all times to attend to 181. 6m any case for which his services may be required. Orillia, Aug. 10th, 1871.

R. RAMSAY, M. D., L. M., EDIN., Lately Professor of Clinical Medicine in the University of Philadelphia. Graduate (with honors,) of the University of Queen's College. Licentiate of Midwifery, of the University of Edinburgh, Scotland. Honorary Graduate of the University of Philadelphia, the American University of Pennsylvania, &c.

Coroner of the Counties of Simcoe, York and

Dr. RAMSAY has resumed the Practice of his Profession, and will be found when not professionally engaged, at Residence. Colwater Street, Crillia, Cnt.

Business Cards.

O'BRIEN & MORTEN HOUSE AND SIGN PAINTERS, PAPER-HANGERS AND GRAINER

Work done on the most advantageous terms SHOP-At J. Hammond's.

James McLeod, BLACKSMITH!

TIAS REMOVED to his New Shop on ness entrusted to Mississaga Street, next to the Marble Works, where he will be glad to see all friends and customers. All work done promptly. CITEAMBOAT & STAGE HOUSE, GRAVENHURST. DOUGALD BROWN, - - PROPRIETOR This Hotel is large, neatly furnished, and always supplied with the choicest Wines.

Sample and suite rooms for Commercial Travellers and visitors, Money to Loan

GOOD ENDORSED NOTES OR MOR! GAGE SECURITY. S. S. ROBINSON,

Office, over Dominion Bank. Orillia, 24th June, 73.

H. Portas, SEWING MACHINES, FANNING MILLS,

GRAVE STONES, BELL'S MELODEONS, CABINET ORGANS. AND PATENT CHURNS. 193.

BEAVERTON BRICK YARD

The Subscriber is prepared to furnish any quantity of White and Red Brick at Orders by mail promptly attended to. GEORGE DRAKE.

Beaverton, July, 1873. MORONTO

CUSTOM

Boot & Shoe Store! PETER ST., ORILLIA.

JAS. SHANAHAN, - PROPRIETOR Superior workmanship done at the owest possible prices for cash. . J. SHANAHAN

ORILLIA Stables! MATCHEDASH STREET.

WM. JACKSON, - PROPRIETOR. FAST HORSES

AND GOOD CONVEYANCES. Enquire at any of the Hetels.

ORILLIA DIVISION, S. OF T.

Summer ARRANGEMEN

BOYAL MAIL STEAMER

"CARRIELLA!

TAMES REIDE, Master,

for Longford, Portage, and Washago; re calling at the above ports.

Tickets for round trip, 50 cts.

Longford and Fortage, 25 cts.; Rama, 15 cts.

To Rama, and return, 25 cents.

STEAMER

"IDA BURTON,

UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE,

Will run as follows:

LEAVE OBILLIA Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, at S A. M., and 3 P. M., and on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, at 11 A. M., reaching Washago every day in time for Stages going north.

and Fridays, at 11 A.M., and Tuesdays,

Thursdays and Saturdays, at 8 A. M., and 3 P. M., calling each day at Portage, Laugford and Rama, when there are passengers or freight for those ports

FARE TO WASHAGO, - - 20 CENTS.

Longford, - - 15

RAMA, horrozer si poilă

ORILLIA

Gunsmith Shop:

F. J. DELANY

GU SMITH.

Manufacturer of the Celebrated

DELANY TROLLING BAIT

CEWING MACHINES repaired in firstoffice, Mississaga Street.

class style. Meerschaum and other Tobacco

Owing to changes about to take place in the

RAMA, and return, 25 "

PORTAGE, 20

EAVE WASHAGO Mondays, Wednesdays

Orillia, August 18th, 1873.

D. L. SANSON

LOCAL MATTERS

VOLUME IV., NO. 206.

ORILLIA TANNERY WEST ST., ORILLIA.

