

LAST AND GREATEST DAYS OF OUR BIG STOCK REDUCTION SALE.

Everything in Our Stock is Reduced
For the Last Three Days of This Week.

This general reduction sale lasts but three days more, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, but in that short space of time we expect to crowd a full week's business, and with such merchandise, such prices and such inducements as we offer all through the Store, it is not only possible but probable that our most sanguine hopes will be fully realized.

After the phenomenal business last year brought us, we are willing from now till stock taking to Forget Profits Entirely. We mean to reduce our general stock as much as possible by making prices that will not only command attention but will insure takers.

It's easier to count money than to measure goods at stock-taking—that's why we give you choice of all our high-grade, seasonal merchandise at from Ten to Fifty Per Cent Below Our Usual Low Prices.

These great bargains offer prudent buyers a chance to double their money. An equal chance that will not soon come your way again.

The reductions mean savings of hundreds of dollars to our customers.

Do you object to low prices? Tell us frankly, did you ever know of any Lindsay Store except WAKELY & FORD'S which offered such bargains. Test them.

A Successful and Delightful Sunday School Entertainment.

The entertainment in connection with the Anniversary Services of the Millbrook Methodist Sunday School was held in the Church on New Year's Night. There was a very large attendance, and all thoroughly enjoyed the program, which commenced precisely at 7:45. The motion songs by the small children of the School, all of whom were pretty and attractive, took their part exceedingly well. The flag drill, by seventeen young ladies, was a most pleasing feature, and received many eulogistic comments. Recitations by Maye McKim, Gordon Snelgrove and Laura Clarke, were well received, and showed what the little folk can do when trained by efficient instructors.

The Cantata, entitled "The Happiest Land," was a marvel of beauty, and exquisitely rendered by the following characters:

Miss Burnham	Central Figure
" Blanche Clarry	Egyptian
" Mabel Strain	Swiss
" Byam	Syrian
" Horner	Persian
" Irene Raper	Italian
" Elvy Lock	Icelandic
" Flossie Thexton	Japanese
Gladys Snelgrove	Japanese
Jessie Clark	Japanese Little Girls
Eveline McKim	Chinese
Mr. Mart Brock	Chinese
Miss M. Richards	Scotch Lass
" E. Gillott	Irish Lass
" I. McMahon	Hindoo
" Stella Hetherington	Jewess
" Bateson	Armenian
Mr. McCullough	Turk
Miss Ethel Richardson	German
Pearl Natrass	Hollanders
Mabel Raper	Hollanders
Norman Lock	African
Mr. Wesley Fry	African
" W. G. Hetherington [Hon. Joseph Chamberlain]	French Lady
Miss Letitia Armstrong	Frenchman
Miss A. Hampton	Grecian
Mrs. Walter Gillott	CANADA
Mr. H. L. Burnham	Americans
Mr. Walter Gillott	King
Miss N. Hetherington	Queen
Mr. Flummerfelt	Soldiers of Queen
" Pethick	Soldiers of Queen
" Watson Clark	Soldiers of Queen
George Raper	Swabian
Roy Raper	Saxon
Harvie McMahon	Bohemian
Lillian Thexton	Little Girl
Miss Ethel Ferguson	Pianists
Miss Gussie Clarry	Pianists

Mr. Brock represented the Chinese to perfection, and as many stated, looked more like a Chinaman in the costume he wore than the Manager for See See Sing. He brought out his plea for China for first place in a clear voice—but nay, his was not the Happiest Land.

Miss M. Bateson representing the suffering Armenians, and Mr. McCullough, representing the Terrible Turk, with his dagger raised to strike the poor suffering woman of Armenia, was effectively carried out in a Tableau, and very touching.

Miss Eva Gillott cleverly represented the Emerald Isle, and made lots of fun. Miss Gillott is a genius at entertaining, and on this occasion all present were delighted with her "Irish wit."

Mr. W. G. Hetherington represented Hon. Joseph Chamberlain to a nicety. Those "specks" of Walter's put the finishing touch on, and behold "the great Joe."

Miss Gertie Clarry took the part of a stylish French Lady very well indeed, and Mr. Harvey Thexton made a capital "Gentleman of France."

Miss Aggie Hampton, representing our fair Dominion, made a great hit when she appeared in her beautiful costume, and carrying a Maple Leaf.

Mrs. Walter Gillott and Mr. H. L. Burnham, representatives of America, and Mr. Walter Gillott and Miss Nellie Hetherington, representing England, came to the platform in order, amid the strains of the National Anthems of each country, the flags of each were raised side by side, making a link of friendship, and when the Shamrock, Rose, and Thistle, with the beautiful Maple Leaf, were held above Miss Canada's head, they had a very pretty effect, and made one think of the great power of the nations represented.

The Soldiers of the Queen were fine stalwart men, and they looked as though they were ready to fight—yea even die for the glory of the Motherland.

The little Japanese Girls were very interesting characters, and their singing was very much enjoyed.

The Misses Mina Bateson, Ethel Richardson, Mabel Strain, Gertie, Flossie Thexton and Mary M. Richards interspersed the Cantata with well rendered Solos and Duets.

The Heralds were Masters Wilfrid Gillott and Wesley Clark. They were very handsomely attired, and did their part real well, having had to stand like statues during the entire procedure of the Cantata—nearly two hours.

The Orchestra were composed of the following artists: Messrs. G. A. Duncan, G. W. McKim, G. E. Burnham, Jos. and Chas. Thorndyke, and Jas. Cochrane.

The Superintendent of the Sunday School, Mr. R. W. Clark, and all those who in any way assisted in making the entertainment such a magnificent success, deserve great praise.

We understand that there is a probability of the entertainment being repeated, at an early date, in the town hall.

Mr. W. J. Wetherup, of Emily, is visiting his Millbrook and Port Hope friends, this week.

Mr. Walter Stewart returned on Monday, from Minto, Man. He reports a fine winter there.

Mr. Tucker received a telegram on Wednesday, from Everett, Wash., bearing the sad intelligence of the sudden death of his daughter, Mrs. Frank Lang. The bereaved family will have the heartfelt sympathy of their many friends here.

Cement Roofing will not buckle or crack and break from expansion and contraction, because it is made of a composition that remains in a flexible state, and can be applied on flat roofs.

—L. S. Clarry, Agent, Millbrook.

Mr. Thos. Wetherup, of Emily, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dolbert Sanderson.

Cement Roofing cannot rust.—L. S. Clarry, Agent, Millbrook.

Rev. Mr. Burgess, of Bethany, was in town yesterday, calling on friends.

BORN

FAIR—In Millbrook, on Thursday, Jan. 7th, 1904, to Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Fair, a daughter.

John Haggart, Auctioneer, has received instructions from Mr. Chas. R. Nixon to sell by public auction, on his premises, Lot 22, Con. 1, Emily, on Tuesday, Jan. 19th, 1904, at one o'clock p. m., his valuable farm stock, implements, &c. Terms—$10 and under, cash; 9 months' credit will be given on furnishing approved joint notes. See bills.

Mr. J. W. Lowes, of Cavan, gave the Mirror a friendly call this week. Mr. Lowes is the owner of that celebrated Stallion, "King Alfred," (11762), sired by Prince Alexandria. This foal is really a handsome one, and a thorough bred, and all who are interested in raising good stock should make a note of the fact that such a fine horse is owned in the township.
