New Year's Eve Wedding.

The spacious home of Mr. Francis Fee, Emily, was the scene of an interesting event, on the evening of Wednesday, Dec 31st, when his daughter, Miss Ella, was united in marriage with the popular cheesemaker, Mr. Robert John Weir. In the presence of one hundred and thirty guests, Rev. W. M. Kannawin, B. D. said the words, which made the young couple man and wife.

Promptly at five o'clock, to the strains of the wedding march, played by Miss Janet Weir, the bridal party took up its station in the parlor. The bride was charmingly attired in a dress of white silk, and wore the regulation veil, caught with a large clou of chiffon. As bridesmaid Miss Mildred Fee attended her sister, and was gowned in a pretty costume of pale blue, with applique of cream lace. Mr. Wm. Weir ably supported the groom, and at the conclusion of the ceremony, the many friends gathered, attested their good will in congratulations. Thereupon an adjournment was made to the dining room, where dainty refreshments were served in abundance by friends of the bride. The rest of the evening passed pleasantly with games, music and social intercourse.

Many guests were present from a distance including Mr. and Mrs. Robert Weir and family, of Lang. Mr. Thos. Weir, of Seaverton, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Fairbairn, and family, of B. Baygon, Mr. John Wylie, of Toronto, Mr. Wm. Fee and Miss Gertrude Fee, of Lindsay, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bell, of Nassau, Miss Jessie Bell, of Peterboro, Mr. Thos. Lewis, of Roland, Man., Mr. E. W. Morgan, of Toronto, Mr. John Fee, of Bowmanville and Mr. Andrew Lartsh, of Lang.

Many and costly were the presents received, that of the groom to the bride was a fifty dollar bill and to the bridesmaid a crested brooch of gold. The "Mirror" joins with the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Weir in wishing them "bon voyage" through life.
