Mr. Andrew Thornton, son of the late born in the Township of Emily, near on the farm, at the same time taking Miss Concheneur, who has been head advantage of the neighboring school, Section No. 9, Ops, where he proved himself an efficient teacher.

During this time the Pensylvania Oil Regions were discovered, and attracted Mr. Thornton and a number of other Canadians, who were all more or less successful in the chances there. Although attended with hardships Mr. Thornton's health was good until la grippe made its first appearance, shattering his constitution to such an extent that he never enjoyed, (there or since returning to Omemee about six years ago,) the same robust health and energy that he had previously possessed. His heart and lungs were effected so much that he was unable to attend to any of the important duties he was entrusted with formerly. While at was book-keeper and reporter for the Lindsay Post about three years ago, but on account of his health failing he was compelled to resign his position. The deceased, who departed this life last Thursday, Jan, 13th, 1898, bore up patiently and with christian fortitude during his affliction. While in Pensylvania many a poor fellow received kind treatment and nursing at the hand of

Mr. Thornton. Deceased was a great lover and promoter of all sports, so long as the associations tended to moral and physical good, teing an enthusiastic cricke:e and was one of the Omemee eleven in their pulmy, by-gone days. The funeral on Saturday was very largely attended, many of the pupils he had taught were in attendance to pay their respects to their departed friend. The solemn and impressive services were conducted by Revs. Wilson Mc. Cann, E. Roberts and J. U. Tanner.

Two s sters Mrs. Kincail, of Peterbore, and Miss Thernton of Omemee. and two brothers, Mr. J. D. Thornton of Omemee, and William J. Toornton, of Manyers, are left to monra the loss of a devoted and loving brother.

GOUGH FOR CLOTHING.

I'he Opening Ball!!

$20,000

Worth of Winter Clothing, Hats and Furnishings to be sold

FOR $13,000.

We're booked for a lively time on this, the opening month of 1898. Weeks and weeks ago, before the holiday trade had fairly begun, we arranged for collecting goods for a very special occasion during January, 1898. The extent of the preparation is shown to-day in the vast quantities of at prices below the market, and with such facilities for quick selling as have never befor been equalled. We believe there is plenty of business to be got even in midwinter. Every live clothing dealer knows that the thermometer is a livelier salesman than any other that can be employed. l'eople won't buy until the time comes, and that means until the weather is right Besides, half the people weur last year's garments until January bargoin time comes. Acting on that principle this store has been busy every January for years.

Cold Weather is a Great Boomer

With such prices as we now quote we equect to surprise those who have been "playing a waiting game," as well as those who will take the trouble to see the goods and the value they represent. What we emphasize now is NEW GOODS, NEW STYLES and NEW PRICES. It is important that you remember that. Buying as we do in great quantities and sell ng for cash, have reduced the cost so materially that shoppers can't help but wonder where our profit comes from.

We Buy for Cash, Sell for Cash; Buy Low, Sell Low, Because We Know How to.

Wide awake waiters, and people on the lookout for January Sna is have a chance now, the like of which cannot be got anywhere else but at this Big Store.