LEATHER OF ALL KINDS SHOEMAKERS' FINDINGS, &c.,

ALWAYS ON HAND. Cash paid for Hides, Kip and Calf Skins, and

200 Cords Hemlock Bark wanted immediately, for which the highest price in cash will S. WAINWRIGHT,

By Royal Authority!

A. S. GALBRAITH

AUCTIONEER. 171-1y. OFFICE - House of all Nations

WHITE LEAD

TYE again call the attention of storekeepers, and the public generally, to our celebrated brands of this article. REMEMBER that the best is always the cheapest, as it will cover more ground and wear the longest. I'e sure you get Lyman's Brass Label Brand! which for years has held the lead, and is so well known in Orillia as to require no recommendatien from us.

For Sale in Orillia! indvicinity, by all respectable dealers. Wholesale and to dealers only, by LYMAN, BROTHERS & CO.,

BEAVERTO

STOVE DEPOT

Has now on band a very large stock of Cooking Stoves, Tinware HASDWARE, COAL OIL, LAMP GLASSES, &C., Which he is selling at extremely low prices His stoves were bought before the recent great rise in price. Parties buying within the next month may rel on getting a bargain, as he is determined to sell them at the old price. GIVE HIM AN EARLY CALL.

Montreal Telegraph Co., Vicker's Express Co.,

Orillia, Fe ruary 4th, 1873, Canadian Express Co., Important to All! And General Agency, GREAT CLEARING SALE

Mississaga and Peter Streets Every attention will be paid to busi-

W. L. MILLER,

OLD STAND!

and is prepared to fill orders, wholesale or re-

As he has now the most extensive facilities for manufacturing Sausages, north of Toronto, country dealers will do well to leave

All kinds of FRESH MEATS sup-

DOMINION BANK.

Corner of Mississaga and Peter Streets.

OLD and American Currency, drafts on New York, Bills of Exchange, and United States currency, bought and sold,

Drafts issued on all points in Canada.

four per cent. per annum, on Special Deposits remaining three months. Special arrangements can be made for moneys re-

A SAVINGS BANK DEPARTMENT has been opened, for the accommodation of mechanics and parties wishing to deposit small amounts. Deposits taken in this Department of one dollar and upwards, upon which interest will be allowed, payable

Office hours, 10 a.m. till 3 p.m. Sat-

COMBINED SCHOOL-DESK & SEAT,

Manufactured by

SMITH & Co.

BEAVERTON, ONT.

urdays, 10 a.m. till 1 p.m. H. S. SCADDING,

Interest will be allowed, at the rate of their orders with him,

plied to Customers, promptly.

Orillia, August 27th, 1873.

maining over that time.

they now offer their Orillia, May 8, 1872. ORILLIA

Sausage Factory. REDUCED PRICES. as the whole stock T. MAUNDRELL

MUST BE SOLD HAS much pleasure in announcing that he has RESUMED BUSINESS, in his

WITHOUT DELAY, J. G. WILSON.

Orillia, August 25th, 1873.

(Opposite the Residence of James Sanson, Esq., Front Street, Orillia.)

HORSE BAZAAR. THE Subscriber has opened a Bazaar for the purchase and sale of Horses, and will always have a large number to dispose of Parties wishing to sell or purchase Horses will do well to call and leave their commissions with him. He has also commenced the training of Colts, to which he would invite the attention of stock raisers.

R. TINDLE.

J. L. BENSON, L.D.S. ORILLIA,

OFFICE-In Booth and Corbett's Brick

Teeth positively extracted without the slightest pain, by the use of NITROUS OXIDE GAS.

patent. I'erfect satisfaction guaranteed. PARTICULAR ATTENTION PAID TO Extracting & Gold Fillings. Approved by Inspectors and Trustees wherever introduced. Material and workmanship first-class. All Goods warranted.

An excellent preparation for cleansing the teeth and also preserving the Teeth and Guins in a healthy state—for sale.

