OMEMEE, THURSDAY, JAN. 2, 1896.

MUNICIPAL NOMINATIONS.

On monday last the nominations of for the township of Emily, took place in the old Township Hall, and the meeting was very largely attended. The undersigned, having purchased the above popular hotel, and made great improvements in the interior, besides thoroughly renovating the rooms, respectfully were nominated for reeve, the latter republic. The house is fitted with electric bells signed, leaving Messrs Switzer and and the best sample rooms of any hotel in the Adams in the field. For the Deputy's chair Messrs T H McQuade, R E Ford, be spared to make this house one of the best | James R Boate, W Adams and Dennis Scully were nominated. All resigned he dining room receives the strictest attention, and the tables are supplied with the best of everything in season. The bar is stocked with the choicest brands of fine liquous councillors, messrs Jas R Boate, R E Ford, J G Ashmore, Dennis Scully, J H Fee, W Adams, Thos Graham, Jos De- Club are anxiously waiting for ice and yell, Chas Corneil, and W S Graham intend making things boom this were nominated. The last six resigned, winter. Although the club decided not leaving four in the field. All the fore- to go into the O. H. In the village on the evening of monday, the Bradburn Hall was crowded to the doors, and there was a very amusing time. There were in the neighborhood of a dozen nominated for reeve, and about double that number for councillors. It was thought that all had resigned with the exception of Jos T Beatty, (who stood his ground like a STOCK Complete in man) but it was found that wesses Thos having resigned in time, they together elected by acclamation to the reeveship. guson, who for so many years has been los All-wool Beaver "9 oo We congratulate the above gentlemen | at the head of the affairs of this munici- | 125 All-wool Frieze and trust they will have a prosperous pality. On Christmas Night,

A MOST SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR. The Bradburn Hall was Crowded to the Doors.

On Xmas. night, in the Bradburn Hall, Omemee, L.O.L., 113, held their grand concert, which had been announced far and near by the beautiful posters from the Mirror office, and through the columns of that journal, and notwithstanding the unfavorable weather and roads a very large number came from Mount Pleasant, Reabore, Janetville and Emily, and peing reinforced by a the hall was packed to the doors. At 8 o'clock sharp the chair was taken by Mr. Wm. Adams, D. M., who gave a short speech, and then which was first-class in every respect. Space will not admit of a lengthy report. The solos by Miss Williamson,

Mrs. T. A. McPherson, Mrs. J. J. Lang, and Messrs. T. J. Parsons, and W. C. Switzer were of high order and much appreciated. The instrumentals on the piano by the Misscs Rose Williamson and Stella sandy were very well given. The cornet solos by Prof. W. H. sherwood and Mr. G. W. McKim were rendered in first-class style, and were encored again and again. Mr. the house in his reading, and his mouth organ solo.
