Presbyterian Festival and Entertainment.

The large number who attended this Festival and Concert on Monday evening of this week were unanimous in their praise of the excellent manner in which they were carried out. The tables were richly spread with all kinds of fowl and other luxuries, and after all were served, they repaired to the Bradburn Hall which was open from 7 p m. The Omeme Orchestra kept the immense throng in good humor until the curtain rose at 8 o'clock. Rev. J. U. Tanner, B. A., in absence of Dr. S. G. Cameron, presided, and gave a neat little speech, after which he called upon Miss Mabel Rowan for a piano solo, and all present were delighted with her different selections. Miss Rowan was also the very efficient accompanist of the evening.

Miss Marietta La Dell received a very hearty reception, and fully sustained her reputation in the different numbers, and scored a big success. No society or church will make any mistake in securing this excellent and very graceful young lady to take part in their entertainments. She is surely a "Star."

Miss Liggett and Mr. J. T. Petty, of Lindsay, also rendered several songs which were heartily applauded. They also were compelled to respond with an encore selection after each piece on the programme.

The committees in charge of the festival and entertainment are to be congratulated on their creditable and enterprising work. They have secured a very handsome team.