ORILLIA, ONT., CANADA, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 16, 1873.

meets every Tuesday evening, in the Temperance Hall Visiting members will be heartily welcome.

D. W. NELSON, R. S. House and Lot Wanted ANTED to purchase, a small, well or five rooms, together with a moderately sized lot, in a pleasant part of Orillia. Address, stating price and location of property, to STRANGER, care of THE EXPOSITOR office. TATIL FURTHER NOTICE, the LAND FOR SALE Will run as follows: - Leave Orillia every morn-TEST HALF, Lot 18, in the 2nd Con ing (Sundays excepted) at 8 o'clock, A. M., Thorah, containing about 60 acres, 26 acres cleared, well fenced, and the remainder turning, calling at the above ports and principally hardwood. Good Dwelling House. Apply to J. J. McNABB, Beaverton P.O. Will leave Orillia at 2:30 P.M., for Rama, Long-ford, Portage, and Washago; returning, Thorah, Sept. 2nd, 1873.

FARM FOR SALE. Parties wishing to go to Rama by the morning boat, will be accommodated by asking the Captain. 40 ACRES OF LAND, in a pleasant locality, being part of the West half of Lot No. 3, in the 2nd Con., South Orillia, lying Fare to Washago, - 40 Cents;

NEAR BASS LAKE! within three miles of Orillia Village, 25 acres of which are cleared and well fenced, and the WELL TIMBERED The above property will be sold on far prable terms. For particulars apply to JOHN J. RIX;

Bass Lake, Orillia Orto F. J. R. GRANT, Conveyancer, Orillia October 7th, 1873.

BETTER THAN PAYING RENT

GO TO me oth atstho ON EASY TERMS.

Have a Home of Your Own! THE FIRST TO APPLY BEST CHOICE

A CHANCE.

THE Subscriber offers an excellent chance to parties of limited means to provide themselves with A HOMESTEAD! having recently put in the market a large Conveniently Situated Building Lots in the Village of Orillia,

ON EASIER TERMS! Pipes ferruled and repaired with neatness and despatch. Attention paid to light repairs of than any other property in the place can be all kinds. Sewing Machines and Needles of all descriptions kept constantly in stock.

Work Shop, next door to Dodge & Co.'s The Lots are dry and every way F. J. DELANY. Apply to A. TAIT.

Insolvent Act of 1869. AND AMENDMENTS THERETO. In the matter of GEORGE MILES

STUART WILSON, of the Village of Orillia, County of Simcoe and Province of Ontario, AN INSOLVENT. MOTICE is hereby given that by virtue of the powers vested in me as Assignee of the estate and effects of the above-named Insolvent, I shall offer for sale by PUBLIC AUCTION moral, respecta Bur ar all that, but ther

ENTIRE STOCK Office of S. S. ROBINSON, Esq., Barrister, in the said Village of Orillia, on WEDNESDAY, THE 26TH DAY OF NO-

next, at one o'clock in the afternoon, all the estate, right, title, interest, and equity of redemption of the aforesaid Insolvent, George Miles Stuart Wilson, and of myself as such Assignee, upon, in, and to the fol-

T. W. MOFFATT, Parcels or Tracts of Land namely:-All and singular those parcels or tracts of land, being in the Village of Orillia, County of Simcoe, composed of Lot five West of Canice Street, Lot five East of St. John Street, and Lot six East of Laclie Street, in the said Village of Orillia, according to subdivision and plan of Lots 16, 17, 18, 19 and 20, North of Jarvis Street, and Lots 16, 17, 18, 19 and 20, South of Borland Street, by Peter Burnett, Esq., P. L. S. And, at the same time and place, will be offered, Iwo Framed Buildings! the property of Insolvent.

The Terms and conditions will be made known at time of Sale. DUNCAN McFARLANE, 199 ST JAMES STREET, -

Montreal, Sept. 16, 1873. SINGLE COPIES of THE EXPOSITOR or the Office of publication.

