A number of our young people spent New Years evening in Springville, attending a tea and concert in connection with the Presbyterian church of that place. A most bountiful repast was served in a house adjoining the church, after which they repaired to the church where an excellent program was delivered. The chair was ably filled by the Rev. John U. Tanner, of Omemee. Mrs. McWilliams and Hall delivered highly appreciated addresses. The members of that congregation are to be congratulated on securing the aid of the St. Andrew's Church Choir, Peterboro. The local talent was choice, and altogether an enjoyable time was spent by all present.