Parties Intending to Make Application to Pariiament

DRIVATE BILLS.

For Private Bills, either for granting exclusive privileges, or conferring corporate towards her husband.

presented within he first three weeks of the

ROBERT LEMOINE, Clerk of the Senate, ALFRED PATRICK, Clerk of the House of Commons Che Tome Fireside.

There is comfort in the Saviour, There is comfort to the soul,

> Oh: how often have we felt it, When no friends were near to greet, And we longed to cast our burden At the precious Saviour's feet,

Trust in Him alone for comfort, He world always dry our tears. There is comfort in the Saviour:

Have you wandered from the way !

Are you thinking of returning !--He will listen if you pray.

Why not east your cares upon Him Wherefore do you weep and sigh? If you only knew the comfert That there is in Christ the Lord You would bring Him all your trials, You would take Him at his word, Little children, there is comfort, Hoary age, you may come too;

NEVER AGAIN. BI W. S. MAYO, M. D. Author of "Kaloolah," " The Berber," etc.

The gertleman and lady took a few tures up and down the piazza in silence. They paused as if to listen to those delicious strains, tiose nectared and subtle voicings sure you have no other engagements? of an exquisite and intensified conventionality that floated on the golden and odorous air across the esplanade; but little was the masic heeded by either. The gentleman was the first to speak.

"You will see then, my dear, that under the circumstances it is best to avoid all push it; but publicity would be very objectionable and I think I preceive that you ways the case with you women when once is no danger of a grand passion in this case, is there? It would be too ridiculous, eh! The lady made no reply.

"He has, however," continued the gentleman, "one thing in his favour; another lover might not be so luckily circumstanced, and if you will avail yourself of the privi-own country in a short time. The lady turned inquiringly to her hus-He is not rich," replied Monsieur em- cards are favourable, but one must play phatically, nodding his head, "and once with reticence and self-control. There is across the Atlantic, and settled down to no use in pushing fortune too far. To his business, it will be long before he will draw back in time one must draw back visit Europe again. The money-getting early."

devil will get hold of him. I know something of those New York merchants. 1 into the open air. The full moon had have visited them, when I was attached just risen over the eastern rim of the to our legation at Washington, in their basin of Baden—the last faint flush of sunownhouses-quite magnificent their houses set still tinged the tottering towers of das are too, -regular temples -dedicated solely atte Schloss to the worship of mammon, -all fitted up exactly alike with the gorgeous fragments -through the alley of shops-up and and figments of a bought-and-paid-for down the avenue of Lichtenthal-by the taste, - while the service consists mainly banks of the Oos-along the facade of the of the chinking of gold and the rattling of Trinkhalle, -until, quite accidentally, they dollars. They have a creed and a catechism took a turn into the new deserted walks too. The one begins with I believe in on the hill-side, back of the Kurhaus. any man worth a million, and the other A moment after, Annette, the lady's with, What is the chief end of man !-To maid, accompanied by Steignitz, entered editor glorify trade and make money for ever, the same path, and stealthily followed the pages. No, we shall never hear of him again, and steps of her mistress. probably will never hear of us. If we parted from him now, I don't believe he could hunt us up, even if he had time and disposition to do so." As you remarked, "observed Monsieur D'Okenheim, after a pause, " he is good-"Passably so "And well mannered ?"

"And deeply enamored of you." "Perhaps. You have had more experience in such matters, and are a better judge than I am." "Ah, Madame, you flatter me, and belie they suffer their own passions to blind them. I hope, for the credit of one of the coolest heads I know, that interest in him does not disqualify you from estimating the corresponding symptoms of interest on "Well, well," exclaimed the lady impatiently, "perhaps it is so, -and what "What then?" said Monsieur D'Okentache, and drawing down his eyebrows until the two, almost touching, made a circle of hair through which peered his pinchedup nose. "What then ? Why nothingnothing at all. Only I would remark that edly grateful for a modicum of genuine youthful devotion; that they suffer themto make it an affair—is so odd, so unex-pected; and I may add, so importune, that L can't refrain from speaking to you about would be a great want of tact, and sense, a bald eagle." and wisdom, in a woman as clever as you are, not to avail herself of one of the pest qualities in her lover?"

powers for commercial or other purposes of profit, or for doing anything tending to affect the rights or property of other parties, are hereby notified that they are required by the Rules of the two Houses of You recollect what your friend the Princes of Stacklenburg used to say: that she chose for her lovers only young officers of the line-regimenter, because they being constantly liable to, marching orders, she had a second day fully 3000 people on the ground. The exhibition in the Drill Shet was very creditably, but not equal to last year. In agricultural Society was very large, there be enquired by the Rules of the knite of the south Samon All the princes of the law of the law of the line ground. The exhibition in the Drill Shet was very creditably, but not equal to last year. In agricultural Society was very large, there be enquired by the Rules of the knite at the search of the south Samon All the princes of the law of the law of the prince of Stacklenburg used to say: that sevently years, and I have every served that thing Shet very large, there be comes a fellow that the prince of the substantly liable to marching orders, and the prince of the substant line. So the search t said she, 'that makes the fame of a siege: ed up to the object in question. All petitions r Private Bills must be it is the mining and countermining; the presented within he first three weeks of the boom of the batteries and the preliminary faits d'armes. If a woman demands for (To be continued)

one day to me, 'to be able to got rid or

Princess of Stacklenburg is almost intec

'It is such a nice thing," said the Princes

no intention to dictate, hardly even to ad vise—that in the end le jeu ne vant pas la chandelle, or in his own shop-keeping lingo, thu thing would not pay. But come, ma

Yankee will hardly wait much longer, and vince any sedentarily-disposed and seat-

"We have made you wait a long time, said Mensieur D'Okenheim, with his polit-

"The time has seemed long, it is true, replied Mr. Ledgeral, with a significan too long to wait in the service of Madame.

" Madame will then be indebted to you.

was an optical illusion.

None whatever."

one's lovers before one is tired of them;-For THE EXPOSITOR most women wait too long.' Now don't Comfort in the Saviour, bear delicate management that may be required in a certain case, you have amused your-self with this young man about long When the tempter's power is stronges.
When great troubles o'er us roll. chough ? Don't you think that we had better drop him at once I it won't be much of a sacrifice—will it, my dear I and tesides he will be compelled in a few days to drop us—that is, unless you make a

If we then would come to Jesus, Lay upon Him all our cares,

There is comfort in the Sayiour: Will you only come and try ?

Rich or poor-whoe'er is burdened, For the comfort is for you. H.

indeed; But then a turn for compliments is characteristic of the Yankees. They are very complimentary-to themselves, muttered aside to Madame; "but are you

With an abstracted air, the lady took the arm of the young man. They followed Monsieur D'Okenheim into the gambling saloon, and stood behind him as he dropped into his accustomed seat, marked by his scandal with that young American. I card pinned to the Green cloth, and pushed should be very sorry to have to shoot him; out ten louis to the centre of the table. it would make so much noise. Not that l wish to interfere with any flirtation of dealer; and a croupier added ten louis to yours, however far you may be willing to the stake. A second time the phrase was repeated. and twenty louis were added. A third, a are becoming a little careless. That is al- fourth, and a fifth time, still Monsieur D' Okenheim sat motionless and silent. Deux louis a la masse," he suddenly you become really interested. But there exclaimed, as the dealer prepared for the "Deux louis a la masse," repeated the dealer. " Noir gagne, rouge perd." "Ah, quelle chance etonnante ! quel bonhear merceilleux!" murmored the galerie. The croupier picked out two pieces f. om leges of your sex, and amuse yourself with a the glittering pile of three hundred and lover, you might perhaps go further and twenty louis, while Monsieur D'Okenheim fare worse. It will be very easy in a few reached forward and pulled the remainder days to shake him off. He leaves for his towards him. He looked up to his wife with a smile that was half a grin and half a sucer. "Do you see, ma belle," he whispered, "the Slowly they pace I around the esplanade a group of little lakes, six or seven in number, which there lie nestling in the embraces whole group—at certain seasons when the lives and substance of quiet and respectayour own acuteness. What is the acquired skill of man in that respect compared to the natural instinct of woman? I never they suffer their own passions to blind them. I hope, for the credit of one of the law of the Hudson. lev of the Hudson. It was on a day some nineteen or twenty carry the enterprise to success, and such | He told us his feet had been frozen, and years after the date of the conversation an organ in a city will be of great service | we were not surprised when we looked at recorded in the last chapter, that two men, in promoting the cause of total abstinence his soleless lods. From our conversation in a one-horse vehicle yelept a "buggy," and prohibition. We wish every city, with him we learned that he had held a were driving slowly along the road that town and village could boast of an out respectable position in the "Old Land" winds around the foot of this hill. Their spoken newspaper advocate of these prin- across the ocean, but had been reduced in and they stopped their horse to examine it THE Parry Sound Courier says that the more steadily.

"I can't rightly think exactly what kind to settlers is faulty in not making provision.

Although there are many counterfeit ob of a critter that may be," said the elder of those who have through necessity for the two; "that is, if it is a living critter feited one lot being allowed to take up an serving of help. We are of the opinion women of the world are often so confound- at all. What do you think, Captain Comb other, as a "freegrant," and that there ought to be a charitable society mer near a systematic attack with a neavy siege train, she can't be surprised if rumour some of her some or later sticks her into one of her bulletins scandalers. Now, in a court where the characters of so many women where the characters of so many women the show grounds.

TERMS: SI PER ANN

OUR DAILY BREAD

Contributed to THE EXPOSITOR by J. Lawson. Deal courageously, and the Lord shall be with the good .- II. Chronicles, XIX., 11. Lord, may we ever valiant be, Our duty to fulfil,

Assured we shall be helped by Thee,

Whilst we perform Thy will.

OCTOBER 17. which is good .- III. John, 11. Though evil allure, O let us not heed For evil is sure to ruin to lead: daye of him, and tie him to your chariot But that which is right may we follow wheels for ever. I don't doubt your power to do so, but it strikes me-mind I have and ever delight the Lord to obey. May we the fruits of true rep

I am anxious to pick up a thousand louis this evening. I feel certain that I shall Fruits of repentence will begin to grew. win. Fortune, I am sure owes me a good turn, after this last insult from my pre-OCTOBER 19. I was in the spirit on the Lord's day .-The lady made no reply, but sauntered slowly by the side of her husband back to Revelations, I., 10. How blest! thus in Thy Spirit, Lord, to be the colonnade of the Kurhaus, where Mr.

head of his cane, and nervously twisting himself about on two chairs, as if to conhimself about on two chairs, as if to con-These were more noble than those in looked for it where it was not to be found, seeking spectator that the second chair Thessalonica, in that they received the

This nobleness be ever mine, Receive Thy word with heart sincere. smile to the lady, "but no time would be To test the truth of what I hear. Ah, very well said-very well turned When a righteous man turneth away from his righteousness, and committeeh that he hath done shall he die .-Ezekiel, xvIII , 26. Lord, by Thy grace alone can we Retain our righteonsness; Only Thy grace can keep us free, From our own sinfulness. Thy grace, O Lord, to us impart,

That we may e'er retain A purified and loving heart, And heaven at last obtain OCTOBER 22. Again, when the wicked man turn th away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive,- Ezekiel, xvIII., 27. O let the wicked now forsake His wickedness, repent and live: Which God in mercy waits to give: For all salvation may roceive. All may forsake their sins and live. Two lines were accidentally omitted in printing the verse under date October 8th.

The whole verse reads: May each by grace be so renewed That evil thoughts may be subdued. That each the other may forgive, And thus in peace together live; As God for Christ's sake hath forgiven, And made poor sinners meet for heaven.

PEN AND SCISSORS THE Rev. John Gray, of Orillia, will lecture in Barrie, on the 29th instant. Sub-ject, "Words."

The great army of drunkards with which from The Expositor by the compiler of with her respecting their temporal condithe brevities in the Oshawa Vindicator is tion. This was unnecessary, as the very

THE Cobourg Sentinel has been embraged. tions. The word poverty was prominently In its diminutive shape the Sentiacl contained more readable matter than nine-tenths of the blanket sheets in the Province afford, and we therefore congratulate the editor upon the expansion of his newsy pages.

The word poverty was prominently engraven on every article of fermiture in the roast, if such articles may be called by that name. Wherever we turned our eyes that name. Wherever we turned our eyes that of the sufferers. The woman herself was the very model of neatness, and from her appearance we concluded that she had Peekskill, and thence directly back from the river some twelve or fourteen miles. a perceptible improvement in all the defair clean foreheads, and their beautiful partments, but especially in thorough-bred cyes sparkled in their sockets. Ere they and judgment which can scarcely fail to and hungry, and his clothes were ragged attention had been attracted to a dark- ciples: and it is an encouraging sign of circumstances and was compelled to faithfully perform settlement duties while formed in every city, town, and village of youthful devotion; that they suffer themselves to be carried beyond their depth before they know it. Mind you, I don't pretend to any right to interfere, but this little affair—that is, if you are determined

"Well, Deacon, I think it is an animal of some kind, for I can distinctly see it move, "replied the Captain, a short, stout,
little affair—that is, if you are determined
of age. "It can't be a crow?"

Interior perform settlement duties with residing in other parts of the Province can not obtain a patent at the end of the specinot obtain a patent at the end of the specisup lady desire than seeking out and rethe move, "replied the Captain, a short, stout,
little affair—that is, if you are determined
of age. "It can't be a crow?"

Interior perform settlement duties with
residing in other parts of the Province can not obtain a patent at the end of the specinot obtain a patent at the end of the specisup lady desire than seeking out and rethe move, "replied the Captain, a short, stout, been satisfactorily completed. Would not be a mendment of the latter provision be the amendment of the latter provision be ain't nothin' like a crow. My eyes ain't nal settlers who, from one year's end to the can always recall with profit. Even in other, are not represented on their claims. Orillia there are families ill-prepared to it.

"Don't you think, my dear, that it not black enough, for a crow. It may be contemporary admits, "operate as a drag ter. Let us despise not the poor, but try a bald eagle."

and hindrance to the advancement of new to render less painful the bed which poverty has made. "Han angel were sent from right direction, and we hope it will be fol-lowed by others. It is too often the case that disputes arise, that would never have

TWO STENES OF POVERTS season of the year, destitute of the common necessities of life. We know that much of The husband was a worthy and industrious man, but his wife was an inebriate. Being auxious for her reformation, he requested us to call and try if we could persuade her to give up those habits which were making life to him a burden. It was a winter a evening when we made the visit. The air was cold and piercing. The beautiful stars parkled with their usual brilliancy in the diadem of night. The wind sighed amongs the leafless branches of the "shade trees," which stood on each side of the street. The house was situated in a large, uncultivated plot of ground, and was a dismal looking place. The frosts of many a winter had stripped it of much of its rough-cast covering; some of the window panes were broken and others patched with paper. We had to ascend three rickety steps to reach the door, which was as destitute of paint as the shingles on the roof. The door was appned Follow not that which is evil, but that by a young girl about fourteen years of age, who seemed healthy, but was very thinly hich is good.—III. John, 11. were taken into a small room nearly destian old trunk, which had been no doubt associated with many of the vicissitudes of the family, and had crossed the Atlantic at least once. A candle was burning dimly, which lit up the room with a gep over the pillow and her eyes looked wild and piercing. As we approached she muttered some herrible imprecations, no doubt intended for her husband. We spoke a few gentle words to her, which somewhat calmed her excited spirit, but she soon grew violent again, and we left her with the sac impression that the was irretrievably lost to habits of sobriety. How often have such comes driven men into dissipation and crime. Finding no happiness at home, they have sought it elsewhere; but they Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the Scriptures daily, whether those things were so.—Acts, xvii., 11.

This publication is that they received the and they too have fallen, irrecoverably fallen, and the green grass waves over the graves of many who might now have been living had their earthly homes been more attra tive. How difficult it is to restore a woman w. en once she has become an ine-And search myself the Book Divine, briate! There may have been many rostored, but we have never known one. Husbands then would do well to keep a watch-ful eye on the neighbours with whom their wives associate. It is written Eyil cominiquity, and dieth in them, for his ini- munications corrupt good manners." working man were more particular in the selection of the locality of their homes, their wives would not be so liable to fall into bad habits. They had better pay a dollara month more for a house than have their homes in-> character to lose. We call to remembrance another case of destitution, but very different to the one we have just described. One evening while looking over the columns of the Globe our attention was called to an advertisement which was in substance as follows:

vaded and ruined by persons who have no

BEAUTIFUL QUILT FOR SALE A by a destitute family. Address, 39

Previous to this we had heard of a respectthe city to purchase five cents worth of wood Mr. M. being favourably impressed with the man's appearance, enquired into his circumstances, when he was informed that he was an emigrant with a wife and two children, and had been out of employmen so long that his scanty means were exhausted. It was a bitter cold night whom we started to find this destitute family. The snow was falling heavily and a strong wind was blowing from the north, which whirled the snow-flakes upagainst the window panes and was not very complimentary even to us. After a little difficulty we arrived at No. 39. It was a two-storey rough-cast dwelling, and was occupied by two or three families. The family we were in search for our country is cursed are all recruits from | i.e. the object of our visit. We could see at once that we were unexpected. After As we are careful to give full credit for the momentary surprise which our presence items from local exchanges, the pilfering produced, we entered into conversation surroundings responded to our interroga-

THE Annual Fall Show of the North Outer appearance we concluded that she had been brought up well and tenderly. There tario Agricultural Society this year were two objects in that room which moved the most successful the Society as ever held. There were about 1,300 attended to the corner were two beautiful children, their Peekskill, and thence directly back from some 300 more than last year. Then was corner were two beautiful children, their WHISKEY is the accompaniment of every in Heaven whom unseen they loved. They ber, which there he nestling in the embraces of the Highlands. Elevated a thousand feet above the level of the river—fed with water from the clearest springs—swept by the purest mountain breezes—and studded with little islets of mingled rock and wood—nothing can be imagined of more happy, healthful beauty. From one high hill the healthful beauty. From one high hill the looking object perched in the leafless the times that they are so rapidly increasing that day to this, but hope that they have that day to this, but hope that they have now a comfortable home in some part of our, her affection for him. To arrest an importunate appetite, to si-lence the clamour of a passion, and to repel "forty-rod," and the absence of any such ates whoever indulges in it; the wicked quence, should be entitled to but sligh heaven to find the most perfect man, he South Sincoz Fall Show.—The Brad- body of divinity, but perhaps a cripple in qualities in her lover?"

Well, it does look something like a bear, that's a fact; but I've lived within towards her husband.

The lady turned a sharp look of inquiry bear, that's a fact; but I've lived within three miles of this hill now for about ford News says that the attendance at the a workhouse, whom the parish wishes dead, ford News says that the attendance at the a workhouse, whom the parish wishes dead, or a heaver dying alone by the way-side, ness is her husband's love; and of her honentness can in a great measure be wrong their own souls; generosity greatestor-

OX! LETS !

store Bar-

Ont.